Bob Keegan Walks Only Two In Tilt

CHICAGO — Everything seems to come late for Bob Keegan, 36-year-old Chicago White Sox pitcher who Tuesday night twirled a 6-0 no-hit victory over the Washington Senators.

Keegan, who didn't break into the majors until he was 31, doesn't "mind waiting."

"You just have to hang in there and the breaks will come your way," said Bob after pitching his masterpiece against the Senators, who had beaten the Sox 5-4 in the first game of a two-night double-header.

Unlike most pitchers who deny knowledge of working on no-hitters, Keegan said after the game: "I know I had a no-hitter going from the first inning on—the only trouble was pitching it."

The big right-hander from Rochester, N.Y., first donned a major league uniform with the Sox in 1953 and fashioned a 7-5 record. He had a 16-9 mark in 1954 but slumped into comparative mediocrity until his no-hitter.

He faced only 28 batters, walked 2 and struck out 1 in pitching the only no-hitter of the major league season. He had a perfect game until two were out in the fifth when he walked Lou Berberet after an 0-2 count.

"I guess I was too cautious," he said. "Believe me, I wanted the no-hitter badly. My big trouble was reminding myself to forget about the no-hitter and concentrate on getting the ball where I should be getting it."

Keegan issued another walk in the seventh but that was wiped out by a double play launched by the pitcher himself.

Shrine Squads Collect Polish

PORTLAND — Heavy scrimmages are ended for the State and Metropolitan teams that will meet here Saturday night in the Shrine All-Star football game.

Only polishing drills will be held before the game gets underway in Multnomah Stadium here.

The teams may be without the services of some of their stand-out players.

The state squad has three on the injured list: McMinnville halfback Jack Tempie, Tillamook fullback Al Trotter and Marshfield guard Dale Cardwell.

Coach Al Spiegelberg said only Trotter may be able to play.

But despite the injuries, Spiegelberg had good reason to be happy with some of the other aspects of his squad.

In the final heavy drill Tuesday Gary Gill, a 155-pound back from Albany, wheeled through the defensive team for a 30-yard run.

Halfback Joe Shaak of the Metro squad also was sidelined with an injury Tuesday, and coach Joe Harper said he didn't know whether the Lincoln High player would recover in time for the game.

ional League race.

The Man, who last won the title in 1952 for a three-year run at the top, was 3-for-7, including a pair of home runs, as the Cards swept a two-night pair at New York with 4-3 and 3-2 victories.

That burst added six points to Musial's average and put him at .339 while his pursuers sagged.

The Giants' Willie Mays was 2-for-7 for .287. Pittsburgh's Dick Groat was 0-for-4 for .327. Milwaukee's Hank Aaron was 1-for-4, slipping to .326, and Cincinnati's Frank Robinson was 2-for-11 for .323.

Aaron Bats In Run

While Aaron's slump continued, the defending champ counted an insurance run with his long single as the Braves scored twice in the ninth and beat Pittsburgh 3-1. That left Milwaukee six games ahead of St. Louis.

Third-place Brooklyn, seven games back, took two from the Cincinnati Redlegs, winning 11-5 and 6-5, in 12 innings. The Chicago Cubs split a pair at Philadelphia, winning 5-2 after a 2-1, 10-inning defeat.

In the American, Bob Keegan became the first Chicago pitcher to gain a no-hitter in 20 years, beating Washington 6-0 after the Senators had taken the first game of the two-night 5-4.

Yankees Go Scoreless

The New York Yankees were shut out for only the second time this season, 3-0 at Kansas City despite Bob Turley's two-hitter.

The AL bat race saw the leaders go hitless. Boston's Ted Williams stands at .390 after going 0-for-2 in a 5-4 Cleveland victory. Yankee Mickey Vernon, 0-for-4, is at .381.

Detroit defeated Baltimore 5-1 in the other AL games.

Musial's 28th homer, with a man on, hauled the Cards from behind in the nightcap and they then nailed it in the ninth against Johnny Antonelli as Walker Cooper tripled and Don Hasingame singled. Bonus kid Von McDaniel won it.

Musial and Ken Boyer homered to get the Cards started in the opener, but it was Eddie Kasco's first major league home run that wrapped it up. It came with a man on off losing reliever Jim Constance. Sam Jones won his 10th.

The Braves were held to three hits and an unearned run for eight innings by Vern Law, then went to work on reliever Luis Arroyo and Elroy Face as Red Schoendienst singled and scored the clincher on Ed Mathews' triple. Warren Spahn won his 15th with a seven-hitter.

Duke Snider, who had hit a three-run homer to open a five-run third in the opener, socked his 33rd home run for the Dodgers' nightcap clincher.

Carole Jo Nabs Simple Victory In Women's Am

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Top-ranking veterans were much in evidence Wednesday but 14-year teenagers — all with national junior titles in the showcase — held the limelight in the third round of the National Women's Amateur golf championship.

Judy Eller, 16, met Jo Anne Gunderson, 18, of Seattle, who matched par 38-36-74 on the 6,369-yard layout. Judy, from Old Hickory, Tenn., is the junior champ. Jo Anne held the title last year.

The 1955 national junior queen, Carole Jo Kabler of Sutherlin, Ore., was one under par in swamping Sue Finkbeiner of Toledo, 8 and 7. Carole's third round opponent was Mrs. John Cann of Fairfax, Calif.

Jo Anne was a par shooter as she clipped Eugene Minch of Sacramento, 5 and 3.

