Think that was a torrid first half of the season in the National League? Well, you ain't seen nothing yet, pal, what with a player feud, a couple of no-hit bids and injuries to key players popping up in the breakaway for the final run to the pennant.

Taking the happenings one at a time:

1. Cincinnati's Don Hoak vowed "I'll get that Neal before this series is over, either on or off the field," while still riled up after being tagged with an "ambush" right hand from Brooklyn's Charley Neal in the second of two fights last night at Ebbets Field. The Dodgers won it 5-4 on the second of Duke Snider's pair of two-run homers after Brooklyn's Raul Sanchez set of a big seventh-inning brawl when a Sanchez pitch.
2. After Chicago's Bob Rush had no-hit Philadelphia for seven innings only to lose 1-0 in 11 innings, rookie Jack Sanford set down the Cubs with 7 1/3 innings of perfect ball for his 11th victory, 3-1, and a two-night sweep that hoisted Philadelphia into second place. The Phils, however, again lost catcher Stan Lopata, this time with a wrenched knee.
3. Milwaukee, slipping from second to third (one percentage point behind the Phils) despite a 7-2 victory at Pittsburgh, lost shortstop Felix Mantilla and center fielder Billy Bruton in a fielding collision.
4. Southpaw Johnny Antonelli five-hit St. Louis to win 1-0 as the New York Giants shaved the Cardinals' first-place edge to two

Spokane Golfer Takes Top Role In Tourney

SPOKANE — Jim Mallory of Spokane took over the favorite's mantle Friday as he met young John Lynch of Spokane in the top semi-final match of the Pacific Northwest Men's Amateur Golf Tournament.

Mallory firmly established himself as the man to beat when he ousted the hot favorite, Erv Parent of Seattle, in the quarterfinal round Thursday, 4 and 2.

Lynch moved up with a 19-hole victory over George Weishaar of Spokane.

Paired in the other semi-final match were Ernie Johnson of Seattle, a 2 and 1 victor over Howard Baker of Spokane, and Billy Warner of Spokane, who dropped Dr. Met Aspray of Spokane on the 29th hole.

The 1957 roster of the Milwaukee Braves lists 18 pitchers.

They added another four runs in the second inning on a single by Bob Cavanaugh, a walk to John Cavanaugh, single by Harold Bay, single by Graber and two sacrifice flies.

Hanna Starts Rally

Hanna Nickel got back in the game with a five-run second inning. Thompson and Malone started the inning by drawing walks and Lavasseur sacrificed them to second and third.

Deitz then homered into left field for three runs. Bell then walked, Wosley reached first on an error and Coke doubled both runners home.

With the score at 8-5 in favor of Myrtle Creek, the Lions broke loose for five runs in the top of the fourth inning to put the game on ice and gave Myrtle Creek its second win of the season against two losses.

Leading batter for Myrtle Creek was Bay with 2-2 followed by Hadley and Harry Hatcher with 2-4. Top batter for Hanna was Bell with 2-4, including a double and a single.

game bulge over second-place Eugene Thursday night by shelling the Lewiston Braves 11-1 while the Emeralds were blowing a 6-1 decision to Yakima.

Salem beat the Braves 10-9 in the other loop game.

The Chiefs, who have won nine of their first 11 starts in the second half of the split league season, had it all their own way against the Braves Thursday night, pounding out 17 hits.

Chico Alvarez blasted out a two-run homer for the Chiefs in the second inning and Don Lundberg smashed out a three-run homer in the fourth. Jim Bailey won it with a six-hitter. He fanned eight batters.

The Bears broke loose for three runs in the second inning in defeating Eugene and added three more before the game was over. The key blow in the second inning was Pete Gongola's two-run homer. Whitey Phillips' double accounted for the final run in the seventh.

Salem won the 27-hit slugfest from the Braves in the last of the ninth inning on a single by Jack Sunn and Larry Segovia's double. The game was a ragged one, with Tri-City committing six errors and Salem three.
