

ROTARY ANNS held their annual dinner in the Gold Room of the Hotel Umpqua Thursday evening, at which time the club scholarship was awarded to Judy Barnhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnhart, for being an outstanding and worthy high school graduating girl student. Judy plans to go to Southern Oregon College at Ashland to study to become an elementary school teacher. Above left to right: Mrs. George Halladay, Mrs. Roy Barnhart and daughter, Judy; Mrs. W. F. Forrest and Mrs. Frank Denton. Below, the retiring president, Mrs. Denton, is pictured with the incoming president, Mrs. Harold Horn. (Pictures by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Carolyn Marie Morris Has Third Birthday

Carolyn Marie Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Morris, celebrated her third birthday at a charming garden party Monday afternoon. Favors were presented to the children.

Lovely gifts were presented to Carolyn from Larry Schuetz, Gregory Wright, Laurie and Scott Hicks, Del and Michael McKay, Philip and Richard Sterling, Julie Golden, Stevie White, Gayle Tullos, Robin Jill Barker and Margaret Rogers.

Mothers present were Mrs. Vincent Schuetz, Mrs. Charles E. Wright, Mrs. Claud Hicks, Mrs. Del McKay, Mrs. William Sterling, Mrs. James Golden, Mrs. Robert C. White and Mrs. Bernard Rogers. The latter assisted in serving the lovely refreshments. The beautifully decorated birthday cake (which was topped by a Maypole) was decorated by Mrs. Schuetz.

BIRTHDAY DINNER HOSTED BY SUTHERLIN WOMEN

A delightful birthday turkey dinner was served Sunday at the country home of Ethel Manning and Mrs. Minnie Abernethy of Sutherlin.

Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith and Mrs. Sandra McDow and daughter, Cathy, all of Salem; Mrs. Rhoda Lamoreaux, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lamoreaux and children, Jon and Jeanie, all of Oakland; and the two hostesses.

Mrs. McDow and small daughter are en route to the Philippine Islands to join the former's husband who is stationed there. Lovely gifts were exchanged and the day was spent socially.

Charming Shower Given For Carolyn Pargeter

A lovely bridal shower honoring Miss Carolyn Pargeter was given Friday evening at the Melrose home of Mrs. Carroll Sensabaugh. Mrs. Victor Lewis was co-hostess. Arrangements of yellow, white and blue iris and white candles formed the decorations. A white paper umbrella graced the gift table.

Several interesting games were presented by the hostess, after which the honoree opened her many beautiful and useful gifts which were presented to her from the Mesdames J. P. Bathrick, Ed Zeigler, Carson Chitwood, L. L. Chitwood, R. A. Busenbark, D. N. Busenbark, L. E. Goodbourn, T. B. Busenbark, Roger Reece, Ted Reece, Guy Oglesby, Darrell Isaacson, Walter Kruse, R. E. Pargeter, William Reinhardt, T. H. Pargeter, C. E. Reece, George Williamson, J. E. Doyle, J. E. Conn, Grant Phillips, O. O. Matthews, Arthur Herrman, Andrew Artimenco, Edward Blanchard, J. S. Stidham, Jack Trusty, Dale Ellis, Dale Busenbark, William Lowery and Miss Lorena Judd, Miss Anita Herrman and the two hostesses.

Delicious refreshments were served. The hostesses presented Miss Pargeter with a beautiful corsage. The honoree and Myron Phillips plan to be married June 16 at the Presbyterian Church.

Pink And Blue Shower Honors Mrs. Robert West

Mrs. Robert West was honored this past week at a pink and blue shower party at the home of Mrs. Charles Ostrander in East Roseburg. Co-hostess with Mrs. Ostrander was Mrs. Jack Chapman.

Entertaining games were enjoyed. The refreshments carried out the pink theme of the decorating. Lovely arrangements of Cecil Brunner roses were attractively used about the room.

Rotary Anns Meet For Dinner On Wednesday

The Rotary Anns met at the Gold Room in the Hotel Umpqua Thursday evening for their annual dinner, a large attendance of members and guests enjoying the affair.

The tables were decorated by Mrs. Frank Denton and Mrs. Leslie West who used the color scheme of pink and gold. The tables were attractively ornamented with pink streamers, pink candles, pastel butterflies and small umbrellas depicting spring.

