PASSES HIGHEST TEST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Oregon was the second highest state in the nation in the number of inductees passing Army educational tests, Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) reports.
 He said that in the period from 1950 to 1953, 97 per cent of the state's inductees passed. The only state with a higher rating was Minnesota, with 97.4 per cent.
 South Carolina was the lowest rating state, with 53.2 per cent.

Job's Daughters Council Holds Meet At Riddle

By RUTH EVANS
 Council members from Bethel 39, Riddle, Order of Job's Daughters, were host to the members of the Douglas County Guardians' Club at a dinner meeting last week. Thirty-five answered roll call. Three from Roseburg, two from Glendale, 15 from Myrtle Creek, four from Winston-Dillard, and 11 from Riddle. The state-wide candy sale to take place in the fall, and duties of council members were subjects under discussion. Winston-Dillard members extended an invitation to the club to hold their fall meeting at that place.
