

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT LESLIE WILLIAMS, above, pose for their wedding picture following their marriage June 2 at 2 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Sutherlin. Bishop Fred S. Waugh performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 106 guests. The bride, Betty Louise Madison, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Madison of Kellogg, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Williams of Roseburg. (Picture by Warren Studio, Sutherlin).

The Methodist Church in Sutherlin was the scene Sunday, June 2, of the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Betty Louise Madison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Madison of Kellogg, and Robert Leslie Williams, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Clayton E. Williams, Roseburg. Bishop Fred Waugh of Sutherlin of the Church of the Latter Day Saints performed the double ring service before a large number of friends and relatives.

A color scheme of white, yellow and green was carried out in the church decorations. Besides bouquets of garden flowers, baskets of white carnations tied with yellow bows were used and on the organ was placed a low vase of yellow Dutch iris. Two candelabra completed the decorations.

William Bulkley of Roseburg sang "Because" and "O Promise Me," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Cynthia Magill who furnished the wedding music.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She was beautiful in a chapel-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon net over white satin. A tight fitted bodice of lace over satin was topped with a round yoke of nylon net. The mandarin styled collar had a scalloped lace edge and the long sleeves were pointed over the wrist. The bouffant skirt was made with a pleated panel of lace in front and back, a three-inch ruffle of lace at the sides of the waistline. Her chapel-length veil of illusion was held in place with a Juliet cap of lace, trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible and a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white carnations with white satin streamers. The bride wore a handkerchief of her grandmother's for "something old," and a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom, for "something new." She wore the traditional blue garter and a sixpence in her shoe.

Doris Moore of Elton was maid of honor and was charming in embroidered white nylon over

A PRETTY WEDDING took place June 21 at 7:30 p.m. when Miss Joan Hardick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Hardick of Garden Valley and Carlton Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jacobs of Happy Valley were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents by Dr. Eugene Gerlitz, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Roseburg.

Miss Susan Hardick, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and best man was Vernon Force of Eugene, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Betty Hardick, youngest sister of the bride, was flower girl and Philip Jacobs, brother of the bridegroom, was candlelighter.

The wedding was held in the living room with members of the two families present. The ceremony took place in front of the fireplace decorated with lilies and dahlias, flanked by baskets of lilies and roses.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white linen suit and traditional blue garter. She carried a white Bible tied with lace and topped by variegated carnations. Her attendant wore a powder blue dress with white accessories and carnations. Mother of the bride wore a beige sheath and had a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress with a pink carnation corsage.

After the ceremony, the couple cut a tiered wedding cake trimmed with roses and topped by the bride and groom figurines and a spray of lily of the valley. Mrs. Vernon Force, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the punch bowl and Mrs. Hardick served.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School this year. The bridegroom, recently discharged from the Marines, is employed at Happy Valley where they will make their home.

A NUPTIAL SERVICE at 2 p.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church Saturday, June 22, united in marriage Miss Madonna Jane Pinard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Pinard of this city, and Dwayne Lee Whitlatch, son of Floyd Whitlatch of Merrill, Ore. and Mrs. Lloyd Van Horn of Roseburg. Father Edmund Hyland officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Large baskets of pink gladioli and orchid stock were used to decorate the church.

The bride, on the arm of her father, was charming in a white organza eyelet ballerina dress, lace hat and shoulder veil. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Diane Pinard, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of white and orchid dotted swiss with orchid net headpiece and carried pink carnations. Edward Whitlatch acted as best man for his brother and ushers were Joe Pinard and David Van Horn.

The bride's mother wore an attractive light blue linen dress, white accessories and pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore pink lace with white accessories and pink carnation corsage.

A reception for 40 friends and relatives was held at the bride's parents' home following the ceremony. Mrs. Leonard Riley and Mrs. J. T. Pinard served the wedding cake and Miss Judy Riley and Mrs. Joe Donnelly served punch and coffee.

For going away, the bride wore an orchid sheath dress and jacket and white accessories. The young couple will reside in Torrance, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed.

The bride was graduated this spring from Roseburg High School. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Diane Pinard and Keith Hoppas of Portland; Floyd Whitlatch and Eddie Whitlatch of Merrill; David Van Horn of Lorraine, Ohio; Mrs. Sam Jennings, Elaine Jennings and J. E. Whitlatch of Medford and Mrs. Velma Van Horn of Grants Pass.

PATRONIZE NEWS-REVIEW ADVERTISERS

MARRIED at a very beautiful wedding ceremony at Bethel Baptist Church in Aumsville Saturday, June 8, was Margaret Anne Nicholson, Glide, daughter of Mrs. Jane Nicholson and the late Joe Nicholson of Aumsville, and Lee Frank Maxwell, Glide, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wagner of Alpine, Ore. The Rev. Robert Luther performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. in the presence of relatives and friends. (Picture by Artz Photography, Salem).

Baskets of pink chrysanthemums and white calla lilies graced the candelabra and the altar on the platform. Mrs. Miriam Dutton, pianist, played softly as the guests assembled. She accompanied Miss Lois Hayes who sang "Because."

