GORSE FIRE REPORTED

BANDON — Some 40 acres of an oily bush that contributed to a fire that destroyed Bandon in 1939 were swept by flames Tuesday.

The bush, called gorse, or Irish Hedge, carried the flames through the town nearly 15 years ago. This time, the only thing that burned was gorse.

THE STRAIGHT-MEN are the two in the middle. The big-footed, red-nosed couple are two of the clowns who will appear Friday and Saturday at the Shrine Circus at the Fairgrounds. Shows start at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m. daily.

Tom Pack's Shrine Circus Slated Saturday, Sunday

Tom Pack's Shrine Circus opens Saturday at the fairgrounds for a two-day showing. Performances will start at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m. both days.

Dick Clemens, with a background of three decades in educating wild animals will present a group of lions, some of them jungle-bred, lionesses, and a cinnamon bear in his center-ring act. His philosophy is that lions can be trained but never tamed.

Motorized aerial stunt men are the Dressler brothers who ride a motorcycle on a cable from the ground to the top of a 100-foot tower performing acrobatics on the way.

The youngest star of the Shrine Circus is Don Mauricio, a fourth generation circus boy. Mauricio is that lions can be trained but never tamed.

The town: Clinton, Tenn.

Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, a massive man who spreads the word of God in a drill sergeant's voice, disclosed here Wednesday night he will hold a week-long meeting in Clinton next November.

The invitation came from the Rev. Paul Turner, the minister a mob attacked after he escorted Negro children to the Clinton high school. Dr. Johnson told his large audience at the First Baptist Church here.

Lashing out against race prejudice, the 70-year-old Dr. Johnson declared that "Rose (his wife) and I got our first lesson on integration in Tacoma." He was the first Baptist pastor here from 1920 to 1931.

"It was a new life for us here, coming out of a land where people from birth imbibe on race prejudice," he said.

NEW YORK — George Larned, a gunman sought for days in one of Long Island's greatest manhunts, was shot down and critically wounded by two officers in a running gun fight Friday after he staged a $93 cafe holdup in Manhattan.

The desperate fugitive, who had been shot in the back in an exchange of fire with Long Island police 16 days ago, was felled by bullets which apparently paralyzed him from the waist down and fractured ribs.

"Please put one (bullet) through my head and end it all," the 32-year-old desperado begged officers as he lay in a gutter.

Nevertheless, the officers said, Larned still tried several times to grab their guns.
