

THE WEDDING of Miss Mable Taylor of Lodi, Calif., and Frank Anderson of Glendale took place at an impressive ceremony Sunday, May 19, in the Glendale Seventh-day Adventist Church with the Elder Neal Ibsen of Canyonville officiating. (Fox Photo).

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dan Mertz of Lodi, sister of the bride. Mr. Mertz acted as best man. Flower girl was Marlene Kessinger, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kessinger of Glendale. Ushers were Ted Roberts and Robert Grandy.

The bride wore a formal-length wedding gown of white on white figured nylon and lace. The high neckline was trimmed with seed pearls as was the tulle holding the short veil. She wore white nylon gloves. Her bridal bouquet was of red and white carnations tied with white satin ribbon.

The matron of honor wore a street-length dress of coral nylon lace, white hat, long white nylon gloves and white sandals. Her bouquet was of pink and red roses and fern tied with white satin ribbon.

Marlene Kessinger wore a pale pink floor-length gown with a four-tiered skirt and a wide shawl collar. She carried a wide basket filled with red rose petals and tied with pink and white bows.

The wedding took place in front of a bank of greenery and white dogwood blossoms. At either side were bouquets of iris, roses, lilacs and baskets of maple leaves. Above the platform hung white paper wedding bells. Rosettes of white ribbon and silver metallic maline were fastened to the ends of the pews in the center aisle of the church.

During the service Dr. Fletcher of Roseburg and formerly of Glendale sang two solos, "I'll Walk Beside You," and "O Perfect Love."

A wedding reception was held after the ceremony at the Ted Roberts home in Glendale.

The couple cut a four-tiered white cake decorated with pink roses and silver leaves and with wedding bells set in a heart-shaped frame and a white ribbon bow. White candles were set on either side of the cake at one end of the serving table. At the other end, a large punch bowl filled with pink fruit punch was centered with a heart-shaped cake of ice ornamented with red roses. A bouquet of pink roses further enhanced the lovely table setting.

Mrs. John Carlack served the punch and Mrs. Allen Kessinger served the cake. Mrs. Carl Miner

CUTTING THE TRADITIONAL first piece of their four-tiered wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Costill, above, who were married April 19 at 8 p.m. in El Monte, Calif. The bride, Barbara Ann Byrd, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Byrd of 1894 Douglas St., Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lillian D. Costill of 8111 E. Garvey Blvd., South San Gabriel, Calif. (Picture by Sidney Cartier, Los Angeles).

The Southern Calvary Baptist Church in El Monte, Calif., was the scene Friday, April 19, of the wedding of Miss Barbara Ann Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Byrd of this city, to William Edward Costill, son of Mrs. Lillian D. Costill of South San Gabriel, Calif. Seventy-one guests witnessed the double ring ceremony which was performed at 8 p.m. by the pastor of the church.

The church was decorated with two baskets of assorted spring flowers and two candelabra, each holding seven candles. Harry J. Fricks was soloist and sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's father, Earl Byrd, made the trip to the Southern California city to give his daughter in marriage. She wore a lovely lace over satin gown, styled with Peter Pan collar, three-quarter-length sleeves and a full bell-shaped skirt. Her fingertip veil was secured by a pearl crown. She carried a large white orchid in a cluster of white carnations, tied with white satin streamers.

The bride's twin sister, Miss Beverly Mae Byrd, acted as maid of honor. She wore a frock of yellow nylon with matching sash and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Mrs. Helen E. Sanders in blue chiffon, and Miss Marlene Folsom in blue chiffon, were bridesmaids. Both carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Best man was Jerry T. Costill and ushers were Lloyd L. Vaughn and Loran Stone.

For her daughter's wedding and reception following, Mrs. Byrd wore a pale blue two-piece dress with pink rose corsage. Mrs. Costill wore black gabardine with pink rose corsage.

The young people will honeymoon in Roseburg where they will attend the wedding June 8 of the bride's sister, Beverly Mae Byrd, to Duke Ricketts. They are presently at home at 3721 1/2 Rosemead Blvd., Rosemead, Calif.

The bridegroom was graduated from Montebello High School and the bride was graduated from Roseburg High School.

Coming from a distance to attend the wedding were the bride's parents from Roseburg and James Byrd and T. C. Williams, both of Norfolk, Va.
