AT A VERY BEAUTIFUL WEDDING June 8 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Miss Kathleen Ann Kilkenny, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Kilkenny of Roseburg, became the bride of Dudley Moon, son of Edward Moon of Portland. A solemn high mass was celebrated at 10 a.m. by the uncle of the bride, Father Glen Schlatter. Father Richard Gleason acted as deacon and Father Edmund Hyland as sub-deacon. Altar boys were Richard Bokala, Howard Raade, Donald Raade, Thomas Cosgriff and John Putman. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. William McLaughlin, with Mrs. Floyd Moore at the organ, sang the Regina Caeli Mass by the Rev. Father Glen Schlatter. The solemn nuptial blessing was received by the newlyweds during the Mass.

The church was beautifully decorated with white flowers arranged by Miss Anna Link and Mrs. W. F. Amiot.

The charming bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Kilkenny, was radiant in a gown of antique white silk tulle with a fitted bodice and full-length hoop skirt with chapel train and was accented with insets of seashell lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a headpiece of lace and seed pearls. She carried a prayer book covered with white orchids and a shower of white roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Barbara Chantney of Toledo and the bridesmaids, the Mesdames Marjorie and Anne Kilkenny, sisters of the bride, wore identical gowns of aqua blue nylon organza. Their headpieces were of matching pleated chiffon and they carried nosegays of Esther Reed daisies.

James V. Kilkenny, brother of the bride, was best man and usher were Raymond Chapman and Robert Cassidy.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kilkenny wore a blue silk print dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. E. Schlatter, grandmother of the bride, was dressed in navy blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Roth-Dudley Wedding Takes Place June 15

The wedding of Lila Louise Dudley and William Bruce Roth, both of this city, took place at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 15, at the First Baptist Church. Dr. Eugene Gerlitz officiated at the double ring ceremony which was witnessed by 100 friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Clarence Dudley, Roseburg, and Mrs. Beaty Strunk of Winston. The groom is the son of Carl Roth of Hollywood, Calif., and Mrs. Roth of this city.

The church was decorated with baskets containing larkspur, fern and lilies and two candelabra. The pews were ornamented with white satin bows.

Mrs. Mickie Kasper was soloist. She was accompanied by organist, Miss Virginia Young, in singing, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Young also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in her floor-length gown of white embroidered satin. She carried a lavender orchid on a white ribbon. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of rhinestones.

Joan Sanders was matron of honor. She was attired in pink tissue chambray with matching hat. Her flowers were white carnations.

Barbara Vermillion of Portland, the bride's cousin, and Barbara Hall were bridesmaids. They wore pale green tissue chambray with matching hats and carried nosegays of pink carnations. The candles were lighted by Mrs. Thomas Quail, the bride's cousin. She wore a white nylon suit with copper-colored shoes and accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Following the wedding ceremony, a buffet luncheon was held in the couple's honor at the Gold Room of the Umpqua Hotel. The wedding cake was served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Walter Wardlow, and punch was served by the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Donald Arthur. Mrs. Billie Lou Combs and Mrs. K. G. Edick, both of Portland, were bridesmaids. They wore pale blue nylon suits with matching blouses and white accessories. Following a wedding trip to Reno, Virginia City and Lake Tahoe, the newlyweds are now at home in Klamath Falls where the bridegroom is temporarily employed as a lineman for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Both young people attended Roseburg High School. Mrs. Roth has been employed at the Roseburg Dental Lab as technician.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vermillion, Mr. and Mrs. John Vermillion and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vermillion, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dudley, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Carl Roth, Hollywood, Calif.; Mrs. Thomas Quail, Central Point, Mrs. Lois Naherniet, Yonbu, Canada; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Arthur and Mrs. Jack Sanders, all of Vancouver, B.C.

The annual picnic is held by the association following the regular first school of instruction.

H. D. Blooms hosts at home in Riversdale. A social evening was enjoyed at Riversdale recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bloom on Fisher Road. Those present were Paul Babue of Shadron, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bloom and son, Bert, of Oakland, Calif., Mrs. Hildred Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bloom.

