A charming wedding Sunday, May 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Reiber in Myrtle Creek united in marriage their daughter, Joyce, and Billy Wayne Lincecum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Lincecum, also of Myrtle Creek. The Rev. John Radmore of the Methodist Church in Myrtle Creek performed the nuptial service at 5:30 p.m.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. Ed Walters who played the traditional marches and accompanied Miss Nyette Dumont, who sang "Because."

The ceremony itself took place before an arch decorated with fern and roses, flanked by large baskets of pink and white peonies and azaleas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white linen suit with navy accessories and a solid orchid corsage. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Don Olin of Wenatchee, Wash., who wore a two-toned brown and beige suit with beige accessories.

The bride's mother wore a white linen polka dot dress with navy accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a becoming two-piece navy suit with white accessories.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The serving table was dominated by a beautifully decorated wedding cake which was flanked by single white tapers. Terry Sue Reiber, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Gifts were in charge of Phyllis Conner, Mrs. Janita Gross and Mrs. Scott Lindsay, aunt of the bride. Punch was served by Miss Ruth Norton; coffee by Mrs. Robert Reiber, sister-in-law of the bride; and cake by Mrs. Richard Reiber, another sister-in-law.

The young people are now at home in San Diego, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Navy.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lincecum attended high school in Myrtle Creek.

IS FATHER 'THE FOLLOWS' MAN?

"Befeha my father can lick your father!" Remember when you were a kid and used to stand up for your father, even to the point of getting into a battle with some neighboring boy?

Then your father was a hero. He was your ideal. You thought he was the greatest guy in the world — and you told everybody exactly what you thought. . . . Then time marched on and you grew into manhood and perhaps became a father yourself. That's the way it's been since time began.

But here's my question: Do you still revere your father as much as you did when you were a freckle-faced kid? I'm sure you do, although you may not go around praising your father in the nose to prove your point.

Father's Day is coming soon. It's a wonderful day to do something nice for him. We are proudly featuring many gifts that Fathers will really appreciate. Watches, rings, jewelry sets such as cuff links and tie pins, smoking stands, cigarette cases, monogrammed toilet sets — oh, we've got them all — and you can buy any one on the easiest of credit terms. Come in today. It's not too soon to select your Pa's Father's Day present.
