Archie Moore Retains Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Lightweight champion Archie Moore has agreed to defend his title against Tony Anthony of New York Sept. 11 in Los Angeles' Glendale Stadium, Julius Helfand announced Tuesday.

ST. LOUIS — The American League defeated the National League 6-5 in the 24th All-Star game, scoring three runs in the top of the ninth and then cutting short a NL rally at three runs in the last of the ninth.

and chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, said in view of the positive action he would not strip Moore of his title. He said he had received a telephone call from Jules Covey, attorney for singer Frank Sinatra, who is promoting the fight, that everything was in order.

Moore will get 40 per cent of the gate and Anthony, 20 per cent, said Helfand.

Acting in his capacity as head of the World Committee, Helfand had issued an ultimatum to Moore to sign for a title defense against Anthony by noon Tuesday or have his title vacated.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Chicago's Minnie Mingo and Detroit's Jim Bunning and Al Kaline were singled out today as the 1957 All-Star Game heroes, but some critics attributed the American League's 6-5 victory yesterday to good breaks, poor National League base running and Casey Stengel luck.

Each side scored three times in the ninth inning. A fine throw and catch by Mingo preserved the American's second triumph in the last eight years and Stengel's second success in seven All-Star games. Mingo's double in the top of the ninth drove in Kaline with the winning run.

The crowd of 39,693 witnessed splendid pitching by young Bunning, Baltimore's Billy Lee and Milwaukee's Lew Burdette, and fine fielding and timely hitting by Kaline and Mingo. They also saw several plays that will be second guessed for many weeks.

Why did National League Manager Walter Alton decide to let Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews swing away in the ninth inning? The potential tying runs were on second and first, and with nobody out, strategy cried for a bunt. Bell Bombed

Why didn't Cincinnati's Gus Bell stop at second on Chicago's Ernie Banks' one-out run-scoring single in the ninth which cut the American's lead to 6-5? Bell tried to advance to third and was an easy out on Mingo's throw to Boston's Frank Malzone.

Why didn't Cincinnati's Frank Robinson, who had opened the National's fifth with a single, run to second on Mathews' apparent line drive hit to right field? Instead, Robinson retreated after going halfway and was thrown out at second by Kaline, who made a one-handed stab of the ball on the first bounce.

Alton, who used all but four of his 25 players, defended his own action and that of his players in a forthright manner. "I thought 'about having Mathews bunt,' he said. "But Eddie has good power and is a left-handed pull hitter. With that short right field porch an inviting target I wanted to give him a chance to hit that long one for us."

Left-hander Don Mossi of Cleveland, summoned out of the bullpen to relieve Chicago southpaw Billy Pierce, got Mathews on a call at third strike. Banks followed with a single which would have tied the score had Eddie advanced the two runners.

"Had I known Eddie would strike out and Banks would hit that single," the skipper of the

ALL-STAR STARTERS—Starting pitchers for the 1957 All-Star game in St. Louis, Mo., Detroit Tiger rookie righthander Jim Bunning (left) for the American League and Philadelphia southpaw Curt Simmons (right) for the National League.

Brooklyn Dodgers said with a smile, "I would have had Mathews bunt."

Wynn Best
Ironically, the best pitcher of the day was Bunning, whom Casey nominated to start only because Cleveland's Early Wynn, his original choice, had been used Sunday.

Bunning hurled three perfect innings, retiring nine batters in succession as Stengel's crew built up a 2-0 lead against Philadelphia's Curt Simmons.

Loes also kept the National League sluggers from scoring during the next three innings while the American Leaguers increased their lead to 3-0 in the sixth—after Burdette had stopped them in the third, fourth and fifth.

It was while Wynn was on the mound that the National Leaguers first scored. Singles by New York's Willie Mays and Cincinnati's Ed Bailey and a pinch hit double by Bell reduced the AL's lead to 3-2 in the seventh.

Pierce halted the rally but he was shelled from the mound in the ninth after the American League had opened up a 6-2 margin with three ninth-inning runs—only one earned—against Clem Labine of Brooklyn. Kaline drove in two and scored the other.

A walk to Stan Musial, May's triple and a wild pitch produced two NL runs with nobody out. When pinch hitter Hank Foiles of Pittsburgh singled and Bell walked, Mossi took over and struck out Mathews.

