You can call them the Baltimore giant killers from now on after the job the Orioles did on the Chicago White Sox over the last two weekends.

Paul Richards' birds edged into sixth place yesterday by sweeping a pair from the league-leading White Sox to make it three out of four in the series. Only a week ago they took three out of four from the Yankees.

Billy O'Dell, a 24-year-old south-paw making his first start of the season, struck out 11 White Sox in his second game 5-0 shutout. Homers by Tito Francona and Bob Nieman helped the Orioles' ace reliever George Zuverink win his sixth in the opener 7-5.

Yanks Get Close Win

The second-place Yankees took advantage of some crazy baserunning and a defensive lapse to whip Detroit 5-4.

Cincinnati's determined Redlegs held Brooklyn to only one run in 18 innings while taking two from the Dodgers 3-1 and 3-0. That gave Cincinnati a 1 1/2-game lead in the National after a one-day drop into third place.

The Dodgers and Phillies are tied for second because the Phillies lost to Chicago 7-3 and had to settle for a 4-4 tie in the second game, called by the Sunday curfew in Philadelphia.

Braves Split Games

Milwaukee stumbled again at Pittsburgh. After winning the 11-inning first game 2-1 on Roberto Clemente's error and Johnny Logan's single, the Braves bowed to Ronnie Kline in the second game 5-3. Hank Aaron ran his home run total to 15 with one in each game. St. Louis also edged into the thick of the race by taking two from New York. They won the first 2-1 for Vinegar Bend Mizell's first victory, and the second 10-7.

for Lindy McDaniel by scoring six runs in the sixth inning when 11 men went to bat against Steve Ridzik and Johnny Antonelli.

Stan Musial hit his 12th homer and played his 821st consecutive game, only one short of the National League record set by Pittsburgh's Gus Suhr in 1937.

Home Run Spree

Boston hit seven homers in downing Kansas City twice 8-4 and 9-5. Ted Lepcio and Jimmy Piersall each hit two and Ted Williams slammed No. 13.

The Orioles' double victory at Cleveland settled for a split with Washington, winning the opener 7-2 on Early Wynn's six-hitter, but losing the second 7-6 when Roy Sievers of the Senators hit a two-run pinch homer in the ninth. Vic Wertz and Roger Maris each smashed two homers for the losing Tribe in that second game.

The Orioles' double victory at Chicago was costly because George Kell, veteran third baseman, was hit on the head by a pitch from Dick Donovan and suffered a possible hairline fracture.

Fists Fly at Detroit

At Detroit, Tigers Frank Bolling and Charlie Maxwell had just hit successive homers off Tom Sturdivant when a fast ball came close to Ray Boone's head. Boone and Sturdivant met halfway to the mound and exchanged three or four blows. Players from both clubs streamed onto the field for a 10-minute ruckus.

After all the cuffs, the Yankees finally won the game when Hank Bauer tried to steal second with the bases loaded and the score tied. When Earl Torgeson threw to third base, Moose Skowron dashed home, scoring on a swan dive to the plate.

Don Hoak was the big man for Cincinnati, driving in four of the six runs with a homer in each game. George Crowe also homered for the Redlegs and G. H. Hodges' eighth was the only Dodger run of the day. Hal Jeffcoat struck out nine Brooks and allowed only six hits in pitching his first major league shutout after Brooks Lawrence and Tom Acker teamed up in the first game.

Ernie Banks hit a three-run homer off Robin Roberts in the eighth to beat the Phillies in the first game.

Yanks' Bauer Pulls Boner, But It Results In Victory

DETROIT (AP) — Like the winning poker players who laugh and tell funny stories while the losers grumble and yell, "Deal the cards," the New York Yankees had their own private little joke today about "Bauer's beautiful boner."

Manager Jack Tighe, whose Detroit Tigers dropped a 5-4 decision yesterday when Yankee outfielder Hank Bauer tried to steal second with the bases loaded — and turned the act into the winning run, thought the whole matter was very unfunny and called Bauer's maneuver "the rock of all rocks."

And both teams were prepared to forget — they said — about

Herb Score To Get Another Eye Check

BALTIMORE (AP) — Indian pitcher Herb Score was en route back to Cleveland Monday for another examination of his right eye, injured by a line drive May 7.

Making his first public appearance since he was hurt, Score was interviewed briefly last night on a network television show.

The brilliant southpaw, who turned 24 last Friday, has been recuperating at the Hagerstown, Md., home of an uncle, A. F. Flood.

Sports Villanova Liked In NCAA Meet

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Villanova track squad will arrive today to find itself a solid favorite to win the NCAA meet despite the fact that its Olympic champion Charley Jenkins couldn't place in a 47.8 quarter-mile at Houston.

Ron Delany showed plenty, however. He won both the mile and half-mile in one evening in good times, running the former in 4:05.4 and the half in 1:48.4. In the NCAA these events are 40 minutes apart and the Olympic 1,500-meter king might take them both.

Don Bowden, the California star who did 3:58.7 in the mile recently, isn't expected to run this distance in the NCAA although he is entered. Bowden has been concentrating on the half. His duel with Delany in that event should be a top feature. Bowden has done 1:47.8.

Another thing that made Villanova a strong bet for the NCAA title was the fact that it's high jumper, Phil Reavis, leaped 6 feet 8 inches in the Meet of Champions at Houston Saturday night. And Charley Steed of Villanova did 6 feet 6. Then Don Bragg of Villanova lacked only three eighths of an inch of hitting 15 feet in the pole vault.

Track observers were inclined to discount Jenkins' poor showing at Houston and to think he would be the man to beat in the NCAA 440. He has run a 46.4 this year.

Drain Threatens Again

Again in the seventh inning the Drain team tied the score with a three-run outburst sparked by singles by George LaGrandier and Haldeman and two Cottage Grove errors.
