

Local News

Claude and Mal Esselstrom of this city attended the York Rite Masons 4-day session this week in Eugene.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Carter returned home Sunday following a trip to Portland where the latter underwent medical treatment.

Jim McGeheey, who received medical attention for an injured foot this week at Douglas Community Hospital, is now convalescing at his home.

Mrs. Lewis Wilson and Mrs. Garland Hartman and children went to Cottage Grove Wednesday to spend the day visiting Pastor and Mrs. Robert Kunz and son, Paul.

Mrs. Leonard W. Riley of this city drove to Corvallis today to visit her son, Bill, and daughter, Pat, students at Oregon State College.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Foster of this city spent last weekend in Brookings visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Foster, and baby daughter.

Gerdoh Singleton of Portland visited in Roseburg a short time this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Singleton, on SE Chadwick Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nye of this city drove to Corvallis Tuesday to attend the funeral of Samuel Lewis. The Nye and Lewis families are close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Warg of this city were in Eugene this week where the former attended the York Rite Masons 4-day session. Mrs. Warg joined him for the banquet Wednesday night.

Mrs. Sam Wingfield Jr. and children expect to travel to Portland this weekend to pick up the former's husband who has been there for two weeks on an Air Force Reserve training program.

John Sylvester, student at Concordia in Portland, will arrive in Roseburg next Thursday to visit his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester, and will spend Saturday delivering Easter orders from the Fern Florists.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Simon and family of this city are taking the former's mother, Mrs. Frances Simon, of Morton, Minn., to Portland Sunday, where she will leave for her home, following a visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bailey and children, Terry and Joni, have returned home after a week spent in Disneyland at the Disneyland Hotel. The travelers made the trip to Los Angeles and back by plane, then took a helicopter to Disneyland itself.

Cleo Moats, a former Roseburg resident now living in Eugene, was in Roseburg recently to attend the Southern Oregon Spring Conference of the National Business and Professional Women's Clubs last weekend. Mrs. Moats assisted with the registrations.

Mrs. Cynthia Magill, a member of the Douglas County Music Teachers Association, has just published a book, "The Organ at Eventide," in a forthcoming issue of "The Organist."

Dale Kershman, Joe Morgan, Leonard W. Riley and Larry Holt were among Roseburg residents in the State Highway Department driving to Salem Friday to attend a meeting of the department in the evening.

Jerry Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long of this city, is reported to be getting along satisfactorily at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, where he is receiving treatment for injuries suffered in a plane crash at Corvallis. Jerry is a student at Oregon State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hill of Seattle, who have been in Phoenix, Ariz. three weeks on vacation and then stopped over en route home in Los Angeles, stopped here to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nye. They had stopped en route to Phoenix on their vacation also.

Miss Patricia Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Riley, and Miss Judy Stadler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stadler, were tapped for Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen women's scholastic honorary at Oregon State College.

Three 4-8 freshmen women were tapped for the honorary, 3.5 average or better is necessary to be tapped for the honorary.

Mrs. Cora Carlson of this city left today for Portland to join her son, Jack Cahill, and family, of Forest Grove, and they will leave the first of the week for Indians, home - state of Mrs. Carlson and this will be her first visit back there in 52 years. They plan to spend two weeks visiting relatives. Mrs. Carlson and the Cahills are making the trip by train.

University of Oregon Mothers Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. dessert - supper Monday, April 15, at the home of Mrs. H. A. Watzig, 224 W. Hickory Street. Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. Harold Backen and Mrs. R. M. Church will be assisting hostesses. Election of officers will be held. Mrs. S. A. Warg, program chairman, has requested each mother attending to bring one article from her hobby collection. Mrs. G. J. Feldkamp, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Boyles, will demonstrate Japanese and American flower arranging.

Five couples, all members of the Danabo Circle 8 Square Dance Club of Eugene, visited Saturday evening here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Atwood, former members of the club. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Duval, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Durkoop and Mr. and Mrs. David Wits. The group attended the Buckaroo dance earlier in the evening, going afterward to the Atwood home for refreshments.

Mrs. Ethel Kennerly left by plane today for a weekend in Klamath Falls to visit with her two daughters, Mrs. James A. Shasser and Mrs. Jack Probst, and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meade and daughter, Noreen, have sold their home on Willow Street and have left for Folsom, Calif., to make their home.

Miss Mary Ann Spencake, a former resident of the Gilegery district, has moved into Roseburg and is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Aquiso.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cantwell and son, Billy, went to Coos Bay this weekend to visit Mrs. Cantwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer Brady. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Cantwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Buell and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Nichols went to Portland last weekend on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Belle Clark and her sister, Mrs. Grace Barnes, were taken on a trip to Goshen last weekend by their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Don Fast. They visited a taxidermist where Mrs. Fast had a coat made from three bleached deer skins which her husband killed. On their return trip they visited Fast's parents at Yoncalla.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Winston-Dillard Unit Sets Meet

By ROSA HEINBACH

The Winston-Dillard Home Extension Unit has scheduled its next meeting Wednesday, April 23, at the Dillard - Winston Methodist Church.