Mrs. Duane Lafferty, Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. Story Iles, Mrs. L. L. Powell and Mrs. George Halladay acted as hostesses. Mrs. Denton, president, greeted members and guests and reports from committee chairmen were heard.

Mrs. William Carstens, program chairman, introduced Robert Robbins, who presented the freshman sextette who sang two lovely songs. Vir Micelli then spoke most interestingly on the history of Roseburg and its beginnings in 1854.

Mrs. William Forrest, scholarship chairman, introduced Miss Judy Barnhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnhart, who was chosen to receive the Rotary Ann scholarship. This is given each year to an outstanding and worthy high school girl, Judy, who expects to go to Southern Oregon College at Ashland, intends to become an elementary teacher.

Mrs. Harold Horn, who was installed as the new president, announced committees for the following year.

Auxiliary Benefit Parties Successful

The first annual benefit fund drive of the Douglas Community Hospital Auxiliary held Monday through Friday of last week at the beautiful home of Mrs. Philip Johnson on the South Umpqua River at Winston proved to be most successful as well as enjoyable to the many attending.

A bridge and pinocle marathon was held with the grand prizes being awarded Friday. The ten winners in bridge daily and the four pinocle winners daily completed Friday for the grand prizes. Mrs. Roy Catching won the grand prize in the contract bridge play with Mrs. Chester Morgan, second, and Mrs. W. C. Callison, third. Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker won the grand prize for the pinocle play. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Otto Gosnell and Mrs. Kenneth Ford.

Mrs. Johnson acted as general chairman for the five-party affair. Gorgeous arrangements of spring blossoms decorated the spacious rooms. A large number of men joined the group for the daily luncheons, which were served by Mrs. Ruth Bradley, assisted by members of the auxiliary. A punch and cookie bar was maintained in the afternoon by Mrs. Everett P. Johnson. Mrs. A. G. Henninger was chairman of the serving committee; Mrs. Fred Lockwood had charge of the bridge and pinocle prizes; Mrs. H. Sanislo and Mrs. Glenn Gibbons acted as chairmen of publicity; Mrs. M. L. Hallmark was bridge chairman and

MRS. FITZPATRICK FETED ON BIRTHDAY MONDAY

Mrs. Doris Fitzpatrick was honored at a surprise birthday party given Monday evening at the Canyonville home of Mrs. John Tully. After the social hour, refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Billie Hatt and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ritchey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davison and daughter, Victor Fitzpatrick and the honoree.

Lose Weight

When you take AYDS before meals, as directed, you automatically eat less and lose weight naturally. In clinical tests on four different rebalancing formulas, doctors proved the AYDS Plan and lost their extra weight and their extra pounds. Guaranteed to work for you. Month's supply, $2.95.

AYDS VITAMIN CANDY
Pay Less Drug Store
101 S. E. JACKSON ST. - ROSEBURG

MRS. KENNETH FORD, above, has been re-elected president of the Roseburg Woman's club for 1937-38. She has had a most successful presidency during 1936-37 and a large number of interesting projects have been completed during her term. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Other new officers for the coming year are Mrs. Harold Hoyt, first vice president; Mrs. Clyde Carstens, second vice president; Mrs.

A. G. McLain, treasurer; Mrs. Leon Mulkey, recording secretary; Mrs. Albert G. McBee, financial secretary, and Mrs. N. Charles Wallin, corresponding secretary. Two new board members, Mrs. J. M. Boyles and Mrs. Paul Abeel, were installed.

The club will meet at a 12:30 o'clock noon luncheon Tuesday, June 4, at the clubhouse with the executive committee as hostesses. Members and their guests are invited and those attending are asked to bring their own table service. The program for the coming year will be announced. Final reports will be made for 1936-37, dues will be payable and the budget will be read and voted on.

The executive board will meet at 11 a.m. at the clubhouse prior to the potluck luncheon.

GRADUATION PARTY IS GALA EVENT OF MONDAY

A graduation party was given Monday evening honoring Arlene and Darlene Botsford, twins; Gordie Shankel and Richard Johnson.

The former three are graduating seniors from Douglas High School and Richard is from Roseburg High School. Host and hostess for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Botsford, grandparents of the twins. The honored guests received many lovely gifts.

