

Garden Valley Minister Plans Language, Missionary Study

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER

Rev. John B. Ellingson of the Garden Valley Community Church has taken a leave of absence from his church for a year.

He left this week for Long Beach, Calif., to refresh his study of the Norwegian language and prepare himself to be a missionary in Norway, his native country.

During his absence his wife, Rev. Ruby Ellingson, who is also an ordained minister, will assume his pastorate duties. The Community church held a farewell weiner roast in his honor at Singleton Park before he left, and over fifty members and friends attended.

Move To Reno

Mrs. Paul Paulson and Barbara have moved to Reno, Nev. She was associated with the local Veterans Hospital as a nurse and has transferred to the Veterans Hospital in Reno. Mrs. Paulson has sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and five children of The Dalles, who have already moved in.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Youngren, Klamath Falls, were here to visit Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Walters. While here they attended a meeting of the Riverside Grange.

Naomi Foster, Vernonia, returned with Rev. and Mrs. John B. Ellingson and Janice Foster for a visit. Sharon Madson is spending 10

Army Man Graduates From Ordnance School

Army Pvt. Fredrick E. Moan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick A. Moan of South Myrtle Route, Myrtle Creek, recently was graduated from the metal-working course at the Ordnance School, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

The 23-year-old soldier attended Myrtle Creek High School. His wife, Opal, lives in Aberdeen. He entered the Army last February and completed basic combat training at Ft. Lewis, Wash. The eight-week ordnance course trained Moan to maintain and operate metal working machinery and related shop equipment.
