

BACK IN THE SADDLE—Jockey Willie Shoemaker sits tight in his saddle as an unidentified groom pulls his rearing horse back to the ground at Ingleswood, Calif. Cheering fans caused the horse, Ballet Khal, to shy as she was lead into the winner's circle. Shoemaker won his first race as he returned to the track after having sat out a 15-day suspension for misjudging the finish of the Kentucky Derby.

The Tri-City Braves, who dominated the early going in the Northwest League pennant race, can't seem to get off the slide that has taken them from first place to fourth place in a shade more than two weeks.

The Braves suffered their eighth straight defeat Tuesday night, a 7-6, 10-inning setback at the hands of the Wenatchee Chiefs to drop into fourth place, nine games behind the front-running Yakima Bears.

Vern Kinsfather, the veteran Coast League, chalked up the Salem win with a nine-hit pitching performance. The Senators sewed it up in the seventh inning with three runs on two walks, Ted Rhodes' triple and Gene Laursen's single.

The Senators announced the signing of Dwayne Brandt, a pitcher from Oregon College of Education, Brandt, who formerly played at Pacific Lutheran College in Tacoma, had an 8-2 record with OCE this season. He graduates June 4.

The short scores:
Salem 210 000 300-6 10 0
Eugene 000 001 012-4 9 4
Kinsfather and Neal; Acker, Marten (7), Tanner (7) and Gauthier.

Baseball Fan Nurses Swollen Mouth After Ruckus With Cliff Dapper

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho—A 16-year-old baseball fan nursed a swollen lip Thursday, which he said was caused by a blow from 37-year-old Cliff Dapper, manager of the Salt Lake Bee baseball club, in a ruckus which followed the Salt Lake-Idaho Falls game Monday night.

Dapper said no punches were thrown. And young Ronald Ellsworth of Rigby, Idaho, said he did not throw any punches in the fracas because he didn't want to get into trouble.

"I just accepted a dare," Ellsworth said. "Anyway he (Dapper) is kind of old for me to be fighting."

Iron Liege Ails

CAMDEN, N.J.—Kentucky Derby winner Iron Liege has developed a calcium deposit in his right foreleg and could be sidelined for as long as two months if the leg doesn't respond to treatment in the next two days, trainer Jimmy Jones disclosed Tuesday.

Jones, trainer for the Calumet Farm, said at Garden State Park where Iron Liege is stabled that the star three-year-old may be trying to "pop a splint," which would mean a long layoff.

Some days you can't make a nickel. And yesterday was one of those days for the Cincinnati Redlegs and Don Gross.

Gross, a 25-year-old left-hander, pitched one of his best games ever, walking one and striking out two and allowing just two hits. But he lost to the Milwaukee Braves 1-0—his first defeat since Sept. 8, 1955.

The Redlegs, who retained their two-game lead in the National League as the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers lost 3-2 in 11 innings at Pittsburgh, managed eight hits off Warren Spahn, but left seven runners stranded for their first defeat on the road in 16 games.

The major league record for consecutive road victories is 17, set by the 1917 New York Giants. With the victory, the Braves ended their losing streak at three games to retain their third place, 1/2 game back of Cincinnati and a game ahead of fourth place Philadelphia. The Phillies, off on their biggest scoring binge since 1953, walloped the New York Giants 16-6. St. Louis defeated Chicago's Cubs 5-1 in the other NL game, with cardinal Wally Moon extending his hitting streak to 21 games.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox stayed two games in front, defeating Kansas City 3-1 while the second-place

New York Yankees went 10 innings to beat Boston 4-5.

Indians Win
Cleveland nudged Detroit 4-3 on Eddie Robinson's two-run pinch homer in the ninth.

Gross, who had won eight since his last loss, had faced only 22 men before Bobby Thomson opened the Milwaukee eighth with a triple and came home with the clincher on a single by Frank Torre.

Spahn didn't walk a man while gaining his 38th career shutout with his fifth victory of the season.

The Dodgers missed their chance to gain ground on Peewee Reese's throwing error at Pittsburgh. The Bucs shelled Don Newcombe, who had six consecutive complete games, with two singles and an intentional walk that filled the bases in the 11th. Then Bob Clemente greeted Clem Labine with a sharp grounder to Reese who threw high to the plate.

Richie Ashburn had four of the Phils' 17 hits off six Giant pitchers, and Rip Repulski, Willie Jones, Stan Lopata and winning reliever Bob Miller each drove in three runs. Johnny Antonelli lost his sixth.

Marciano Puts Gloves Back On To Spar; Denies Return

BOSTON, Mass.—Rocky Marciano is going to pull on the gloves again—but only as a sparring partner for his unbeaten protege, Billy Ryan.

