Annual Picnic Is Interesting Affair

The Douglas County Assn. of Portland held its annual picnic recently at Peninsula Park in Portland. The association is an organization of former Douglas County residents now living in Portland. Many of the members are descendants of early pioneers and other prominent families of the county.

The association was organized in 1912 at a meeting at Sellwood Park. The first president was Lon Parker. Mrs. Laurie Rice, a daughter of the late Leonard Rice, is a charter member and has a record of perfect attendance for 45 years. Other charter members include Maude Sutherland Hollister, daughter of Jim Sutherland and a niece of Fin Sutherland, the founder of Sutherland Valley; and Mrs. Bertha Lamb Davis who will be remembered as an early teacher and whose sister was the late Mrs. Myrtle Wells of Elkton. Mrs. Davis is the wife of James B. Davis, a son of another pioneer family who lived west of Willbur on what is known locally as Davis Hill. Otto Drain, formerly a resident of Drain, served as president of the association for the past 10 years. Also active in the organization and who served on the arrangement committee this year is Mrs. Ruby Hawkins, who's father was Judge

Brown of Yoncalla.

The picnic will be held at Peninsula Park again next year, the date to be announced prior to the meeting. Friends are welcome to join in the affair. Going from Roseburg to attend the affair were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Roadman, the former enjoying a visit with many old friends and schoolmates from the Willbur Academy.
