

MISS HELEN CASEY, advisor for the 1927 Roseburg High School Class is pictured above second front left with several of the class members and their husbands and wives at the reunion coffee hour at the John William Robertson home. Left to right, Allen Moore, Miss Casey, Frank and Kathleen Ness Bash, Medford; Bertha Rohr Shrum, Paulina, Ore; Frank and Jewell Long and Rhea Gates Church and Ralph M. Church, Roseburg; Leta Hatfield Knight and William W. Knight, Portland, and Clarence Gladwill, Vera Cruz, Calif.

ABOVE are Sam and Alice McConnel, Fall River Mills, Calif.; Daphne Hughes, New York City; Evelyn Benson Frazier, Roseburg; Phyllis Shields Gendron, Seattle; Shirley Knight Houser and Roy B. Houser the latter was president of the class and acted as master of ceremonies at the banquet, and Helen Bergh Billhmer and Harold Billhmer, Portland.

GRACE CONN ROBERTSON AND her husband, John William Robertson, pictured at the right, were host and hostess with the class committee for the coffee hour at their beautiful home in Laurelwood. Left to right; Adrian and Dorothy Bowen, Marjorie Snyder Miles and Louis M. Miles, Alice Fest Utne, all of Roseburg; Mary Carnahan Weaver, Myrtle Creek, and the Robertsons.

AMONG THOSE attending the 1927 class reunion Saturday were Mildred Ohman Simmons, Margaret Hewitt Booth, Miss Alice Ueland (who was a teacher of the class); Pauline Bubar McKillap, Long Beach, Calif.; Ed and Virginia Johnson, Seattle; Harriet and H. H. Turner, (the latter was athletic coach), and Elton Jackson, Roseburg.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1957

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

THE 30-year reunion of the Roseburg High School Class of 1927 proved a most successful and delightful event of Saturday with a coffee hour being held during the afternoon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John William Robertson in Laurelwood and the evening banquet at 6:30 o'clock at Carl's Haven.

The committee in charge of the first reunion of the class included Mrs. John William Robertson, Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. L. A. Miles, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. R. M. Church and Mrs. Richard Crenshaw, who arranged both the afternoon and evening events.

The summer house in the Robertson garden was ornamented with a long buffet table centered with an arrangement of orange lilies and white hydrangea blossoms, carrying out the class colors. Miss Daphne Hughes, executive director for the Youth Consultation Service of the Episcopal Diocese of Newark, N. J., and who came from her home in New York City, for the affair, served the punch, while Miss Helen Casey, class advisor, poured the coffee. Members of the committee assisted in the serving.

Joining the class members for the banquet, who were not at the afternoon coffee were Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hiatt, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cook and Edwin S. Booth, all of Roseburg, and Herbert Gendron of Seattle. W. M.

Campbell, who was superintendent of Roseburg schools in 1927, was unable to attend on account of being out-of-town on that date.

Roy B. Houser, who is an official of Western Auto Supply and who was president of the class, acted as master of ceremonies. Each class member gave a short talk and introduced their husband or wife.

Mrs. Harold (Helen Bergh) Billhmer, Portland, presented each member with leaflets (tied with the class colors of orange and white) of songs of 1927, which were enjoyed in a community sing led by Mrs. Billhmer, Mrs. Richard (Jessie Gibbs) Crenshaw and Mrs. Edwin (Margaret Hewitt) Booth. Highlights of the evening included a talk by Miss Rosa B. Parrott and musical novelty numbers by Miss Helen Casey and Miss Alice Ueland.

The table decorations included flowers of orange and white, while at the speaker's table, the centerpiece was made up of the class flower, "Lady Hillington" roses. Penants in orange and white were used as placecards. Orange and white booklets contained the class roll with short sketches of members and their families and what they have done and are doing. One of the class members unable to attend was Edith Starrett Green, Oregon Congressman.

Class officers of 1927 were Roy B. Houser, Portland, president; Myrtle Weatherford Coomes, Portland, Wash., vice president; Mrs. Harold (Dorothy Geddes) Ingram, Pendleton, secretary; Glenn Bacon, Sacramento, treasurer, and Grant Endicott, sgt.-at-arms. Miss Helen Casey was the class advisor. Student body officers for the year 1927 were William W. Knight, publisher of the Oregon Journal, Portland, president; Mrs. Harold (Helen Bergh) Billhmer, Portland, secretary; Miss Daphne Hughes, New York City, sgt.-at-arms, and Elton Jackson, Roseburg, sophomore vice president.

A large number unable to attend the affair sent messages, which were read at the banquet. Among teachers sending greetings were Mrs. Ernest (Crystal Jacobs) Hyland and Maybelle Church Klemm, both of Eugene; and Miss Lucille Crank, New York City.

All Pictures
On This Page
By
'Chris' of the
Photo Lab

PICTURED ABOVE at the class reunion at the coffee hour at the Robertson home Saturday afternoon are Harold and Gwen Thomas, Ashland; Kermit and Dorothy Masters Johnson, Portland; Francis Butler Ellison and A. J. (Bud) Ellison, Roseburg; Alexis and Truman Runyan, Klamath Falls, and Dorothy Geddes Ingram and Harold Ingram, Pendleton.