"It Is the Dawn" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her brother, M. H. Nicholson of Salem, was beautiful in a white Chantilly lace and net gown over satin, with sabrina neckline and full-length sleeves. She wore a finger-ring veil and carried a white Bible topped with white roses.

Miss Bonnie Jo Nicholson of Aumsville, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. M. H. Nicholson of Salem, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. James Gums of Glide, and Miss June Gruchow of Aumsville. All attendants wore identical gowns of white taffeta brocade with pink trim and carried nosegays of pink carnations and white roses with pink fan-shaped backgrounds.

The candelights were Annette Rice of Salem, Linda Wagner and James Maxwell of Alpine.

The bride's mother wore a pink linen gown with white accessories and white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in blue linen with white accessories and wore a white rosebud corsage.

The wedding reception which followed the ceremony was given by the bride's mother, Mrs. Jane Nicholson, in the fireplace room of the church. Assisting were Aumsville friends, Mrs. Ted Nichols, Mrs. C. E. Gillespie, Mrs. S. H. Wright and Mrs. Frank Perlow. The room was decorated with bouquets of pink and white summer flowers and the tiered white wedding cake was festooned with pink rosebuds.

For traveling the bride wore a pink silk dress, white accessories and white rose corsage. Following the reception the bride and bridegroom left on a four-day wedding trip on the Oregon coast. Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell are now at home at a cottage on the Selby place in Glide.

The bride attended Oregon State College and the Southern Oregon College. She has taught one of the third grade rooms for the last three years.

The bridegroom, after being graduated from Southern Oregon College, spent two years service in the U. S. Army, stationed in Japan. He has been teacher at Glide Junior High School the last year.

Out-of-town guests at the Aumsville wedding were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wright of Santa Rosa, Calif., aunt and uncle of the bride; aunts and uncles of the bridegroom, all from Junction City, were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. James Nielsen; the bridegroom's grandfather, R. A. Wagner of Philomath; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bittner of Monmouth; Miss Dolores Fowson and Mrs. Harold Sherman of Portland; Mrs. Clifford Gillespie of Santa Rosa, Calif.; Mrs. Hugh Ahlson of Pasco, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pymchuk of Reedsport; Mr. and Mrs. Max Nielsen of Harrisburg, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finion of Glide.

MRS. GEORGE CHURCHILL left Friday for Philadelphia, Pa., to attend summer sessions on a special scholarship awarded to her at the University of Pennsylvania, where she will take advanced study in family finance. Mrs. Churchill has taught family finance in the Glide High School for the last several years. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

PAT AND BILL MURPHY CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS

A very enjoyable double birthday party was given to Pat and Bill Murphy, identical twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Murphy, Thursday evening at the Umpqua Community Hall, celebrating their 12th birthdays.

Games occupied the first part of the evening and then the honored guests opened their many gifts. A cake for each made the centerpiece.

Refreshments were served to Pat and Bill and to Kathy Liles, Marjorie Judd, Paula Germond, Patty Hartle, Billy and Eugene Anderson, Chuck and Joe Swinehart, David Roadman, Dianne Coffey, Carolyn Rippstein, Stevie Peery, Bill Bob Miller, Betty and Mildred Teller, Lloyd Lewis, Mrs. Flo Rippstein, Mrs. Emma Lansing, Mrs. Ella Teller, Mrs. Helen Liles and the host and hostess.

IN THE PRESENCE of relatives and close friends, Rosemary Jane Forrest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Forrest of Little Valley, became the bride of Donald E. Nicklason, son of Edwin Nicklason of Tenmile at 8 p.m. Thursday evening in the social room of the Eagles Hall in Roseburg. The Rev. Lester G. Olson of Faith Lutheran Church of Roseburg officiated. Summer flowers were used in the decorations. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

The dainty bride was lovely in a white chiffon waltz-length gown styled with cap sleeves, shirred bodice with sweetheart neckline and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip-length net veil was held by a seed-pearl coronet. A pale pink carnation corsage and white ballerina slippers completed the bride's ensemble.

Miss Judy Turner, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a deep rose taffeta-and-lace gown with back bow and off-shoulder cap sleeves. She wore a white carnation corsage.

The bride's mother wore a boxy navy suit with Roman piping, and also wore a pink carnation corsage.

Warren Nicklason, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. A reception followed the ceremony.

The newlyweds cut the three-tiered bridal cake which was white with white daisies and small pink hearts. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Glenn A. Forrest with assistance of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Forrest, and aunt, Mrs. Charles Forrest. Miss Judy Turner poured coffee. Due to Navy traveling orders, a later scheduled bridal shower was canceled and the couple opened many lovely gifts at this time. Miss Cheryl Wheeland, a cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride has lived in the Roseburg area all her life, attending Roseburg schools and graduating from Roseburg High School this spring. The bridegroom has lived in the Tenmile area most of his life, and attended Camas Valley schools before joining the U. S. Navy, where he has been serving aboard the USS Wilkerson, with rating of ensignman, first class. After a brief honeymoon, the couple will reside in San Diego.

