DILLARD PASTOR IS HONORED AT RECEPTION

The Rev. Rinke Feenstra, pastor of the Dillard Methodist Church, was honored at a farewell reception Friday evening following the close of the vacation Bible school program. Mrs. Harold Gilman and Mrs. C. C. Fosback had charge of the arrangements. Dillard community members presented the Rev. Mr. Feenstra with a gift certificate and two volumes of poetry which he greatly admired. He, after four and a half years in Dillard at the Methodist Church, is leaving Tuesday for his new calling at Fall City.

The Dillard vacation Bible school closed their very successful two-week session with a delightful program presented by the Bible school leaders, Mrs. Hila Beth Cox and Mrs. Margaret McCord. Each class from the pre-school age through the junior high school class, with their leaders, presented a program to a large attendance of parents and friends. Each class had a display in each of their rooms of their accomplishments during the two-week session. The average attendance for the 1957 vacation school was around 100.

The officers in charge served delicious dessert refreshments to the guests at the delightful reception and program.
