Soon after they returned to Glendale, Mrs. Armstrong received a phone call saying the son of the Nichters, Steven, 4, had been hurt when he fell under a tractor his father was driving. Both Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong also drove recently to Ashland to visit his sister, Mrs. Clara Main. A brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Armstrong of Everett, Wash., were visiting the Mains, and they returned to Glendale with the Armstrongs. The two brothers went on to Eugene to the home of another brother. The Everett couple remained there. Returning with the Glendale couple was a niece, Dorothy Main.

Sen. Kennedy Labeled Presidential Calibre

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) says Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.) "definitely has presidential potentials" for 1960.
In an interview recorded for radio broadcast Sunday in Los Angeles, McClellan recalled that the Arkansas delegation supported Kennedy for the Democratic vice presidential nomination in 1956.
"I think they would do so again," he said. "I think they would support him for president next time. Of course, I can't foresee what the situation will be in 1960. But he's highly regarded. He definitely has presidential potentials."

Church Activities

Officers Take Church Posts At Sutherlin

By MRS. BRITTAIN SLACK

An impressive installation service for new officers of the Sutherlin Women's Fellowship of the Christian Church in Sutherlin highlighted the last meeting.
Officers installed were: Ada Abene, president; Mary Kribs, vice president; Ardyss Allen, secretary-treasurer; Dorothy West, work chairman; Dorothy Warren, cheer chairman; and Helen St. John, hostess.
During the afternoon, Mrs. Kribs told of an experience of some missionary friends in Africa.
At the business meeting, Dorothy West told of plans for future work and Mrs. Kribs outlined plans for "God's Cupboard." This will be a large cupboard to be built in the east room of the church. It will be filled with food, clothing and all kinds of household supplies for use when anyone in the community needs help. Helen St. John was appointed to see about material for the cupboard.
It was decided by the group that the regular meeting dates in the future would be on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month. Bertha Sanders was appointed to be the representative of the CWF on the missionary and benevolent committee of the church.
During the day, the ladies worked on dish towels and quilt blocks. Naomi Murdoch and Edna Longbrake will be hostesses for the Aug. 8 meeting.

Way Of Life Program Discontinued, Hodges Enters Divinity School

The Rev. Lynn Hodges, who conducted the "Way of Life" broadcast over KRRR in Roseburg for a number of years, has discontinued the program.
With his family he will move to Berkeley, Calif., this month where he will enroll in the University of California to obtain his doctorate degree. He will also study at the Berkeley Baptist Divinity School. The Rev. Mr. Hodges has resigned the pastorate of the Community Baptist Church, Topeka, Kan., which he established in 1952. Believing there is an acute shortage of well trained evangelical leaders in our colleges and graduate schools, he decided to enter that phase of the Christian ministry.
He completed his elementary and high school education in the Lookingsglass schools where he lived for a number of years with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hodges. The parents have now left Roseburg and are making their home in Eugene near another son, Glen and family, reports correspondent Hazel Marsh.

The Rev. Albert E. Render is now in charge of services at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Spirit in Sutherlin.
Prior to coming to Sutherlin, the Rev. Mr. Render was vicar of St. John's Church at Toledo. He was born in England and moved to Canada thirty-three years ago, and is a graduate of Emmanuel College, Saskatoon. Ordained to the priesthood in Canada, he served the Canadian Church for several years, then moved to Montana, serving six and a half years before coming to Oregon.
He is married and has two children, a daughter, Twyla, and a son, Loren. They have moved into the vicarage adjoining the church in Sutherlin. He will be associated with the Rev. Alfred S. Tyson, rector of St. George's Episcopal Church in Roseburg.
