For the newly weds, for the established home . . . a better buy will be hard to find. Just imagine a whole living room full of furniture, eight pieces, and costing less than $200. The sofa is a dual purpose piece of furniture. By day a handsome sofa and at night one of the most comfortable beds you could ever find. And thanks to famous Biltwell construction, the modern sitting and sleeping comfort will last for years. You get the same careful attention to style and easy comfort in the smart matching platform rocker. The tables are matched to harmonize with the styling of the sofa and rocker while the lamps give you that added touch you will need to complete one of the most handsome room groupings ever offered. Come in and select your favorite color and cover from our stocks today.
