

MRS. EARL (GLADYS) WILEY, above, grand marshal of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, was honored at one of the largest affairs of the spring season, when members of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, gave a reception in the beautiful Gold Room of the Hotel Umpqua May 11 at 8 p.m. For the occasion, Mrs. Wiley chose a silver blue taffeta formal gown of Princess design. Her corsage was an orchid. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

The receiving line with Mrs. Wiley included Mrs. Luverne Von Schrititz, worthy matron of Roseburg Chapter; Mrs. Bertha Burton, worthy grand matron; Walter Bailey, worthy grand patron and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, past grand matron.

Musical selections were given by Lois Ann Stewart and R. Cloyd Riffe preceding the opening. Luverne Von Schrititz, worthy matron, and Charles Pratt, worthy patron, of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, took their places in the East. At each end of the rostrum white trelises had been placed which were beautifully decorated with white snowballs and red and white peonies. A large basket of red and white peonies in front of the speakers desk completed the lovely setting.

The worthy matron graciously welcomed the guests. Leland Bloom, the associate patron, presented the flag, escorted by Mildred Bloom, Marshal of Roseburg Chapter. After singing the Star Spangled Banner the flag was placed in the East and the pledge of allegiance was led by Leland Bloom.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Ellsworth Tilton, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Roseburg.

The worthy matron directed the conductress, Ellen Chitwood, and associate conductress Connie Pratt to escort the distinguished guests, Bertha O. Burton, worthy grand matron, and Walter Bailey, worthy grand patron, of the Grand Chapter of Oregon to the East presented by the worthy matron and given grand honors.

Hazel Graham, past grand matron, and grand lecturer, Leila Wimberly, Irene McKinley, Louise Irving all past grand matrons, and Charlotte Wiseman, junior past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, were escorted to the east presented by the worthy matron and given grand honors.

Gladys Wiley, grand marshal, honored guest of the evening was then escorted. She wore a silver blue princess style taffeta formal, a white orchid and white net mitts. She was presented by the worthy matron and given a very hearty welcome.

Mary Lou Denham, grand treasurer; Celeste Dickinson, grand conductress; Willida Bollman, grand chaplain; Juanita Carmichael, grand organist; Cecelia Dex-

PAST MATRONS CLUB, OES ENJOYS DESSERT-SUPPER

Members of the Past Matrons Club, OES 8, enjoyed their May meeting recently at the beautiful Grant Osborn home in Winchester. The twilight view of the grounds was most lovely at sundown from the bank of the Umpqua River.

Mrs. Osborn was assisted in serving the delicious dessert supper by Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Mrs. John Runyon, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mrs. Gordon Stewart and Miss Ethel Webb.

President Effie Morgan conducted the meeting. After adjournment Elizabeth Runyon, program chairman, presented a clever skit entitled, "This is Your Life," for Mrs. Walter Omsheid, junior past matron of Chapter 8, OES to initiate her into the club.

Guests enjoying the occasion were Luverne Von Schrititz, worthy matron of Roseburg chapter, and Dorothy Darlington, past worthy matron of Corvallis chapter.

Members attending were Lorene Ashman, Mary Bubar, Eva Mae Ferrier, Ethel Finlay, Ramona Hampton, Ruth Heiner, Florence Hercher, Maude Kidder, Frances Lintott, Christina Miceli, Nell Motschenbacher, Clarabelle Newland, Florence Plummer, Leta Shoemaker, Flossie Virden, Loretta Walker, Moda Whipple, Gladys Wiley, Alda Williams, Leila Wimberly, Mabel Laird, Myrtle Omscheid and the hostess.

The club will not meet during the summer but will hold a picnic, the date and place to be announced.

a lovely gift from Roseburg Chapter No. 8.

The Roseburg Barber Shop Chorus directed by Charles Ricketts entertained with several penny numbers. After a brief and heartfelt speech of gratitude Mrs. Wiley presented her family and recognized the 51 matrons and patrons. Mrs. Wiley was matron of Roseburg in 1951. She also introduced Elsie Gregg of Longview, Wash., who was captain of the Grand pages in 1951 when Mrs. Wiley served as grand page.

The worthy matron invited the guests to the refreshment room. The tables were arranged in a V shape and were beautifully appointed with lace table cloths over pale green. Large bowls of Betty Warnold and Cynthia rhododendrons with maidenhair ferns graced the tables beneath the soft candlelight. Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. V. J. Miceli and Mrs. A. J. Ellison poured.

The guest book was in charge of Mrs. S. S. Shaeffer, Mrs. William Robertson and Mrs. E. G. Randolph.
