Dr. and Mrs. Byron W. Travis were honored by members of Calvary Presbyterian Church, NE Sandy Blvd. and 71st Avenue, Portland, Sunday afternoon, May 5, in recognition of 25 years of service with the church. Dr. Travis has the distinction of being the longest continuous Presbyterian pastor in the state of Oregon at the present time. Dr. and Mrs. Travis and son went to Portland in May 1932 from the Seminary at San Anselmo, Calif. Dr. Travis had three other pastorates previously. He became pastor of Unity Community Church as it was known then. The church had been organized in 1912 and had six pastors over the first 20 year period. The membership was then 200. In 1930 the new church was built under the direction of Dr. Travis and the membership is now over 600. The church name was changed in 1948 when the original downtown Calvary Church was merged with Unity Presbyterian Church. Eldon Floyd Lienard was master of ceremonies and Mrs. Ola Smith gave a review of the struggles of the church during the early days when Dr. Travis first took the pastorate. A sterling silver service was presented to Dr. and Mrs. Travis by Elder John Wenn. The Travis' son and daughter-in-law, The Rev. and Mrs. Byron A. Travis, and family, from the Presbyterian Church of Parkdale, Ore., were present. Mrs. Travis is the former Jennet Croft of Roseburg and is a sister of Percy Croft of this city.

THIS IS THE VODKA OF VODKAS

Vodkas are not all alike—but you don't have to give it another thought if you take the precaution of specifying Smirnoff Vodka. Smirnoff is the vodka of vodkas, made from grain just as it has been made for 132 years, by the exclusive Smirnoff process. It's smart to drink Smirnoff—in more ways than one.