Rocky, the retired world heavyweight champion who had 49 consecutive professional victories to his credit, has a financial interest in Ryan.

The 21-year-old light heavyweight newcomer from Lowell has fought only slightly over 27 minutes in eight bouts, including one six round decision. The other seven ended in first round knockouts.

Though Marciano, the Brockton bomber, has watched Ryan only once because of a crowded schedule, he has plans for the future.

"I'm busy with so many things right now I don't have much time but I hope later on to be able to step in the ring with Ryan and show him what I learned," Rocky said.

Ryan is co-managed by Marciano's trainer, Allie Cumbio and Ted Coupe. Rocky holds a 35-0 record in amateur fights while in the Marines and who numbered a service title in Japan among his accomplishments.

"He works very hard and seems to be at his best at 168 pounds," Marciano replied.

"Right now that seems to be his level but he's young and time will tell whether he will be able to hit the heavyweight division."

Marciano has no intention at present of becoming a fight handler or manager of a stable.

"I got interested in Ryan through my trainer, Allie Cumbio," he explained. "I'm not a manager. I have an interest in him. It's a special case."

Ryan will make his Boston debut June 11 in a 10-rounder against Milton Epps of New York, who was his decision victim.

As for a possible ring comeback, Rocky stands firm on his decision that he is through. Despite a note of nostalgia in his voice while discussing his new view of fights from outside the ropes, the Rock said:

"A man has to make up his mind about the important things in life and stick to his decisions. I made my choice and nothing will change it."

PITCHERS SOLD
SEATTLE—Two former major league pitchers, Lou Kretlow and Joe Black, have been sold by the Seattle Rainiers, Dewey Soriano, Rainiers' general manager, announced Saturday.

Larry Jackson, a 25-year-old right-hander, allowed five hits, struck out eight and walked none while the Cards made nine hits off loser Moe Drabowsky and two relievers.

Williams Homers
Rookie Bill Fischer snapped the A's winning streak at four games with a six-pitter for his third victory. An RBI single by Sherm Lollar, a double steal and a wild pitch by loser Rip Coleman gave the Sox two runs in the first inning, breaking a two-game Chicago slump.

Ted Williams' lone hit, his 11th home run, brought the Red Sox a 5-5 tie in the ninth at Boston, but the Yankees socked it away with three in the 10th, two on a Hank Bauer double. Art Ditmar won it in relief with Ike Delock the loser in relief.

Don Mossi made his first start to help Cleveland's injury-weakened pitching staff. He gave three hits in eight for his second victory. Ray Narleski worked the ninth, but had to escape a bases-loaded jam to save it. Two of the Tiger hits were homers, a solo shot by Ray Boone and a two-run job by Bill Tuttle.

SLAUGHTER SNAGS ONE—Enos Slaughter, 20-year-old major league veteran, makes a diving, rolling catch of bid for hit by Jim Lamon of the Washington Senators in opener of twin bill against the New York Yankees in New York's Yankee Stadium Sunday. Slaughter captured drive in left field in the ninth inning. Yankees lost opener 9-7, won the nightcap 7-6. (AP)

Score Released From Hospital

CLEVELAND, Ohio—Pitcher Herb Score was released from Lakeside Hospital Tuesday, three weeks after he was hit in the right eye by a line drive.

The 23-year-old southpaw ace of the Cleveland Indians, injured on May 7, was wearing dark glasses when he left the hospital, but took them off for photographers. The only thing noticeable about his injured eye was a dilated pupil, which Dr. Charles L. Thomas said was caused by medication and only temporary.

"I think he'll be back in baseball," the doctor said. "But I can't say what degree of vision he will have. Nobody really knows." He took off for Hagerstown, Md., to recuperate at the home of an uncle.

Oldfield, Mrs. Kendall Take Foursome Golf Play
Winners of the two-ball foursome golf play at the Roseburg Country Club Sunday were club pro Ed Oldfield and partner Mrs. Sam Kendall with a 46 gross and a net 31.

Runnerup places were taken by Jerry Coen and Mrs. Leonard Johanson with a gross 50 and a 15 handicap for a 35 net.

A total of 12 teams took part in the event.

'Little Mo' Mother

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—A girl was born Tuesday to Mrs. Maureen Connolly Brinker, 22, the former "Little Mo" of tennis fame.

Both the mother and baby, weighing 6 pounds 9 1/2 ounces, were reported "doing fine" at Sharp Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Brinker retired from tournament tennis in 1955, after winning most of the world's tennis championships, and married Norman Brinker. This is their first child.
