SPEND VACATION HERE — Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. Josse and sons, Peter Kay, 13, and Kim Frederick, 10, and daughter, Christina Anne, who will be 6 in September, of Ukiah, Calif., spent their two weeks vacation here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Josse, and his aunt, Mrs. Velle Broadway. They are former residents of this city. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

HERE FROM KOREA — Dr. and Mrs. Edward Adams, above, are interesting visitors in Roseburg from Seoul, Korea, where they have resided for the last 40 years and are now on a year's leave of absence to do special work in New York City, before returning to Korea. They are spending the month of August here with their son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. John E. Adams, and sons, on SE Main Street. John E. Adams is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, and his father was guest speaker at the morning's services last Sunday. Even during the war years in Korea, Dr. Adams remained in Seoul to carry on his work. Mrs. Adams was evacuated with other American women and children to Tokyo and spent two years there working in the UN blood bank and doing necessary work on behalf of the Koreans. They spent several days last week in Santa Maria, Calif., visiting friends they formerly worked with in Korea. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Mission Rally And Picnic Successful Affair Sunday

The Mission Rally and Sunday School picnic of St. Paul's Lutheran Church was held at the Roseburg Rod and Gun Club picnic grounds Sunday and proved a most enjoyable and successful affair.

More than 120 enjoyed the open-air service conducted by Pastor Emil Hellwege, of Sutherlin, at 10:30 a.m. The offerings for the day went to missions.

At noon a sumptuous picnic luncheon was served by the Ladies Aid members with Mrs. Donald Stapleton as general chairman. In the afternoon horseshoes, softball and other games and races were enjoyed.

Mrs. Lockwood Hostess At Luncheon Monday

Mrs. Fred Lockwood entertained her bridge foursome at a charming luncheon Monday at her attractive home on SE Overlook Avenue in compliment to Mrs. Fred Schwartz on her birthday.

Covers were placed at a beautifully appointed table for Mrs. Schwartz, Mrs. B. D. Coen, Mrs. C. B. Wade and the hostess, Mrs. Lockwood. High score for the afternoon was won by the guest of honor. Beautiful birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. Schwartz.

Mrs. Laws Entertains Club At Salad-Luncheon

SWIMMING PARTY ENJOYED AT GLENDALE

Forty friends gathered at Glendale for a swimming party given at their home Wednesday by Douglas, Steven and Phillip Dollar. After an afternoon spent in the pool, the boys enjoyed delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Douglas Dollar.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT RANKIN PEIL, above, were married in a lovely garden wedding ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peil, in Glendale Saturday afternoon, Aug. 10. The bride, Juanita Evelyn Stovall, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Stovall of Glendale. Dr. J. K. Howard of Glendale officiated at the impressive double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. (Picture by Ray Shaeffer)

The bride's attendants were Miss Barbara Estes, maid of honor, and her sister, Miss Dorothy Stovall, bridesmaid. Charles Peil of Grants Pass, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Gary Stevens was also an attendant. The flower girl was Kathy Peil, 6, daughter of the bride.

The bride wore a white satin ballerina-length gown and a short veil. Her full skirt was topped by a long pointed bodice and a yoke of white lace, the waistline accented by a large bow in the back. She wore mits of the lace matching that of the yoke. Her accessories included a pearl choker and a large bouquet of white daisies in a circle of pink roses, which was bound with blue streamers onto a white ribbon.

Miss Estes wore an embroidered white nylon ballerina-length dress with a blue satin cummerbund above the full skirt. A white Juliet cap and white slippers completed her costume. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and green ferns tied with white ribbon. Miss Stovall wore a pink satin ballerina-length dress styled with a long pointed bodice and a large bow at the back over a full skirt. Her bouquet was of pink roses and green ferns and was tied with a white ribbon.

The flower girl wore a ballerina-length dress with a dotted swiss dress with a gray nylon floral. She carried a basket of pink rose petals.

Mrs. Stovall, mother of the bride, was dressed in a two-piece blue cotton suit with pink accessories. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Peil, wore a gray nylon floral print. Both mothers had corsages of white carnations.

The place chosen for the wedding ceremony was decorated with bouquets of variegated gladioli and cedar boughs. Bouquets of variegated gladioli were also placed on either side of the doorway through which the bridal party made its entrance.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room of the Peil home.

The couple cut a three-tiered white wedding cake, decorated with white garlands, blue flowers and silver leaves. Bride and bridegroom figurines against a pink screen decorated with white flowers stood on a white filigree stand on top of the cake. The cake was set on a lovely plastic and lace covered mat. The serving table was fluted by a beautiful floor-length cloth of Irish linen which had been longed to the bridegroom's great-grandmother and which is over 100 years old. Cake was served by Miss Barbara Estes, while Mrs. Charles Peil, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served the fruit punch.

Mrs. Bill Morrow, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the silver coffee service.

After the reception the newlyweds left for their honeymoon which they spent at Union Creek near Crater Lake. They are now at home in Medford at 1315 Locust.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Ray Shaeffer of Prospect, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stovall and family of Prineville and a Charles R. Peil and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Mallory of Grants Pass.

The bride has been a resident of Glendale for the past four years. She was high school carnival queen while a student at Glendale High School from which she was graduated in 1956. Following graduation she took dental nurse training in California and was employed in Medford.

The bridegroom was born in Glendale and attended Glendale schools until joining the U.S. Coast Guard. He served for four years, finishing high school while in the service and was discharged a year ago. He is now working in Medford as an insurance agent, planning to re-enter Southern Oregon College which he attended for two terms last year.

Wedding Of Interest To Many Roseburgers

A wedding of interest to many in the Roseburg area was that of Mrs. Nellie Myers of this city to Earl Siples of Cypress, Calif. The quiet ceremony was performed July 19 at 8 p.m. at the Chapel De San Antonio at Anaheim, Calif., the Rev. Roland W. Anderson officiating at the single ring service.

The bride wore rose-colored lace with white accessories and a lavender orchid corsage. Her honor attendant wore a blue-dotted white frock with white accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

Attending the couple were the bridegroom's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Siples of Cypress, and Henry Fox of Long Beach, Calif., a business associate Mr. Siples.

The new Mrs. Siples is well-known in Roseburg and surrounding areas, having lived here for many years. Before her marriage she was employed by School District 4. Mr. Siples has many business interests including a chicken ranch in Cypress which is managed by his son.

Mr. and Mrs. Siples plan to make their home in Yucca Valley, following several months traveling in California and Oregon.
