By WALTER BREEDE Jr.
NEW YORK (AP) — Good in some spots, not so good in others — that was the complexion of the nation's business this week.

Employment Booms

On the bright side were reports of a record boom in summer employment, a whirlwind rise in stock prices and faint whisperings of improved demand for houses, furniture, apparel, TV sets, and cars.

'Operation' Takes Golden Boy Rattle

SEATTLE (AP) — You'd rattle too — and probably moan a bit in the bargain — if you had in your hands what Golden Boy had been carrying in his all these years.

Rattle Detected

Some time back, Millard Rogers, associate director of the museum, detected a rattle inside G.B.'s tummy and an operation was ordered after an X-ray showed some foreign objects.

Surgeon General Says Evidence Links Lung Cancer, Cigarettes

By FRANK CAREY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said today, "There is an increasing and consistent body of evidence that excessive cigarette smoking is one of the causative factors in lung cancer."

First Statement

The statement was the first Public Health Service pronouncement on the subject since 1934 when it took note of evidence of a statistical association between cigarette smoking and lung cancer.

Special Study Quoted

The special study quoted by Burney was established in June 1956 by units of the Public Health Service in cooperation with two private health organizations — the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Assn.

Study Group, Burney Said

"The study group," Burney said, "reported that lung cancer occurs more frequently among cigarette smokers than among non-smokers, and there is a direct relationship between the incidence of lung cancer and the amount smoked."

Smoking and Lung Cancer

New to what has been known about the cause of lung cancer. It reflects the opinions of some statisticians and the relatively few experimental scientists who have actively charged that cigarette smoking is a cause of lung cancer.

But, Burney Added

"It is clear that heavy and prolonged cigarette smoking is not the only cause of lung cancer," he said. "The precise nature of the factors in heavy and prolonged cigarette smoking which can cause lung cancer is not known," he said.

As sufficiently affectionate to them. Of these, 8 out of 10 said they were sometimes downright embarrassed by an over-display of affection by their parents toward them in public.

Wash. boy was exceedingly neutral about the whole question. "No special affection is ever displayed to me," he wrote, "and I like it that way."

They Hope To Do Better
How will teen-agers bring up their own children? What lessons have they learned in this respect from their parents?

That's the only way to discipline youngsters.

"No arguments ever over money."

"I would give reasons to my children for my feelings and actions in any situations which come up and not give a point-blank yes or no answer."

"I will never say 'I didn't have it when I was your age.'"

"I would try to avoid hasty decisions and losing my temper."

"I would have more than two kids and be more consistent in discipline as well as very affectionate."

"Give them more guidance and attention."

"I think I would be less likely to side with the younger child."

"I would trust them and make sure they know it."

"More affection and a better religious background."

Roberta Martin, 16, showed she knew the ropes when it came to walking the parental tightrope.

"I will neither spoil mine nor be too tyrannical," she pledged.

Parents Are Wiser People
Would the parents of today have done better by studying child psychology books? No, answered 3 out of 4 of today's teen-agers.

"Less planned psychology and more teaching by example," advised young Peter Wolf of Haverford, Pa.

"This would be a far more intelligent way of bringing up children."

Parents generally seem to be biased by the old school and lose sight of modern circumstances, complained up-to-date Lucia Verde of Youkers, N.Y.

Hers was a common complaint, too. Quite a few teen-agers regarded their father as an old fossil from a dead civilization and think of their mothers as quaint museum pieces.

Youthful opinion has not changed much in this respect since our survey of last November when 49 per cent of the girls thought Mom was old fashioned and 36 per cent of the boys felt that Dad was living in the past.

Antiquity aside, 9 out of 10 young people regarded their parents as sufficiently affectionate to them.

Of these, 8 out of 10 said they were sometimes downright embarrassed by an over-display of affection by their parents toward them in public.

CANCER AND SMOKING — New chart affords a graphic illustration of the important data gathered by the American Cancer Society in a four-year statistical study to determine the relationship between lung cancer and smoking.

Surgeon General Says Evidence Links Lung Cancer, Cigarettes

By FRANK CAREY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said today, "There is an increasing and consistent body of evidence that excessive cigarette smoking is one of the causative factors in lung cancer."

But, Burney added, "It is clear that heavy and prolonged cigarette smoking is not the only cause of lung cancer." He said the Public Health Service favors more research into the problem. charged in fearlessly. The answers we received were often painfully frank, amazingly shrewd in a way that only young can be, and, at times, heart warming and heart rendering.

They're The Tops
In the overall standings, the parents of today ranked as world champions in any league.

Another 18 per cent went all out and said their parents did right by them "all the time."

At the other end of the spectrum, 10 per cent reported their parents handled them properly "half the time" and 4 per cent checked "hardly ever."

When it came to complaints, discipline — too strict or too lenient — led the list by a wide margin.

One girl, 16-year-old Brenda Brindley of Little Rock, Ark., even had a double barreled complaint in this department.

"Parents, at least my set," she commented, "are too particular. They are either too strict or too lenient. You never know where you're at with them."

Another girl said her parents "tend to be overbearing when they only mean to be helpful."

Army Revamping For Atomic War In Korean Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is beginning this month to revamp one of its two divisions in Korea into the Streamlined Pentomic organization for atomic age warfare.

It announced today a start on reorganization of the 7th infantry, "to increase its capability to meet the demands of modern warfare."

This is the ninth division to be designated for reorganization into the five-element structure under which infantry divisions are reduced from a present strength of 17,400 to 13,740 men.

Another infantry division, the 21st, also is manning the front facing the North Korean Communists but today's brief announcement made no mention of that unit.

The over-all program for organizing the Pentomic divisions calls for supplying them with weapons of atomic capability—such as the Honest John Rocket, the Corporal guided missile, the eight-inch howitzer.

Jet Flight To Honolulu Sets New Speed Record

HONOLULU (AP) — Two A3D Skywarrior jets, built the Navy says to carry atom bombs, smashed the mainland-Honolulu record Tuesday.

Lt. Cmdr. James P. Pruitt, Rule, Tex., landed here 4 hours 45 minutes after leaving Moffett Field, Calif., south of San Francisco. A second Skywarrior, flown by Lt. Cmdr. Horace Little, New Orleans, La., touched down one minute later.

An Air Force B47 set the old record — 4 hours 52 minutes — on Sept. 29, 1952.
