Maybe it just went overlooked before, but there seems to be a rash of accidental head-beating in all ranks of baseball lately, among other things. If it's true that bad luck runs in streaks then the local scene has had its share.

First little incident to come up was in the Roseburg Junior Legion team's first ball game against Eugene last Saturday. During that one, ace lefthander Ronnie Beamer took a blow on the left eye from a thrown ball. The swollen optic doesn't seem to have affected Beamer's skill or ability since he's pitched sensationally since. But this doesn't hide the black and bloodshot marks that the eye still bears.

THE SAME EVENING, in pre-game practice, Eugene's all-state basketball player and all-around athlete was smacked above the left eye by a thrown ball. Like Beamer, Charlie Warren was taken to a local hospital for observation after the game, but the blow to Warren was hard enough to keep him out of the game which followed.

Warren's eye is still swollen shut and he may or may not be ready this weekend when the Eugene team plays again.

Then, of course, there's Glide's Dick Smith, who took a spill sliding into second base in his tryout at Los Angeles with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Dick will be on the shelf from four to six weeks before reporting back to either Los Angeles or Reno, Nev.

Not to be overlooked is the "beating" one of the Chicago League kids, 15-year old Ernest Forre, took when he foultipped one back on his face. This, too, necessitated a trip to the hospital. But like the others, none were permanently disabling or serious.

THAT LIST of sports authorities who were consulted for recommendations in filling the new Roseburg athletic director's position sounds like a sports almanac or who's who.

Consulted and producing recommendations were such renowned sports figures as Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma; Ed Weir, assistant athletic director at the University of Nebraska; Frank Leahy, ex-Notre Dame coach; Tom Harmon, the ex-Michigan All-American and now sports radman; Len Casanova, Bill Bowerman and

Ultimatum Given Norris By Judge
NEW YORK (AP)—Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan said Thursday he feels that James D. Norris and Arthur M. Wirtz "must get out of Madison Square Garden" in which they held a 39 per cent minority interest.

Judge Ryan made the comment as he heard final arguments by the federal government in its suit to end what the government charges is a monopolistic control over championship boxing bouts by Norris and Wirtz through the International Boxing Club of New York and Illinois.

Judge Ryan announced he would state his final decision next Monday.

Simons is penned to a one-year contract. Simons is an Elk and belongs to the Presbyterian Church.

ONE OF THE TASKS first facing Simons will be to join other Roseburg administrators in selecting the new Roseburg High football coach and the names of interested persons are already being discussed. Everybody is recommending someone and high on the list are the names of Jake Leicht, the highly-regarded local official, ex-coach and insurance man and Paul McHugh, the ex-University of Oregon star.

Unrealistic California Brass Studies Secession

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—University of California Regents were to vote Friday on whether their schools at Los Angeles and Berkeley can withdraw from the Pacific Coast Conference if they desire.

Before the board was a report from its educational policy committee which was given jurisdiction May 25 after UCLA alumni made a fervent pitch for immediate withdrawal.

The committee, headed by Ed Ward Carter of Los Angeles, met Thursday night but he refused to divulge their decisions.

Presumably, the committee studied reports from President Robert Gordon Sproul and Chancellors Raymond B. Allen of UCLA and Clark Kerr of the California Berkeley campus.

"I can't answer any questions," was all Dr. Sproul would say. Speculation here was that the answer to UCLA would be "no." Officials, however, remained silent.

Powerful alumni of UCLA have demanded since last year that the school be permitted to withdraw from the PCC, UCLA, Southern California, Washington and California last year drew heavy penalties from the conference because of under the table financial aid to athletes, mostly by alumni and booster groups.

The alumni felt the PCC regulations are unrealistic.

UCLA, California To Stay, Paper Says
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California and UCLA will not be granted permission by their Board of Regents to withdraw from the Pacific Coast Conference, the Chronicle said Thursday in a report with almost certain finality.

The regents meet Friday in Berkeley to vote on withdrawal pleas of the two schools.

Brenzell flew to Roseburg to complete final contract arrangements which will make young Dick Smith a member of the Brooklyn baseball organization. Junior Legion Team Sets Albany Game Here Saturday

After winning five games in a row, the Roseburg Junior American Legion baseball team hit a snag and went down to defeat at the hands of the Springfield Legion team by the score of 4-3 in the second game of a doubleheader, Tuesday night.

The win and loss for Roseburg gives them a season's record of 5-1 and a league record of 1-1. Six more games are scheduled in league play.

Leading the team at the plate after six games is Bill Eswine, Glide's pride and joy, with a .600 batting average in five tries. Next in line among the regulars with a .429 average is Wayne Kennaday, another Glide product, followed by John Livingston, a third Glide player with a .364 average.

Other first line players over the .300 mark are Larry Bissonnette, from Douglas with a .350 average and Ron Beamer and Dick Meredith, both of Roseburg with a .333 mark.

Bissonnette and Beamer have the most hits with seven, while Wells and Bissonnette have scored the most runs, eight.

The next scheduled game for Roseburg will be this Saturday when they play host to the Albany legion team in a single game starting at 8 p. m. on Finlay Field. Roseburg downed Albany in a doubleheader at Albany last Sunday by scores of 5-1 and 6-0, with Eswine throwing a no-hit no-run game in the nightcap.

Probable starter for Coach Bill Harper's team will be Livingston, a lefthander with some high school and legion throwing experience. Teaming with him behind the plate will be red-headed Byron Baker, the Camas Valley receiver.

The rest of the starting lineup will probably have Beamer at first, Eswine at second, Bissonnette at shortstop and Don Wells at third. In the outfield it will probably be Allen Smith, Kennaday and Wes Young.

Time trials are slated to start at 7 p. m. with the races to start there early to get the choice seats. Refreshments are in charge of the Boy Scouts and plenty of hot coffee and eats will be available.

Hardtop Race Slated Here This Evening

For the third time this season the Roseburg Speedway will be the scene of hardtop racing, when the Roseburg Racing Assn. will be host to cars from Coos Bay and Cottage Grove in races tonight.

Top Roseburg driver, Art Pollard, will be out to defend his first place in the number of points scored so far this season. Pollard has a total of 75 points, five ahead of his nearest competitor, Jim Standley with 73.

Far down the line in third place is Grant Feero with a total of 44 points, followed by John Wilverding with 42 and Leonard Kress with 40.

The races are being held on Friday of this week, because of the Rodeo, Saturday and Sunday.

The cars, with a limit of 279 cubic inches for the motor, will run in two separate divisions, Class A and Class B. Trophy dashes will be held in both classes, preceding the main events.

Trophy dashes will consist of five laps apiece, while the Class B main event is 25 laps and the Class A main event will be 35 laps.

In the past, Roseburg drivers have nabbed most of the first place in both events, but in the past two weeks, drivers from Cottage Grove and Coos Bay have been gaining and a hot notch race is looked for tonight.

Time trials are slated to start at 7 p. m. with the races to start there early to get the choice seats. Refreshments are in charge of the Boy Scouts and plenty of hot coffee and eats will be available.