Highlight of the evening was the announcement of the engagement of Arlene Botsford to Leonard Johnson.

A beautiful, decorated cake and other refreshments were served to Leonard Johnson, Bud Coum, Bill Perry, Janice Hepper, Michael Jennie, Bob Hansen, Marge Hansen, Elsie Palmer, Jay Palmer, Ruth Palmer, Virginia Jennie, Marlene Jennie, Fran LaBore, Dwight LaBore, Carl Higginbotham, Alta Higginbotham, Ronald Farmer, Adell Burt, Elsie Burt, Nellie Hepper, Gordie Shankel, Arlene Botsford, Darlene Botsford, Richard Johnson, Larry LaBore, Barbara Botsford, Cathie Hansen, Chris Hansen, Charles Botsford Jr., Robert Botsford, Helen Botsford, Iris Botsford, Esther Fisher, Elwood Fisher, Charles Botsford and Fern Botsford.

Swimming and dancing were enjoyed during the social hours. Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Jackson. Carolyn was a member of the graduating class. She will leave this month with her mother on a three months tour of Europe.

CAROLYN JACKSON ENTERTAINS MONDAY

Miss Carolyn Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Jackson, was hostess to 150 friends at a delightful party at the beautiful Jackson home at Winchester Monday evening following commencement exercises at Roseburg Senior High School.

Swimming and dancing were enjoyed during the social hours. Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Jackson. Carolyn was a member of the graduating class. She will leave this month with her mother on a three months tour of Europe.

PINOCLE CLUB ENJOYS SESSION AT WEBBER HOME

Friday evening Mrs. Gwen Webber entertained her pinocle club at her home on East Sixth Avenue in Sutherlin. Spring flowers were used about the room.

For the evening's pinocle play, Mrs. Ashcraft won high score, Mrs. Moore low, and Mrs. Brim the floating prize.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Webber served refreshments to Pearl Parsons, Kaye Moore, Mary Modglin, Audrey Brim, Gertrude Seehawer, Donna Dean Blakely, Fay Ashcraft and Mary Leo Ambrose.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Fay Ashcraft Friday, June 7.

BALLET SCHOOL BUSY

Ralph Patterson's Roseburg School of Dancing is a bee hive of activity this week as final preparations are being made for the annual recital to be presented Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, June 4th and 5th at Central Jr. High. Scenery is being painted, costumes are getting the last touches, and the dancers are bubbling over with excitement as their big night draws closer. This will be the 7th recital Mr. Patterson has presented in Roseburg and it is expected to be bigger and better than ever. Each year this school has done an outstanding job of training students to dance in a professional manner. Tickets may be reserved and information about summer lessons at special rates may be obtained by calling OR 3-3422.

THE REV. AND MRS. KARL HENRY FAULKNER pose for their wedding picture following their marriage Sunday, May 12, at the First Conservative Baptist Church in Roseburg. The Rev. Virgil Savage, pastor of the church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 3 p.m. in the presence of 250 relatives and friends.

The First Conservative Baptist Church was the scene of one of the largest and most interesting weddings to residents of Roseburg and Glendale, when Terezia Ruth Toth, daughter of Mrs. Louis Toth of Budapest, Hungary, became the bride of the Rev. Karl Henry Faulkner of Glendale, Sunday, May 12. The Rev. Virgil Savage, pastor of the church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 250 relatives and friends.

Four large baskets of snowballs, weigela, calla lilies and pink roses graced the candelabra on the platform and the altar. Oscar Powell, pianist, played softly as the guests assembled. He accompanied Ralph Simpson who sang, "O Perfect Love" and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, "I Love You So." Miss Mariane Febervari, who came from Los Angeles, sang the traditional Hungarian wedding hymn in her native language. Miss Mariane Febervari and Peter Febervari lighted the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by Warren Cloake of Roseburg, was beautiful in a white gown with train, having a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. She wore a pearl tiara headress with fingertip veil and carried a New Testament from the Holy Land, topped by pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Betty Moore, of Roseburg, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a coral net gown, fashioned ballerina-length. Mrs. Virgil Savage and Miss Judith Moore, niece of the bridegroom, wore identical gowns of blue net, ballerina-length. All three attendants carried nosegays of forget-me-nots, phlox and baby roses.