Mrs. Currier Hostess At Charming Coffee

Mrs. Jeffery Currier entertained at a delightful coffee Tuesday morning at her beautiful new home in compliment to her mother-in-law, Mrs. R. L. Currier, of Arlington, Ore., who visited her Friday through Wednesday.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. William Allen, Hydrangeas and roses formed the attractive decorations for the occasion. Invited to enjoy the occasion were Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. M. C. Bowker, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Arthur Clarke.

CHARMING SHOWER HONORS MRS. ABBOTT

A charming pink and blue shower was given on a recent Thursday evening by Mary Lou Reidy and Mrs. Michael J. Wooton at the former's home. The party was in honor of Mrs. Don Abbott.

Several games were played for which prizes were given. Table decorations were pink and white with the traditional stork.

The honoree opened her gifts after which the hostesses served pink and white dessert refreshments to Jean Horsley, Mary Wells, Carol Sue Carnes, Dawn Carnes, Virginia Barnes, Ginger Barnes, Blanche Barnes, Ethel Clark, Helen Buell, Patsy Fromdahl, Doris Lauer, Bobbie Baldwin, Nancy Niblett, Pat Couey, Lil Reidy and the guest of honor, Mrs. Abbott.

Sending gifts were Nancy Morgan, Grace Barnes, Judy Barnes, Bess West and Sharon Fast.

What Makes A Bride Happiest?

BY JACK WEST

Next to getting a good man who will love her all his life, I suspect that the gifts a bride gets on the biggest day of her entire life makes her happier than anything else.

Let's say someone you know—a lovely young girl—is going to get married. You've known her a long time. You know that she likes "nice things." You know something of her tastes—and you are determined to give her something she will be thrilled to receive on her wedding day.

A gleaming silver tray. A gold toilet set. A sugar and creamer combination. A lovely brooch. A place setting for 8 guests. A quaint and beautiful Lazy Susan. A manicure set. A dozen goblets. Oh, there are so many things you can get her that she'll enjoy—and, of course, they are all here awaiting your most critical inspection.

Folks oftentimes refer to our store as "Wedding Headquarters" and we like that—for we try earnestly to stock and display all the lovely things that any bride-to-be will be happy with. Why don't you come in today? No matter how small your budget may be, we can help you choose the present that will best convey the love you have for her.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THIS MAN HIS NAME IS ED WYATT

HE MAY HOLD THE KEY TO YOUR FUTURE FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Call or Write ED WYATT

REPRESENTING SUN LIFE OF CANADA

DOUGLAS COUNTY STATE BANK BUILDING
Roseburg, Oregon
Phone ORchard 3-8184

JACK WEST'S DIAMOND SHOP
Ph. OR 2-3602
Corner Umpqua Hotel

ANNOUNCEMENT of the engagement of Sally E. Frazier, daughter of Evelyn L. Frazier and the late H. G. (Bert) Frazier, of this city, to Claude Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Butler, has been made by the bride-elect's mother. Sally was graduated from Roseburg High School this spring and is employed at the Douglas County State Bank. Claude was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1955 and is employed by Pacific Plywood Co. The date of the wedding has been set for Aug. 16. (Picture by Koop's Modern Photography).

MR. AND MRS. RIGGS ENTERTAIN AT BUFFET

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Riggs entertained at a six thirty o'clock buffet supper Wednesday evening honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Huebner who are both leaving Sutherlin. The Rev. Mr. Peters has been transferred to Corvallis and Thomas Huebner has accepted the elementary school principalship of the Reedport school.

Those enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Riggs and the honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Ed West, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. House and Miss Harriet Riggs. The evening was spent socially.

TUESDAY POTLUCK HONORS REV. AND MRS. PETERS

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Peters were honored at a potluck supper Tuesday evening held in the social rooms of the Sutherlin Methodist Church.

The group met at seven o'clock and after the supper a social evening was enjoyed. A combination gift was presented to the honored guests.

The Rev. Mr. Peters and family left Friday for Corvallis where the former will be Wesley minister. He has been pastor in the Sutherlin and Willbur churches for the last two years.

TO BE BRIDE — Mr. and Mrs. Coy Stovall, Glendale, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Juanita, to Robert R. Peil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Peil, Glendale. The wedding will take place Aug. 10, in the garden at the Peil home. The bride-elect was graduated from Glendale High School in 1956 and later took training for work as a dental nurse and is now employed in Medford. Mr. Peil attended school in Glendale and served in the Coast Guard and was discharged last August. He attended one semester of Southern Oregon College at Ashland and is now an instructor in the Arthur Murray Dance Studio in Medford. He will return to college this fall. (Fox Photo).

LOSE WEIGHT WITHOUT DIETING

"Take Ayds," says Alexis. "I enjoy one or two Ayds candies, as directed, 15 minutes before meals. My appetite fades, I eat less, lose naturally." Doctors proved the Ayds Plan best, safest at New England clinic. Prove it yourself. $2.98. Money-back guarantee.

AYDS Vitamin and Mineral Candy

Pay Less Drug Store
SERVE YOURSELF and PAY LESS