

INTERESTING VISITORS in Roseburg this week were Mrs. Chester Magnuson and daughters, Susan, 16, and Karen, 15, and son, Tony, 7, who visited the former's father, Arthur Jaeger, and Mrs. Jaeger and the Harold Horn family on SE Jackson Street. They were joined in Salem by Mr. Magnuson to continue on north on their vacation trip. The family now resides in San Mateo, Calif., where Mr. Magnuson is in the exporting business. The Magnusons were prisoners of war of the Japanese in Manila in the same camp as Stanley Rast Kidder (son of the S. L. Kidders of this city) and his wife. The senior Kidders were in Santa Tomas prison camp at Manila at that time. Karen was born just before the Magnusons entered the prison camp. Tony was born while the family resided in Peru, S. A.
