

Quines Woman Named Noble Grand Of Rebekahs

By MRS. GERALD FOX
Mrs. Hazel McPherson of Quines Creek, Glendale, was recently installed as noble grand of the Canyonville Rebekah Lodge. Mrs. Leola Rife of Quines Creek is past noble grand.

Have Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaPrath of Glendale entertained her cousin, Mrs. Lloyd Blackmer, Phoenix, Ariz., and her mother, Mrs. Ed McKinsey, Montavilla, Calif., recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill LaPrath spent a recent weekend in Portland visiting his sisters, Mrs. Eleanor Box and Mrs. R. R. Malone.

Roy McFarland was taken to the Forest Glen Hospital last week for transfusions. He returned home the following day.

Teddy Emmons, 4, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Camino, Wolf Creek, was treated at the Glendale Clinic last week for a cut on his right foot which required five stitches.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Reed of Glendale recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reed near San Francisco, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reed and family drove to Diamond Lake recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hales and Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Rhoades drove to Eden Valley for Memorial Day and caught their limit of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hales entertained out-of-town guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Covington, last week.

Travel To Portland
Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Johnson of Quines Creek visited her father in the Portland area recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hammond of Quines Creek took their new boat to Shasta Lake recently to try it out.

Mrs. Ida Basye of Glendale left recently for Port Orford, where she expects to visit for two or three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Ira Tucker.

GERMAN ASSIGNMENT
Army Pvt. Frank R. Schlaman, whose wife, Leona, lives in Roseburg, recently was assigned to the 3rd Engineer Co. in Germany. He entered the Army in March 1953 and arrived in Europe last April.

of the Azalea Community Church spent Memorial Day working on the church building on Cow Creek Road, near Azalea.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fox and children drove to the Oregon Caves recently. They watched and photographed chipmunks, squirrels and bluejays.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brady recently entertained their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lindsey of Pocatello, Idaho, for several days.

Rollie Johns of Azalea was taken to the Douglas County Home in Roseburg by ambulance recently. Johns, who formerly acted as operator of the Azalea Telephone Exchange, has been crippled with arthritis for many years and has been bedfast for about three years.

SPY FACES DEATH

CAIRO — An Egyptian court Monday sentenced one Egyptian to death for spying for Britain but postponed verdicts on four Britons and 11 other men until June 22.

One court source said postponement of the other verdict probably meant the court contemplated no other death sentences.