Banks' run-scoring single, on which Bell was nipped at third for the second out, caused Stengel to call upon his own ace reliever, right-hander Bob Grim, to pinch hit for Gil Hodges with Banks, representing the tying run, on second. The Dodger first baseman drilled left field but Mingo grabbed it on the run to end the game.

And so the American League National League in All-Star competition.

The season's half over and this could be it for the St. Louis Cardinals in that National League tally pull, where everybody's been too busy trying to keep up to even get ahead.

Manager Fred Hutchinson's Redbirds, the best club in the league, are in position to take charge. They carry a five-game winning streak and a 2½-game claim on first place against the sixth-place New York Giants tomorrow, opening a 13-game swing through the East.

Second-place Milwaukee opens its Eastern tour at Pittsburgh in the only game scheduled tonight. Tomorrow night, third-place Philadelphia, 3½ games behind, is home to Chicago's last-place Cubs, with fourth-place Cincinnati, three percentage points back of the Phillies, at Brooklyn. The Brooks are five games behind in fifth—their first second division standing at the halfway point since 1948.

In the American league, the New York Yankees head into the West for 12 games with the idea of locking up the race for good. The Yanks, also 2½ games ahead, open at Kansas City tomorrow night.

The second-place White Sox are home to Washington tomorrow night, with Baltimore at Cleveland in a two-night twin bill and Boston at Detroit for a day game.

Only the Cardinals and Milwaukee have won more than they've lost in the last month among the NL contenders. St. Louis was 20-10, the Braves 16-13. Philadelphia was 14-15, with Cincinnati in first place by a game a month ago—and Brooklyn both 13-16.

While only 20-20 at home after sweeping four from Cincinnati last weekend to grab first place from the Redlegs, the Cardinals are 26—all on the road, with a 17-6 record in the East. Milwaukee and Cincinnati are only 13-10 in the Eastern parks.

The Yankees, finally in gear, have won four in a row and 11 of their last 12 for a 51-26 record—the same they had after 77 games in 1956, although it was good for a five-game lead then.

Rose Advances To 3rd Round

PORTLAND (AP)—Top-seeded Bill Rose of Portland, fresh from winning the Inland Empire tournament at Spokane, moved easily through his first match in the Oregon State Tennis Tournament Tuesday.

Rose advanced to the third round by turning aside Daryl Aadland, Portland, 6-0, 6-0.

Art Kono of Seattle scored a double victory, eliminating Gil Howard, Portland, 6-1, 6-1, in Junior men's singles play and Bob Brown, Portland, 6-3, 6-2, in the men's division.

In junior women's competition, Patsy Miller defeated Sue Hoff, Tacoma, 6-2, 6-0, after Jane Baxter, Kennewick, had defaulted to her.

Wenatchee's unbeaten string of eight games in the second half of the split Northwest League season came to a screeching halt Tuesday night as Lewiston's Kip Kipper blanked the Chiefs on two hits.

Doug Kassay got both of Wenatchee's hits, a single in the first inning and a double in the seventh, off of Kipper as the Braves won it, 6-0.

In other league action, the Salem Senators trampled Tri-City's Braves 7-6 and the Eugene Emeralds shaded Yakima's Bears 3-1.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Crafty old Casey Stengel was a winning All-Star Game manager for the second time in seven tries today, partly because things he didn't want to do turned out so well.

He didn't want to start Detroit's Jim Bunning, who was his No. 2 choice behind Cleveland's Early Wynn. Bunning retired all nine men he faced.

Casey wasn't happy with the fan's choice of Harvey Kuenn of Detroit at short, Vic Wertz of Cleveland at first and Baltimore's

George Kell at third, and was determined to replace them after three innings.

That he did, but not before Wertz and Kuenn had batted in the first two runs—Wertz with a single and Kuenn with a bases-loaded walk.

No fault can be found with Stengel's replacements—Moose Skovron at first and shortstop Gil McDougald of his own New York Yankees and Boston's Frank Malzone at third. Moose rapped a double and single.

But Casey was living right when he inserted Minnie Mingo of the Chicago White Sox in the eighth for defensive purposes.

Mingo doubled home what proved to be the winning run in the ninth, then threw out Cincinnati's Gus Bell at third to help choke off a last-minute National League rally.