Eugene Woman Loses

Barbara Romack Porter, the 1954 national titleholder from Sacramento, went one over in beating Elaine Porritt of Eugene, Ore. 4 and 3. The 1955 champ, Pat Lesser of Seattle, moved into the third round without firing a shot. She got a first round bye and a second round default.

Other results included:

Ann Quast, Marysville, Wash., def. Mrs. Donald Weiss, Flint, Mich., 8 and 7.

Polly Riley, Fort Worth, Tex., def. Grace DeMoss, Corvallis, Ore., 1 up.

Sue DeVoe, Medford, Ore., def. Leila Fisher, La Jolla, Calif., 4 and 3.

Mrs. Robert Ihanfeldt, Seattle, def. Barbara Williams, Richmond, Calif., 1 up.

Mrs. Ruth Miller, Santa Maria, Calif., def. Shirley Siegmund, Eugene, Ore., 3 and 2.

West Shrine Team Running In Wing-T

PENDELTON — The West team opened contact drills Tuesday with the complicated unbalanced wing-T it will use in the East-West Shrine Class B football here Aug. 31.

Coast Tom Van Etten said he plans 1 1/2-hour drills twice a day to get his 24-player squad into condition for the sixth annual game.

In the past six years, the games have netted $12,000 for the Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children in Portland.

Van Etten said that good performances were turned in Tuesday by Gary Rotherberger, a Clatskanie fullback; Edwin Garrison, a Nehalem end; and Guy Urbach, a Neahoe tackle.

The East squad is practicing at La Grande.

Reedsport All-Stars Drill Hard

DOUGLAS COUNTY ENTRANTS in the 10th annual Shriners hospital all-star football game scheduled for Saturday night in Portland's Multnomah Stadium help each other round into shape. Allen Leach, Reedsport back helps Roy Burns, also of Reedsport get his legs into shape in a pre-practice drill. They will play for the state all-stars against the team of metropolitan all-stars.

Larry Bissonette Leading Hitter Of Lockwood Squad

With the American Legion junior baseball season a thing of the past, final averages on team play show that the injured Larry Bissonette led the team at the plate this summer.

Bissonette was injured in the first playoff series against North Bend and was lost to the team for the remainder of the season.

Bissonette had a healthy 405 batting average at the plate on 30 hits in 74 times at bat, besides leading the team in runs scored with 20. Larry batted in the lead-off slot during the time that he played and was on base better than 50 per cent of the time.

Next in line at the plate was Ron Beamer with a .351 average at the plate on 33 hits in 94 times at bat. Beamer scored 28 runs and led the team in runs batted in with 36. Ron proved to be the clutch man in the lineup most of the year.

Coming strong at the end of the year was catcher Byron Baker, who ended the season with a .321 batting average on 26 hits in 81 times at the plate. Baker was also the top Roseburg batter in the playoffs against Portland with a .355 average. He also scored 20 runs on the season.

Mac McClellan, Bill Eswine and Wayne Kennaday, after being around the .300 mark most of the year, dropped far down in their averages during the playoffs and ended the year deep in the averages.

Allen Smith, after hitting a high 250 before the playoffs, dropped to a .207 batting average, while Don Wells and Mike Hatfield also dropped several points to hover around the .200 mark at the end.

In the pitching averages on the year, Dick Meredith and John Livingston ended with perfect 1.000 marks as Meredith won two games without a loss and Livingstone one without a defeat. Eswine lost his first game of the season against Portland to run his record to 7-1, while Beamer also lost one game of the Portland series to give him a record of 8-2.

Beamer was the workhorse, pitching in 85 innings while giving up the most hits (51) and the most runs (32). Smith gave up 29 runs in the 51 innings that he worked

Sugar Ray Calls Off Title Go With Basilio In Fight With IBC; $500,000 At Stake

NEW YORK — Middleweight champion Ray Robinson made ring history when he proved that sometimes the old champions do come back and win. Now he has the fight world wondering whether he will make history of another kind by tossing away half a million dollars.

That is about what it will cost him if he sticks to his decision calling off his Sept. 23 title defense against welterweight ruler Carmen Basilio at Yankee Stadium. Ray says the fight is off. The International Boxing Club insists it is still on.

The feeling on Broadway is that Sugar Ray won't let that 500 grand get away from him.

Robinson tossed his big blockbuster into the million dollar fight Tuesday. He called The Associated Press and said his fight with Basilio was off because of a disagreement with President James D. Norris of the IBC over what company should handle the theater telecast. Furthermore Robinson said he was going to sue the IBC "for plenty" for breach of contract.

The champ demanded that Teleprompter handle the closed circuit telecast because he claims he can get a better deal. Ray brought that company into the picture in a stormy session with Norris Tuesday. The IBC boss said he has signed with Theater Network Television, Inc., and has no intention of changing.

Basilio, the man in the middle, said, "If this is another of Robinson's prepared runouts, then I think he must be scared stiff. He first signed and has been behaving hard here at Alexandria Bay and I won't let any of his spouting off interrupt my training sessions."

Norris said he was flabbergasted by Robinson's action.

"I can't understand that man," said Norris. "I've bent over backwards to make this fight. He stands to make a half million dollars conservatively and we've arranged it legally for him to spread the money over a three-year period to lighten his tax load. As far as we're concerned the fight is still on until the New York Athletic Commission notifies us that it isn't. Robinson signed commission contracts on July 31 and those contracts give us the exclusive right to handle the television deal. And believe me, the deal we have with TNT is better all around than what he brought up."
