Whitey Ford's back and, while the New York Yankees have yet to approach that anticipated American League runaway, it might be significant they reached their biggest lead of the season on the day the ace left-hander returned.
Ford, AL leader last season in winning percentage (19-6 for .760) and earned run average (2.47) and an 83-29 lifetime pitcher, ended a six-week layoff caused by a arm trouble last night and picked up a victory in relief as the Yankees edged Baltimore 3-2 on Mickey Mantle's 10th-inning homer.

Coupled with Detroit's 5-2 defeat of the second-place Chicago White Sox, the triumph boosted the defending world champions into a two-game lead.

NL Trend Remains
In the National League, the trend of everyone winning a few and losing a few continued.
St. Louis, capitalizing on four Milwaukee errors, defeated the first-place Braves 9-5 in one of three night games after second-place Cincinnati, half a game back had been stopped in the afternoon by the Chicago Cubs' Dick Drott, 6-0.

Brooklyn, behind Don Drysdale's five-hitter, blanked the New York Giants 3-0, and Philadelphia rallied for five runs in the eighth to end a five-game losing streak 5-4 over Pittsburgh.

Kansas City's string of 11 losses ended with a 10-3 win over Cleveland, and Washington edged Boston 5-4 in other AL action.

Mantle's home run, running the Yankee win streak to five, was his 22nd of the season and was hit off George Zuverink after Billy Gardner's two-out single had scored the tying run for the Orioles in the ninth. Ford worked two innings and allowed two hits and one run, giving way to Bob Grim, who wrapped it up in the last of the 10th. Al Kaline and Charley Maxwell hit homers to help Jim Bunning win his ninth against two losses for Detroit. Jim Wilson lost it, three on Tim Thompson's homer. Tom Gorman won in relief for the A's, as did Pete Ramos for the Senators against the Red Sox. Mike Formica was the Boston loser but his successor, Ike Delock, forced in the winning run with a bases-loaded walk to Bob Usher in the seventh.

Cards Whip Braves
Five runs in the third inning, three of them made unearned by Milwaukee bunts, gave the Cardinals control of the NL leaders and cut the gap between St. Louis and the top to 1 1/2 games. Del Ennis drove in three runs and Hal Smith two for the Cards, who overcame Milwaukee homer by Hank Aaron (24) and Wes Covington. Herm Wehmeier won his third, while Bob Buhl (9-3) was the loser.

Drott struck out eight and scattered four Redleg singles for his second shutout—the Cubs' second—of the season. Joe Nuxhall was the loser.

Junior Gilliam's leadoff homer off Johnny Antonelli gave Brooklyn's Drysdale all the working margin he needed.
The Pirate's Ron Kline led 4-0 on a three-bitter until the Phils rallied for their five in the eighth on four hits, including a two-run single by Granny Hamner and a two-run double by Rip Repulski. Jim Hearn won it and Bob Smith was the loser.

NOTHING TO IT—New York Yankee Hank Bauer loses his cap but makes a pretty back-handed catch of a pop fly by Cleveland Indian Larry Raines in the first inning of a game in New York. The Yank's first sacker watches the action. Indian Al Smith took advantage of the situation to go from second to third, beating Bauer's throw. The Indians won, 2-0.

Eight NY Yankees Selected On AL All-Star Ball Club

CHICAGO — Eight members of the world champion New York Yankees Monday were named to the 1957 American League all-star team which will be directed by Yankee Manager Casey Stengel.

The American League, presenting an all-veteran starting lineup, meet the National League all-stars at St. Louis next Tuesday.
Stengel, who named the team with the exception of the starting lineup, selected six Yankees in addition to catcher Yogi Berra and centerfielder Mickey Mantle, who were selected in a public poll.

Detroit placed four players while Chicago, Cleveland and Baltimore had three each, Boston two and Kansas City and Washington one each.

Stengel, who also will select the starting pitcher, named three left-handers and four right-handers to his staff. They include southpaws Billy Pierce, Chicago; Bobby Shantz, New York; Don Mossi, Cleveland; and right-handers Bob Grim, New York; Billy Loes, Baltimore; Early Wynn, Cleveland; and Jim Bunning, Detroit.

Elston Howard of New York and Gus Triandos of Baltimore were the reserve catchers selected by Stengel. Backing up the starting infield will be Joe DeMaestri, Kansas City; Frank Malzone, Boston; and Gil McDougald, Bobby Richardson and Bill Skowron, all of New York.

Stengel's reserve outfielders will be Minnie Miñoso of Chicago, Charley Maxwell, Detroit, and Roy Sievers, Washington.

Williams will be making his 13th all star appearance while Berra

Yesterday's Stars
Dick Drott, Cubs — Celebrating his 21st birthday, struck out eight and scattered four singles in 6-0 victory over Cincinnati.

BATTING
Mickey Mantle, Yankees — Hit his 22nd home run in 10th inning to beat Baltimore 3-2 and stretch Yanks' AL lead to two games over Chicago.

Squaw Valley Site Faces Condemning

SAN FRANCISCO — Attorneys for land owner Wayne Poulsen said they heard "with shocked surprise" that the California Olympic Commission may condemn Squaw Valley property the commission wants for the 1960 winter games.

Commission Chairman Charles R. Blyth threatened such action Monday concerning 32 acres of Poulsen land which would be used for a ski jump outrun, parking, flood control and sewage facilities.

Poulsen's attorneys, Samuel C. Shenk and Archibald McDougall, issued a statement saying they were advising him to fight any condemnation action and "to test their legality . . . before the highest courts in the land."

He said he would fight the move in every way possible and added that neither the state nor the commission has ever offered a price for the land.

Last February he and his attorneys suggested that the state, the commission and himself should select three appraisers to evaluate it, he said.

An Olympic spokesman said a court battle over the Poulsen property would mean no construction on the Olympic site this year. It was scheduled to have started last month.

Mickey Mantle is the first to lead the American League in home runs two years in succession since 1942 when Ted Williams did it.

Frank Crosetti and Jim Turner of New York will be Stengel's coaches and the trainer will be Gus Mauch of New York.

Stengel's reserve outfielders will be Minnie Miñoso of Chicago, Charley Maxwell, Detroit, and Roy Sievers, Washington.

Williams will be making his 13th all star appearance while Berra

NWL President Denies Change

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Jim Fleishman of the Northwest Baseball League declared Monday night a change in the first half standings would now be impossible.

His comment, made in Portland, was in response to a telegram sent by President Roy Neilan of the Yakima Bears. Neilan asked Fleishman to postpone determination of the first half championship until Eugene plays off its two postponed games with Lewiston.

Officially the first half of the league season ended Sunday night. Eugene led with 38 wins and 28 losses for a .576 percentage. Yakima was second with a 39-29 won-loss record and a .574 percentage.

Neilan said in his telegram that Yakima had made up all of its postponed games before the end of the first half of the season and that Eugene had a chance to make up at least one of its games but failed to do so, "either by negligence of intent."

Fleishman said: "The determination before the season started was that standings at the end of the halves would be determined percentage-wise. A change now would be impossible."
