 San Francisco and Vancouver, front runners in the Pacific Coast League, have found some cousins in Portland and Los Angeles. The leading Seals made it six straight over Portland by sweeping a Sunday twin bill by identical 4-3 scores.

 And Vancouver stayed 2 1/2 games back with 5-1 and 5-0 victories over the Angels to maintain a similar six game streak. The Mounties have boosted their margin over third place San Diego to three games.

The Padres dropped Hollywood 5-4 in the opener, but lost the regularly scheduled seven-inning nightcap in nine innings 3-2. The split put Hollywood a game behind San Diego, 6 1/2 games out.

Sacs Split
 Fifth place Seattle split a pair with Sacramento, the basement club, winning the first game 3-1, losing the nightcap 8-2.

The Seals' winningest pitchers, Bill Abernathie and Leo Kiely, kept the Seals going with Abernathie winning his ninth game without a loss.

Kiely came in in the sixth, pitched but two innings but ended up with victory No. 12. It was Kiely's 11th consecutive victory as a fireman. He has two losses.

Frank Kellert's two run homer tied the second game in the sixth and Jack Phillips' seventh inning home run won the first game before 8,649 fans.

The second game's winning run came on a long fly by Tommy Umphlett which scored Haywood Sullivan.

That run ended the Beavers' brightest hope. It came in the ninth inning of the scheduled seven-inning second game after the two teams were tied, 3-3, from the sixth.

Portland led, 3-1, with two Seals out in the bottom of the sixth. Then Umphlett was hit by one of Bob Anderson's pitches, and a score ahead of Kellert, who homered.

A threat was made by Portland in the top of the ninth when Bob Borkowski was safe on a two-base error and was sacrificed to third by Danny Baich. He died there as pinchhitter Earl Rapp grounded out and Solly Drake fanned.

The double defeat put Portland's losing streak at nine. The two teams play again Monday night.

 The Mounties put together a five-run sixth inning in the nightcap. The big blow against Los Angeles was Owen Friend's bases-loaded triple. Ery Palica scattered nine hits in the opener. Jim Marshall led off a three-run outburst in the eighth with his 11th home run of the season.

Averill Homers
 Catcher Earl Averill smacked two homers and Bob Lennon another as San Diego defeated Hollywood in the first game. Averill's second four-bagger in the ninth inning did the trick. But the second game was a different story, with Hollywood's Leo Rodriguez coming through with a last inning double to drive in Jim Baumer with the winning run. The teams split the six-game series.

Seattle got only three hits in the seven-inning opener but those, plus Sacramento batter trouble, were enough. Two first inning walks by Joe Stanka contributed to two runs and two passed balls by catcher Jim Mancan brought in a run in the eighth.

Roger Osenbaugh won the second game with the aid of Jim Greengrass, who batted in three runs with a triple, double and single.

Saturday, San Francisco defeated Portland 9-2. Vancouver beat the Angels 5-2 in a game which saw the ump's clear the Los Angeles bench during an eighth inning tie, Sacramento beat Seattle 7-1 and Hollywood clobbered San Diego 12-3.

Moore's Title Officially Gone

NEW YORK — Archie Moore, the graybeard light heavyweight champion of the world, is no more. That is, he is no more the light heavyweight champion as of today.

Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission and newly elected president of the World Championship Committee for professional boxing, said no formalities are now necessary to declare the light heavyweight title vacant.

It remains to be seen whether the Committee can make its decision stick.

It is almost a certainty that Moore, who hasn't defended his title since he knocked out Pompey 13 months ago, will challenge it. He is on record as saying that he is willing to fight Anthony if he gets a guarantee of $100,000. So far he has had no takers.