The Rev. C. E. Brickwedel of Portland, acted as best man. Roy Keller Jr. and James Ewen were ushers.

The Rev. J. R. Turnbull came from Salem to give the dedication prayer, the same as the one given for the bridegroom when he was ordained in 1937 at the Western Baptist Seminary at Portland.

The wedding reception which followed in the lower auditorium of the church, was given by the women members of the Conservative Baptist Church. The large room was profusely decorated with bouquets of summer flowers. At one end of the room, tiers of steps had been built and beautifully decorated with flowers to display the multitude of wedding gifts. Mrs. A. B. Taylor, cousin of the bridegroom, served the cake, and Mrs. Grant Osborne, aunt of the bridegroom, poured the punch. Mrs. Robert Longholf was general chairman for the reception.

For traveling, the bride wore a pink suit, white hat and white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Following the reception, the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip on Oregon coast and the Washington peninsula. The Rev. and Mrs. Karl Faulkner are now at home at the Baptist parsonage at Glendale. The bride was evacuated from her home at Budapest, Hungary and was flown by the U. S. to Camp Kilmer, N. J. With six other friends, all evacuees, she was brought to Roseburg the latter part of December by the Conservative Church and the Glendale Baptist Church. Romance quickly developed between the lovely Hungarian and the Rev. Faulkner.

The bridegroom, born in Bend, moved with his family to Roseburg at the age of 6 and spent his boyhood here. He was graduated from Lewis and Clark College and the Western Baptist Theological Seminary, then worked five years as a missionary in Hungary and Poland. The last ten years he has been pastor of the Glendale Baptist Church.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Faulkner of Eugene, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; his aunt, Mrs. Eva Thornton of Mt. View, Calif.; a cousin, Mrs. Robert Ellis of Berkeley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Humelbrink and David, of Idaho, Ore.; David Mike, Mrs. I. I. I. Febervari, Mariane and Peter, from Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Juan Schwendener of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. John Dobra and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Bellem of Hillsboro; the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Brickwedel, John and Darlene, Lew Peocod, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keller, Michael and Steve, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lemmy, all from Portland; the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Trumbull of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Brannock of Medford.

GOING-AWAY PARTY IS GIVEN FOR MRS. FUTRELL

Mrs. Edna Futrell was complimented at a surprise farewell handkerchief shower given by Mrs. J. W. Suiter at her home at 1216 NE Walnut St. recently. Mrs. Futrell, an employee of Douglas Community Hospital for the past four years, will be moving to Idaho soon to make her home.

A large group from the Garnet Howard Chapter of the Missionary Society gathered to bid Mrs. Futrell goodbye.

The evening was spent visiting after which Mrs. Suiter served delicious refreshments.

MRS. JACOBSON HOSTS FRIENDLY HOUR CLUB

The Melrose Friends' Hour Club met Wednesday with Mrs. Minnie Jacobson in her lovely new home in Eugene. A potluck luncheon was served at noon and the day was spent visiting.

Present were Norma Fenn, Ida Miller, Katie Conn, Elsie Coffell, Doris Benedict, Anna Coffell, Grace Fenn and the hostess, Mrs. Jacobson.

The next meeting will be June 26 at the home of Mrs. Mildred Bonebrake. A noon potluck luncheon will be enjoyed.

What Every Bride Should Know.

YOU GET COMPLETE WEDDING PORTRAIT SERVICE AT CLARK'S

★ Generous Selection of Proofs
★ 6-8x10 Size Prints
★ Complete in Wedding Albums
★ Plus a Photograph of the Bride for Newspaper Publication

Have your wedding photographs taken by a professional . . . and have no regrets!

CLARK'S STUDIO AND CAMERA SHOP

711 S. E. Jackson St. Dial OR 3-5526

A Bridal Gift To You . . .

Come in and make your appointment today. You will receive a beautiful bride's book . . . our bridal gift to you.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THIS MAN HIS NAME IS ED WYATT

HE MAY HOLD THE KEY TO YOUR

FUTURE FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Call or Write ED WYATT
REPRESENTING SUN LIFE OF CANADA
DOUGLAS COUNTY STATE BANK BUILDING
Roseburg, Oregon
Phone OR 3-8184