The meeting starts at 10:30 and will include a noon potluck. Members should bring materials for framing pictures and an article for a Chinese auction. A county extension agent will be present.

Visits Parents
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cantwell and son, Billy, went to Coos Bay this weekend to visit Mrs. Cantwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer Brady. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Cantwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Buell and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Nichols went to Portland last weekend on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Belle Clark and her sister, Mrs. Grace Barnes, were taken on a trip to Goshen last weekend by their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Don Fast. They visited a taxidermist where Mrs. Fast had a coat made from three bleached deer skins which her husband killed. On their return trip they visited Fast's parents at Yoncalla.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home this week following a business trip to Portland where Mrs. Manske received medical observation. They then drove up to Seaside to visit Mrs. Manske's mother, Mrs. Melvina Manske. Mrs. Manske is scheduled to return to Portland next week for surgery.

Mrs. Ed Welch has returned to her home on Lookingglass Road from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crouch.

Rainbow Garden Club Sets Card Party For Robin Dale

By ROSA HEINBACH

A card party for the Robin Dale School in Roseburg is being sponsored by the Rainbow Garden Club Friday afternoon, April 26.

It will be held at the Evergreen Grange Hall on Highway 99 south of Roseburg. Pinochle and canasta will be played, starting at 1 p.m. Special prizes will be offered.

Recuperating
Mrs. Dean Robins of Dillard is recuperating from an emergency operation at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene. Mrs. Robins was in critical condition prior to her surgery last week but she is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Robins and twins, Judy and Jerry, and daughter, Pat, moved into the G. Phillip Smith residence in Dillard recently from Dayton, Wash. Mrs. Robins is a sister of Mrs. Cal Scheirmister, a long-time resident in Dillard.

Sgt. W. T. Eason and children, Raymond and Katherine, visited the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Eason, recently. Sgt. Eason has been discharged from the Air Force and was en route home to Fisher, La., following his discharge at Everett, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Godfrey and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brittain drove to Medford Wednesday on a business trip.

Takes Plane Trip
Mrs. Christine Simmons took a plane trip to Coos Bay recently for medical observation. She is a teacher at the Temple School.

David Preston, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leile Preston, is recuperating from a broken right leg which was treated recently at the Community Hospital. The accident occurred while David was playing at the home of his uncle, Wayland Gentry.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Collins and sons, Victor and Lonnie, went to Grants Pass Sunday to visit old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burison, and family, former residents of Dillard.

Roger Metcalf, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Metcalf, was taken to Eugene this week for medical observation on his left elbow, which was injured several months ago. He will have surgery on the arm in the near future.

Mrs. Lillie Holtsclaw and her daughter, Mrs. Laura Smith, both of Glendale, have been visiting in Independence with Mrs. Holtsclaw's granddaughter, Mrs. Frank Britton, and in Forest Grove with her son, Bill Holtsclaw, who is assistant district forest ranger there.

Treated
Mrs. John McDonald of Glendale entered Josephine Hospital last week for minor surgery and medical treatment. She is reported to be doing well.

Allen Stumbo of Sunny Valley, self-employed in logging near Glendale, required 11 stitches early this week after being cut by a power saw on the right lower leg.

Paul Ronchi, employed by the Robert Dollar Lumber Co. in Glendale, tried to get out of the way of a falling tree last week, slipped and fell between two logs, twisting his left knee. There was no fracture.

Elwin King reported on the progress of the school planning committee and announced that the application for the flood control had been signed and mailed to the state engineer and soil conservation department in Portland.

The first and second degree will be put on by the Fair Oaks Grange at the Evergreen Grange on April 26. Pomona Grange will be held at Melrose Grange April 27 and members are asked to bring salad or dessert.

Maggie Francis home economic chairman announced that their meeting will hold April 16 with Merle Politch as hostess, and that the Grange had donated to the Spence Memorial Fund, Youth Program and Care this quarter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Newell were granted permits from San Bernardino, Calif., Grange to join the Fair Oak Grange.

Easter Program Set By Kellogg
By ARIEL HUBBARD
An Easter program will be given after the regular meeting of the Kellogg Grange on April 17.

Lecturer Lucy Haines is in charge of the program; Mrs. Mabel Rader will give the story of Easter. The program will play Easter music and there will be a solo by Frances Carnes.

Once a year the grange visits one of the churches in Elktion, and on Sunday evening April 14, they will visit the Christian Church.

Attend Concert
A group of 15 adults attended the piano concert given at the Arthur Chant in Eugene this week.

The Pomona Hillbillies Square Dance Club held an executive meeting this week at the home of President Bill McIntosh.

The varsity basketball team was honored with a steak dinner at the Roaring Camp Steak House this week by Orvil Beckley.

May 1 has been set as the date for the Elktion Music Festival. The concert will be under the direction of William Hickerson and held at the high school gym at 7:30 p.m. Both grade school and high school students will participate.

