LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1957

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

BARBECUE DINNERS are included in one of the most pleasurable parts of summertime living and many Roseburg families are enjoying patio parties and their gardens this season. Today's feature page was taken at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William Forrest and family on SE Kane Street with the members of the John Longfellow Jr. family.

SETTING THE TABLE for the barbecue dinner (center right) are Lynn Forrest, who will be 14 in October; Molly Forrest, 9, and Jeanna Forrest, 7. Salmon shish-kabobs are ready for the barbecue grill in the lower left picture, which includes hosts William Forrest and John Longfellow Jr. and the former's eldest son, Bill Forrest Jr., who is home from Oregon State College for the summer.

PART OF THE FUN of an out-door barbecue is roasting marshmallows and David Forrest, right, 15, and Scott Forrest, 11, show their young brother, Paul Forrest, 3, just how it is done. When the entire dinner was completed and ready for serving the Longfellows and Forrests entertained as guests the Paulus McKee family and the Al Bishop family.
