LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1957

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

JUNE, the most favored month for brides, will be no exception to the rule for 1957 as the calendar shows dates for a number of important weddings in Roseburg. One of the first announced for the month is to be the wedding Sunday, June 2, at 2 p.m. of Miss Janice Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Smith, of this city, and Robert Leroy Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cook of Roseburg.

THE BRIDE-TO-BE AND HER sister, Leone, below, who will be maid of honor at the wedding, try the bride's veil on their 20-months-old sister, Cindy Smith, promises to make a beautiful bride in not too many years away. Janice was graduated from Roseburg High School Monday evening.
