

A VERY LOVELY HOME WEDDING took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Chablen in Tenmile Friday, June 28, at 7 p.m. when their nephew, Albert Fenton Young, of Tenmile, and Miss Carol Joann Made, of Camas Valley, were united in marriage. The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. Ross Evans of the Winston Christian Church. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, George McGinnis, wore a white nylon and net ballerina length gown and carried a white Bible topped by a large white orchid. Miss Linda Parret of Camas Valley was maid of honor and wore a pink nylon and net ballerina length gown and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Miss Viola Burt was bridesmaid and wore a blue nylon and net ballerina length gown and carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Herbert Young was best man for his brother, F. A. Wafer, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, acted as usher.

During the ceremony the wedding party stood before a bower of white and pink flowers and baskets of white and pink flowers were used about the rooms. The lovely four-tiered wedding cake was white with small pink flowers and was topped by a miniature bride and groom, set in a wreath of white and pink flowers and was baked by Mrs. Bill Centers. The maid of honor and bridesmaid served the cake with the punch and coffee. Miss Janet McMaster had charge of the guest book.

The bride is the daughter of J. L. Made of Camas Valley. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Young of Tenmile.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. George McGinnis and David of Camas Valley; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Young of Tenmile; Mrs. Catherine Ransom of Midway City, Calif.; Herbert Young and son, Michael; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Nicklason, Jim Nuzum, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Croy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coats and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Chablen.

The young couple are now at home in Tenmile following a honeymoon to Reno and other points of interest.

MR. AND MRS. CARL P. (LUCKY) FALCONE, both former Glendale residents, were married in the Bolboa Baptist Church July 7. They had been married in Tia Juana, Mexico, May 30, but repeated the ceremony. The bridegroom is an apprentice seaman with the U. S. Navy at the Coronado Naval base. (Picture by Bill Anderson).

The church was beautifully decorated with white dahlias. Dr. Burger performed the impressive ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, John Bone, of Glendale. She wore a ballerina-length gown of white chiffon over taffeta. Her finger-veil was topped by a coronet of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations, centered by a white orchid and carried atop a white Bible. Her accessories included pink pearl necklace and earrings.

Kaye-Tonole Wedding Large Event July 7

The impressive ceremony was performed at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, July 7, at the First Baptist Church by the Rev. E. E. Bietz, of Portland.

Preceding the ceremony, organ selections were played by Miss Joan Marx, of Portland and Roseburg. She also accompanied Richard Thompson, who sang "Together With Jesus" and played on the violin. Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E Minor," Miss Marx also played Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding Reconciliation." Tompkins sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the bride couple knelt during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a satin gown, fashioned with long sleeves which came to a point at the wrist and a lace insert around the neck with a rosette effect in scallops at the bodice. At each point of a scallop were orange blossoms. The front of the skirt was also scalloped with each point being caught with orange blossoms. The hem of the skirt front was edged with rows of lace, as was the full train. Her veil of net fell from a crown of seed pearls. The veil was edged in lace to match the gown. The bride's bouquet was white roses, with blue stephanotis knotted in a shower of satin ribbons. The bouquet was centered by a large white orchid. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Nancy Strawn.

The candles were lighted by Patty Ann Tonole, sister of the bride, who wore a full length dress of blue net over blue taffeta, fashioned like the bride's; and by Ronald Bunch, cousin of the bride, from College Place, Wash. The aisles were marked with white rope and satin bows with lilly of the valley.

Bobby Jean Tonole, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jeanne Bunch, cousin of the bride, of College Place, and Nancy Strawn, Portland. They wore full length dresses of blue net over blue taffeta, fashioned like the bride's; and by Ronald Bunch, cousin of the bride, from College Place, Wash. The aisles were marked with white rope and satin bows with lilly of the valley.

Mrs. R. W. Pearson was in charge of the punch bowl. The punch was served by Bernadine Paulson. The groom's cake was arranged in a heart shape on the punch table.

Marilyn Munroe was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Jim Burns had charge of the gifts.

For her wedding trip to Southern California Mrs. Kaye wore a teal green fitted suit. Her accessories were white and she wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Kaye was a graduate of Roseburg High School and this year graduated in medical technology from Walla Walla College. The past year of school has been spent at the Portland Sanitarium taking classes at the medical school. Mr. Kaye, a zoology major, also graduated this year from Walla Walla College.