The group especially enjoyed the beautiful view of the North Umpqua River afforded at the Bloom home. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bloom and Paul Babue were here to attend the reunion of the Roseburg graduating class of 1932.

The bride wore a going-away sheath dress of red and gray flared Dacron with white accessories.

The bride and bridegroom will reside at Klamath Falls where the bride is employed in construction work. In the fall they will move to Corvallis where the bridegroom will enter his sophomore year at Oregon State College.

The bride was recently graduated from Oakland High School. Going to Salt Lake for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. Walley and sister, Miss Donna Walley.

Friends and members of the First Methodist Church had a farewell evening for the Rev. and Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, their two daughters, Joanne and Judith, the Rev. Mr. Tilton's mother, Mrs. A. H. Tilton and the Rev. Asa Mundell family Sunday from 7:30 to 9:30 in the new social hall of the church. Over 200 were in attendance.

A short musical program was arranged by R. Lloyd Riffe, and Harl Kelley and John Todd both gave brief talks, responded to by both ministers.

Refreshments were served by the women of the church, from two beautifully decorated tables. The punch bowls were presided over by Mrs. Gene Cooksey, Mrs. Carroll Tucker and Miss Charlotte Hyve.

Both families were presented with beautiful gifts from the members of the church. The Rev. Mr. Tilton has served the church for the past four years. The Rev. Mr. Mundell has served for the past year as associate pastor and has been assigned to the Seaside Community Church at Seaside.

George Edes Celebrates Birthday Anniversary

George Edes of Yoncalla celebrated his 85th birthday Sunday, June 23, at a family reunion held at Fern Ridge Dam near Eugene. It was also a reunion of Mrs. Edes' family.

Mrs. Lillian Eggert, sister of Mrs. Edes, flew from Minneapolis, Sunday to be at the celebration. Frank Canney of Eugene, a brother, also attended. This was the first time in 31 years that the two sisters and brother had been together.

A picnic fried chicken dinner and supper were enjoyed.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. George Edes of Yoncalla; Mrs. Lillian Eggert of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edes, Lahoma, Carolyn, Patricia and George Edes of Sandy; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hall, Karen and Ricky of Elmira; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Holman and daughter, Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Canney, Miss Barbara Joy Canney and Don Newman all of Eugene, and Dick Longbrake of Sutherlin.

FIFTY PLUS DEPARTMENT ENJOYS RECENT POTLUCK

Members and guests of the Fifty Plus Department of the Roseburg Woman's Club met recently for a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. R. Smith on Harrison Street for the final meeting of the club year Monday. Luncheon was enjoyed on the patio overlooking the Umpqua river. Those attending participated in relating a personal experience and other anecdotes. Mrs. Esther Gilliland, program chairman, offered a game of names, after which all were asked to tell their nicknames and how they came by them.

Mrs. L. Stewart is president of the group and assisted Mrs. Smith with arrangements and transportation.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. Esther Gilliland, Mrs. Eugene Sullivan, Mrs. A. Jaeger, Mrs. D. A. Kier, Mrs. Otto Gosnell, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. V. E. E. G. TROZELLES HOST LOVELY FAMILY PICNIC

A family picnic was enjoyed Sunday evening at the Riverside home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Trozelle. Honored guests were Mrs. Trozelle's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fest, and Karen and Kathy from Tacoma, Wash. They had come here especially to attend the Roseburg High 1932 class reunion.

Others present were Mrs. Katherine Fest, Mr. and Mrs. Al Utne, Mr. and Mrs. John Trozelle and Mrs. Stella Howlett and Sandra and John Joelson. The pleasant evening hours were spent visiting and viewing television.

Miss Daphne Phillips, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Leta Busenbark, cousin of the bride, lighted the tapers in the candelabra which were a part of the background.

The bride wore a cascade of nylon dotted swiss, fashioned after the style of the bride's maid's gowns. They were matching headbands.

