WINNERS for the best costumes for the "Secret Desire" party held Thursday evening at the Melrose Grange hall by the women of the community were Katherine Young, Virginia Lynn and Mrs. J. E. Conn, pictured above. The affair was one of the most successful social events to be held in the community. (Picture by Trozie Nielsen).

The Melrose Grange Hall was the scene Thursday evening of a most successful and enjoyable party for all women of the community. The Grange Home Economics Club hosted the affair, which took the place of the open house which various granges are giving on suggestion of the Oregon State Grange.

Following a mixer and a relay game an interesting program was presented by various organizations of the community. Each chairman told of her group's activities and announced its number. Skills were presented by the Melrose Missionary Society, West Melrose Club and the Jolly Circle Club. Mrs. Clarence Coffelt gave two readings for the Friendly Hour Club. Mrs. J. E. Conn read an audience participation story for the Home Extension Unit. The kitchen band of the PTA was very well received. The Elgarose Comfort Club was represented but due to illness of the program chairman, no number was given. Mrs. Pete Veestra played the piano for group singing preceding the games.

Costume prizes were awarded to Virginia Lynn and Katherine Young. Mrs. J. E. Conn was given honorable mention. She also won a game prize as did Mrs. Carroll Sensabaugh.

Participating in the affair were Ruth White, Sylvia Pierce, Belva Buckwalter, Hazel Krohn, Florence Doerner, Mary Sanders, Esther Rowe, Ellen Hoffman, Beverly Sensabaugh, Elsie Parzeter, Kathryn Petrequin, Edna Sjogren, Mabel Backlund, Ada Durch, Carmen Cooper, Patricia Lucas, Norene Reece, Crystal Conn, Margaret Aydelott, Lorraine Rogers, Ethel Rogers, Honora Bassett, Ruby Burnett, Katharine Young, Ella Mae Young, Emma Abeel, Nellie Myers, Lorraine Veestra, Trozie Nielsen, Margie Hanson, Gen Williamson, Margaret Reece, Lora Bell Cooper, Elsie Isakson, Oma Troedel, Vera Conn, Emma Cooper, Grace Penn, Elsie Coffelt, Hazel Bly, Norma Feen, Marcelle Johnston, Margaret McGomas, M.
