Graham Crusade Attendance Over Half A Million

NEW YORK (AP) — The gate count at Billy Graham's New York crusade today totaled more than half a million in four weeks, and the big-city folk still are flocking to hear him nightly by the thousands.

"During this first month," Graham said last night, "we have seen God do great and marvelous things in this city."

The crusade, which the evangelist says has stirred the greatest response he has ever seen in his preaching around the world, still has more than another month to go. It's near the halfway mark.

No other event — circus, sporting spectacle or horse show—has ever been able to fill Madison Square Garden for such an extended period, but the turnout for Graham's sermons shows no signs of letting up.

Attendance has averaged 18,200, almost capacity, since the start, a total of 501,000. Nearly 16,929 have stepped forward to begin what Graham calls "a new life of joy and peace in Christ."

CONFERENCE SET

CORVALLIS (AP) — The annual Oregon Town and Country Church Conference has been set for Oct. 15-17 at Oregon State College and officials said Wednesday that Louis A. Wolfanger, Michigan State University professor, will be key speaker.

His special field is land use and community planning.

HEAT BLAMED

CUIDAD ALEMAN, Mexico (AP)—Dehydration resulting from the current heat wave has killed nine children and sent 28 others to the hospital in the last three days in Cuidad Aleman and two nearby bowns in the Papaloapan River Valley of Veracruz state.

The temperature has soared to more than 111 degrees.
