Community News Briefs

Louis Berney is working for the next two weeks at The News-Review in the stead of John Brooke who is on vacation.

Jim Apperson of Coos Bay returned home Sunday following a four-day visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Apperson.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Queen and small son, Greg, from Seattle, have been visiting here with the former's mother, Mrs. Joseph Queen, and with friends in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Heidrick and baby daughter, Tina, returned to their home in Redding Saturday following a two-day visit here with Mrs. Heidrick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunter. They also spent some time with Heidrick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Heidrick.

Mrs. Emily Wright of Vancouver, B. C., left by plane last week bound for Hollywood where she will spend two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Eva McCutcheon, before returning home. She has been here for a month's visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Wright.

Mrs. Walter Marosok has returned to Roseburg following three weeks spent in Los Angeles where she attended the workshop of music conducted by Dr. Leo Podolsky, internationally famed musician and educator. Mrs. Marosok was also privileged to take a series of private lessons from the doctor. During her stay, Mrs. Marosok was the houseguest of her daughter, Miss Ardath, who is attending Woodbury College in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dryden of Peoria, Ill., are houseguests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Parks Schneider of Roseburg. The latter couple met the Drydens in Portland where all were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Patee, also formerly of Peoria. The group enjoyed "Around The World In 80 Days" and other interesting events, including those connected with the Rose Festival, returning to Roseburg leisurely, stopping in Tillamook to tour the cheese factory. The Drydens particularly enjoyed the Douglas County Rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Preston have returned from a six-week trip to Minneapolis, Minn., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burrows, and son, Martin, 9. The former made the trip by plane to Concord, N. H., where he attended the reunion of the 103rd Infantry Yankee Division, the armed forces branch in which he served in World War I. He also visited relatives in Maine and Boston, Mass. The Prestons, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Burrows and son who returned with them to Roseburg for a visit, stopped enroute home at Yellowstone Park. Mrs. Burrows is the former Marilyn Preston.
