LAND-ROVER

TWICE THE PULL

Drive to all 4 wheels gives immense pulling power. The Land-Rover will haul a ton with almost contemptuous ease.

TWICE THE GRIP

The Land-Rover is no stick-in-the-mud! Without fuss or falter, 4-wheel drive spurs it through bog, over ruts, railway lines, icy roads and the battle-field terrain of building sites.

TWICE THE THRUST

Steep gradients, even with loose, shifting surfaces hold no terrors for that inimitable 4-wheel drive that simply won't take "No road" for an answer.

New York Giant Footballers Set Hot Pace For Star Game

WINOOSKI, Vt. (AP) — The New York Giants are not taking the All-Star Football Game lightly. The coaching staff has too much respect for collegians like John Brodie, Ron Kramer and Don Bosseler.

In fact, the world champions of professional football are being driven at a furious pace under the whip hand of Coach Jim Lee Howell to reach peak effectiveness for the Aug. 9 classic in Chicago.

"The All-Star Game is a prestige game," Howell explained. "If you lose, you're terrible. If you win, it is expected. For that reason we are getting the regulars ready in a hurry."

"On the other hand, the rookies are being developed slower. We'll be able to pay more attention to them after the game."

The coaching staff has been hustling the 57 candidates competing for 35 available positions twice a day since they reported July 19 at St. Michael's College campus.

Today the Giants were scheduled to drop to a one-session-a-day pace with the last full-scale scrimmage before the all-star encounter.

"Basically, the clubs who have won for the All-Stars in the past have had good passers and big, fast lines," said Howell.

"The winner doesn't have to make many touchdowns in the game and a good passer is necessary."

"Brodie, the boy from Stanford impressed me particularly. Of course, Paul Hornung of Notre Dame is a fine looking player and with both at quarterback, the stars will be able to move the ball."

"Most coaches think Jon Arnett (Southern California) is a great ball carrier and Bosseler (All America from Miami) is an outstanding runner."

Seattle Speedboat May Run Final Gold Cup Race

SEATTLE (AP) — The speedboat Miss Seattle — nee Slo-Mo-Shun V — may run her last race in the Aug. 11 quest for the Gold Cup.

As the Slo-Mo Vee she picked off the big prize twice. Her current owners, Roostertails Inc., disclosed this week that the financial burden was getting a bit too heavy.

The local syndicate reported it had started the season with a fund of $35,000, but now needs $12,000 to $15,000 more to finish the season. Miss Seattle has competed in the Apple Cup race at Chelan and the Mile High race at Lake Tahoe.

Five Detroit boats in addition to the Crust are either here or en route. They are the two Gales, the two Miss U. S. entries and the Short Circuit. The latter is owned by Chuck Thompson, former driver of Miss Pepsi.

Ron Northey, too slow for the American League's "go-go" Chicago White Sox, is "back home" again just doing what comes naturally to keep the Philadelphia Phillies on the move in the National League race.

The husky, balding, 37-year-old slugger, in a Phillies uniform for the first time in 10 years, walked a game-winning two-run homer in last night's 8-5 victory over Cincinnati—coming in a pinch-hit role only hours after being picked up from the White Sox on waivers.

Northey's shot, his first home run of the year, hoisted the Phils within one percentage point of third-place Brooklyn and kept Philadelphia within 2½ games of first-place Milwaukee.

The Braves defeated Pittsburgh 5-2 but saw their lead shaved to a mere two percentage points over St. Louis as the Cardinals soaked the New York Giants, 7-3, on Joe Cunningham's pinch-hit grand-slam homer in the ninth.

The Dodgers split a pair with the Chicago Cubs, losing 4-3 after a 1-0 victory to fall 2½ games behind.

In the American League, where the first-place New York Yankees have been forced to fight for their "run-away," Dick Donovan tossed a three-hitter to beat Washington 7-1 and keep the second-place White Sox within three games of the top. The Yankees whipped Kansas City 10-4.

Boston smacked Detroit 4-0 on the four-singles pitching of veteran Bob Fotherfield, and Cleveland replaced the Tigers in fourth place with a 6-0 decision over Baltimore behind the three-hit pitching of Johnny Gray, back in the majors for the first time since 1935.

Northey capped a three-run eighth inning for the Phils with his sock off losing reliever Hersh Freeman. Stan Lopata had opened the rally with a homer off starter Joe Nuxhall after the Redlegs had fashioned a 5-3 lead on homers by Frank Robinson, Smokey Burgess and Don Hoak. Bob Miller won it in relief.

Lew Burdette tossed a five-hitter for the Braves. The veteran right-hander gave up a home run and sacrifice fly to Gene Freese while the Braves scored three unearned runs to hand Art Swanson the defeat.

The Cards, junking a 3-0 Giant lead for their fourth in a row, loaded the bases on walks to Don Blasingame, Stan Musial and Wally Moon ahead of Cunningham's payoff smack off Ruben Gomez, now 11-9.

Blasingame, 3-for-4, drove in a run and scored the tying marker after Moon, hitting in his 16th consecutive game, had paired doubles with Del Ennis for the first St. Louis run. Larry Jackson won his 12th in relief.

An eighth-inning homer by Bob Speake did it for the Cubs, although Dave Hillman needed relief help to win it after Andy Amoros homered in the ninth. Don Newcombe lost it for a 9-9 mark. A fourth-inning sacrifice fly by Carl sen batted in three Sox runs with his 14th homer and a single as Frank Lary lost his 14th. Ted Williams went 3-for-4 to push his league-leading bat average to .384.

Gray, a 29-year-old right-hander recalled from San Diego Sunday, hadn't worked a big league game since starting five with the A's two years ago. He nursed a 1-0 lead with a one-hitter for eight innings. The Tribe then scored five in the ninth as Billy Loes lost his sixth.

Yogi Berra, again wearing specs shook a slump with his 17th home run and three singles for four runs batted in. Whitey Ford won his sixth with a 13-hitter that was good enough for his first complete game since opening day.

Eisenhower Attends Tuesday Night Game

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower munched peanuts, sipped a soft drink and watched like any other fan Tuesday night as his home team, the Washington Senators, took a 7-1 clobbering from the Chicago White Sox.

The President, a summer bachelor this week while his wife is in Denver, took a party of friends and staff members with him to Griffith Stadium — his second visit to the ball park this year.

Furillo beat Moe Drabowsky in the opener as the Brooks cut down two Cub runners at the plate.

Larry Doby and Minnie Minoso each hit a pair of home runs for the White Sox.

Porterfield pitched his first shut-out since July 17, 1956. Jackie Jensen
