Riddle School Election June 17

The annual school board election for Riddle will be held Monday, June 17. Voting will take place in the elementary school building from 2 to 8 p.m.

Petitions for candidates for board members should be filed by June 10, according to Supt. Kenneth A. Stuart. Two vacancies exist on the board, one for a one year term and the other for five years.

The death of James F. Carrell, who was killed in an airplane crash, caused one vacancy. Richard Willey moved from the community to create the other opening.

Candidates must file acceptance of nomination by June 12, Stuart said. Petition blanks may be obtained at the office of the school clerk in the elementary school building, reports Mrs. Erma Best, News-Review correspondent.
