after getting mauled by the league-leading Wenatchee Chiefs. The Emeralds, four games out of first, host the last-place Tri-City Braves in a four-game series getting under way Friday night, with high hopes of doing better against the Tribe than third-place Salem did.

Wenatchee won the deciding game in the three-game set with the Emeralds Thursday night, using a six-run sixth inning to take a 9-7 decision.

The Braves, after winning two straight from the Senators, lost 2-1 Thursday night. The Yakima Bears and the Lewiston Braves played to an 11-inning, 5-5 deadlock in a game called because of a league curfew.

The Chiefs sent 11 men to the plate in the sixth inning. The parade of runs came across on two walks, a hit batsman, three singles, Louis Days' two-run triple and a double by Scotty Griesheimer, who had a solo homer earlier in the contest.

Vern Kindsfather, the ex-Coast Leaguer, had the upper hand all the way for Salem as he four-hit the Braves. The Senators parlayed three singles and two errors into their two runs in the second frame. An error and Danny Carr's double produced Tri-City's lone run in the ninth.

PITCHING
Rus Kemmerer, Senators—Shut out the Yankees for eight innings on five singles and wound up with a 6-1, seven-hit victory.

BATTING
Earl Torgerson, White Sox—Drove in five runs with two home runs, a double and a sacrifice fly in 7-4 victory over Athletics.

Milwaukee Finds Daylight In National League Race; Cincy, Cards Beaten Again

lure the Milwaukee Braves into a false feeling of security? Any way you look at it, the scramble suddenly has opened up and the Braves are on top with a "whopping" 2 1/2-game lead with the "hopping" of the season. They made it as Cincinnati rolled over again, 5-3, yesterday and the seventh-place Chicago Cubs bopped the second-place St. Louis Cardinals 4-3 for a three-game sweep.

Third-place Brooklyn is five games back, skidding with a 12-3 clobbering from the New York Giants. Cincinnati and Philadelphia now are tied for fourth, seven games behind, after the Phils defeated Pittsburgh 6-3 while the Redlegs lost for the 11th time in 12 games with Milwaukee this season.

Brave, Cards To Play
If this is the breakup in the NL log jam, the Braves should knock by Sunday night—after a three-game set at St. Louis.

In the American League, Washington made it two in a row, over the Yankees 6-1 and trimmed the New York lead to five games as Chicago's second-place White Sox defeated Kansas City 7-4.

Riddle Post 9744 Of VFW Meets In Roseburg Tonight

By ERMA BEST
There will be a meeting of Riddle Veterans of Foreign Wars Sunday at the Roseburg Veterans hall at 1 p.m., according to John Angland, district commander of District 12. The auxiliary is also included in this meeting.

Post 9744 will meet tonight at 8 p.m. at the veterans grounds. All overseas veterans are invited to the meeting.

Missionaries Visit
Recent visitors at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Conrad Rhoads were the former's brother-in-law, Rev. Arthur Sanford, and family. They were en route from San Francisco, Calif., to Spokane, Wash., to visit other members of their family after an absence of four years spent in missionary work in India. Mrs. Rhoads' sister Mrs. Leo Bernick and children were also guests at the Rhoads home before leaving for their home in Burlington, Wash.

Giants, All-Stars Slated On Gridiron

CHICAGO (AP)—Tonight's 24th annual All-Star Football Game pits the slashing running attack of the New York Giants against the untested passing offense of the collegians.

The Giants, National Football League champions, are favored over the All-Stars by 10 points in the season's first big gridiron encounter.

The game will be televised by ABC at 8:30 p.m. EST.

This is an enthusiastic bunch of collegians who have been working out under Coach Carly Lambear. Never has an All-Star squad boasted such top-flight passers as John Brodie of Stanford, Lenzie Dawson of Purdue, Jim Harris of Oklahoma and Paul Horne of Notre Dame. Since the Giants' line is big and tough—and led the NFL defensively last season—it seems only logical for the collegians to pin all their hopes on passing.

All-Stars also have some excellent pass catchers in Ron Kramer and Tom Maentz of Michigan, Brad Bomba of Indiana and Lamar Lundy of Purdue.

Many Rattlesnakes Killed Near Curtin

By MRS. RUBY MEACHAM
Five rattlesnakes have been killed at the foot of Ward's Butte Lookout near Curtin. The largest, killed by Erwin Guion, had eleven rattles and one button and measured 41 1/2 inches.

Gene Meacham killed one with ten rattles, Dorothy Goins and Mike Booher killed one with ten rattles, also and Dorothy Meacham, who is lookout, killed two snakes, one with eight rattles and one with six. Straubs also killed two snakes below the butte making a total of seven killed near there.

Park System To Be Expanded

PORTLAND (AP)—Expansion of Oregon's park system was authorized at a meeting of the State Highway Commission here Thursday.

The commission approved overnight facilities in Sunset Bay, Beverly Beach and Tualatin state parks, to cost an estimated $174,000. Similar facilities to be included in the 1958 budget were approved for Fort Stevens, Honeyman and Delake state parks. This work would cost $157,000.

Sam Snead Leading In Tam O'Shanter

CHICAGO (AP)—The locker room banter at Tam O'Shanter golf club went this way today as the best 100 pros in the country prepared for the second round of the $101,200 "World" golf championship:

"To have Sam Snead heading down your back is bad enough. But to have the guy in front—oh, man!"

Snead, 45, is supposed to be the richest golfer in the world. He swung into the second round of his biggest treasure hunt with a one-stroke lead.

Training Hastened
SEATTLE (AP)—Olympic champion Pete Rademacher stepped up his training pace a notch Friday as heavyweight titlist Floyd Patterson headed west to start workouts for their Aug. 22 bout in Seattle.

Rademacher had another heavy schedule Friday after a workout Thursday that included three rounds with sparring partners, two of shadow boxing, four rounds at the punching bags and four miles on the road.

Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson has fought twice in Chicago and both bouts ended in the fifth round.

Syracuse's 7-1 football record during 1955 was the best for the Orange school since 1823 when the team posted an 8-1 mark.

Dartmouth basketball star Dave Carruthers set a record for Haverford, Pa., high by scoring 505 points during the 1953-54 season.