The bride's honor attendant was her cousin, Mrs. Richard Withycombe. She wore a pale yellow nylon dotted swiss afternoon dress. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Piper, Miss Marlene Steele and Mrs. Wendy Pargeter, cousin of the bride. They wore identical blue dresses of the same material and fashion as that of Mrs. Withycombe. All of the attendants wore shoes and hats to match their gowns and carried cascade bouquets of Esther Reed daisies the color of their gowns.

Gary Phillips was his brother's best man and ushers were Kent Phillips, Larry Cox, both cousins of the bridegroom; and Brian Pargeter, brother of the bride.

A large group of relatives and friends attended the reception, which followed in the church parlors. The bride's table was most attractively arranged in a V shape and covered with net over a blue cloth. The flowers in the vase candelabra on the table were yellow columbine and roses. The beautiful five-tiered wedding cake, decorated in yellow and blue, marked the V at the table and was served by Mrs. M. C. Doyle, assisted by Miss Carmen Ford. The coffee was poured by Mrs. C. E. Beece and Miss Arlene Smith. Miss Jo Ann Busenbark and Miss Charlene Boyles served punch. Miss Ginger Busenbark and Miss Judy Burke assisted about the rooms. Mrs. Jack Chapman was in charge of the reception and decorations and was assisted by Mrs. Charles Olander, Mrs. Don O'Neill, Mrs. Victor Lewis, Mrs. Don Nelson and daughter, Rose, and Mrs. Abbott.

The gift table carried out the blue and yellow color theme and was also covered in blue and graced by a large bouquet of orange blossoms, blue delphinium and canterbury bells. Mrs. Dale Busenbark and Mrs. Richard Pargeter Jr. arranged the many lovely effects. Other attractive arrangements of flowers were placed about the room. Miss Mary Ann Backen had charge of the guest book. The bridegroom's cake was served by the two candelabras along with miniature bags of rice.

Miss Joan Phillips played piano numbers during the pleasant social hour.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pargeter chose a beige lace afternoon frock and blue accessories.

Mrs. Phillips wore a blue linen sheath with white accessories. For her wedding trip the bride chose a white sheath frock with a red duster and white accessories. Her corsage was the rosebuds from her bridal bouquet. Following their wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., the young people are at home at the Kozy Apartments on N. E. Klamath in Roseburg.

Both the bride and bridegroom graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Oregon State College the past year. Mr. Phillips plans to continue at the college this fall where he is studying veterinary medicine. He spent two years in the Navy prior to his entering college.

Mrs. H. B. Kruse of Riversdale entertained at a party Wednesday evening in honor of her brother, J. M. Burkhardt, who was celebrating his birthday.

Gifts were presented to the guest of honor and the pleasant evening was spent viewing television and colored slides.

Birthday refreshments were served at a late hour to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burkhardt and Kathy; Mr. and Mrs. Don Kruse and Jeff, Denny and Karen; Mr. and Mrs. Arzus Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Christian and Greg, Mark and Dean, and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kruse.

MR. AND MRS. MYRON GRANT PHILLIPS, above, cut the traditional first piece of their beautifully decorated and tiered wedding cake at the reception following their marriage Sunday, June 16, at 3 p.m. The bride, Carolyn Sue Pargeter, is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pargeter, Melrose, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Phillips of Roseburg. The Rev. John Adams performed the impressive ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Baskets of white delphinium, canterbury bells, madonna lilies, yellow snapdragons and maiden hair fern flanked the arch which was covered with fern and madonna lilies and formed a background for the impressive double ring ceremony.

The aisle down which the bride was escorted by her father, Wendy Pargeter, cousin of the bride, was lined with white satin bouquets of the valley and white velvet cord. The beautiful stained glass cathedral type windows of the sanctuary held large cathedral candles and Esther Reed daisies and ivy. The tables in the back of the room held bouquets of calla lilies, blue delphinium and white daisies.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Normal Niblett sang "Because" and "Wonderful One" accompanied by organist, Mrs. Homer Grow, who also played traditional wedding music.

The bride was beautiful in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and net over satin, fashioned with a basque waist, high Queen Anne collar and long lace sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis. Esther Reed daisies and rosebuds. She wore a lovely gold watch, a gift from the bridegroom.