Back From California
By MRS. WILLIAM BANKS
Henry W. Banks has returned to Camas Valley after spending the winter in California.

Banks stayed at the home of his son, C. L. Banks, in Lomita and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGown, his daughter, in Richmond. He also visited his granddaughter, Mrs. Vernon Duncan, who resides in Oildale, Calif. Mrs. Richard West, of Camas went to Richmond, Calif., to accompany her father home.

George Smith has been caring for the Banks home while Banks was in California.

Toastmistresses To Meet
The regular meeting of the Camas Valley Toastmistress Club will be held April 17 at 7:30 p.m. at Barta Cafe.

The Camas Valley Home Extension Unit will hold its regular meeting to elect officers at the April 17 business meeting. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. H. Parrott at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Robert Cummings and Mrs. Everett Church will demonstrate how sofa cushions are made, and the meeting is open to all interested women in the community.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pryor were the niece of Mrs. Pryor, Vicki Lynne Lowe from Portland, Ore. Vicki is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lowe, former residents of Roseburg.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE HUGHES, above, sponsors for the First Baptist Church, are pictured above at the senior high banquet held Saturday evening. "Japanese Garden" was the theme carried out in the banquet decorations and program.

The senior high youth group of the First Baptist Church of Roseburg held its annual formal banquet Saturday attended by about 60 persons.

"Japanese Garden" was the theme carried out for the decorations and the program, with pink and black as the color scheme. The walls featured large fans and the tables were decorated with Japanese quince and rickshaws filled with pink camellias. At one end of the banquet room a Japanese garden was arranged under a silver star-spangled sky. The garden contained a waterfall and a pool with floating camellias.

The Rev. Mr. Moore of the Emerald Baptist Church in Eugene was the special speaker. Gene Horn acted as master of ceremonies. Sharon Pepple and Dale Poteat gave toasts on "Brotherhood" and Mrs. West entertained the group with music and a chalk talk.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes are sponsors for the youth group.

TILLICUM BRIDGE CLUB ENJOYS RECENT LUNCHEON
Camellias and potted chrysanthemums were used Tuesday when Mrs. Joe Perrault and Mr. Norman Jacobson entertained the Sutherlin Tillicum Club at a one o'clock salad luncheon.

Those enjoying the day with Mrs. Perrault and Mrs. Jacobson were the Mesdames Ralston Bridges, Loyal Stearns, Harry Barker, Edward Lamoreaux, Frank McCord, John Chase, Cue Bielman, Vern Holgate, Cal Bowles and C. A. Petherick.

For the afternoon's contract bridge Mrs. Bowles won high. Mrs. Stearns second high, Mrs. Chase low and Mrs. Lamoreaux the traveling goose. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, April 23, at the home of Mrs. Vern Liesinger with Mrs. John Chase as co-hostess.

BAIRDS ENTERTAIN CLUB AT RECENT SUPPER PARTY
Beautiful arrangements of camellias were used by Mr. and Mrs. William Baird of Sutherlin. Saturday night when they entertained their pinochle club at a seven thirty o'clock potluck supper.

Those enjoying the supper and card play were Mr. and Mrs. Cal Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Barnes and the host and hostess.

For the evening's pinochle play Mr. and Mrs. Barnes won high score.

The next meeting will be Saturday evening, May 4, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorson Jr.

MRS. SHEPARD FETED AT CHARMING SHOWER
Mrs. Orley Weist and Mrs. William L. Banks were co-hostesses Friday at the Camas Valley home of Mrs. Weist for a pink and blue shower in honor of Mrs. Claude Shephard.

Appropriate games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Henry Cummings and Mrs. Shephard.

A cake in the form of a baby's crib was cut by Mrs. Shephard and served to Mrs. Phillip Boyd, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Virgil Moody, Mrs. Henry Cummings and daughter, Lois; Mrs. Virgil Grant, Mrs. Carl Dahl, Mrs. Cecil Halterman, Mrs. Wesley Smith, Mrs. Dave Thurst, Mrs. Orley Weist and Mrs. Bobby, and Mrs. William L. Banks.

MRS. GOODMAN HOSTESS AT BRIDAL SHOWER
Miss Sherry Chesley of Oakland was honored at a bridal shower recently at the home of Mrs. Ivan Goodman.

Lovely bouquets of bridal wreath and daffodils were used for decoration.

Several games were played, with Mrs. W. L. Wilson and Mrs. Joe Orty as prizewinners.

After the gifts were opened the hostess served refreshments to Miss Chesley, Mrs. Laverne Woodward, Mrs. Tim Osborn, Mrs. Chesley McKinzie, Mrs. Orty, Mrs. Boehrs, Mrs. W. L. Wilson, Mrs. Everett Brown, Mrs. Jean Baird, Mrs. Carl Thornton, Mrs. Albert Pritchett, Nita Buck, Virginia Goodman, Myrtle Hunt and Mary and May Braum.

SOCIAL CLUB HAS WEDNESDAY MEETING
Lend A Hand Club of Fair Oaks met Wednesday at the