Jaycees Revive Swim Meet; Bids Sent Out To 14 Cities

Event Approved By AAU Group

After two years' absence from the scene, the Southern Oregon Swimming meet will again be sponsored this year by the Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce Sept. 7.

The meet, scheduled to be held in the municipal swimming pool, will not be an AAU-sanctioned affair, according to meet director Bill Moats.

Invitations have been sent to 14 towns of the state and hopes are for a top notch swim meet, Moats said. Towns invited are Lebanon, Bend, Corvallis, Sweet Home, Albany, Eugene, Central Point, Ashland, Klamath Falls, Drain, Coos Bay, North Bend and Reedsport.

20 Events Planned

More than 20 events are being planned for the meet that is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m., and if the first three meets are any indication of the number of entries, there will be over 100 participants.

Also on the schedule for the evening will be a water ballet that is being worked up by Don Jacklin, pool manager, and Mary Ann Backen. Events in the meet will be the freestyle of both 60 and 80 yards, breaststroke, backstroke, medleys, freestyle relay, diving and a special event of 40-yards freestyle for the younger age group.

Meets were started in 1952 under the direction of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and continued until 1954, when they were discontinued. Hopes of the Chamber members are big for this year's meet.

Roseburg entrants in the meet are not yet known, but pool manager Jacklin has announced that there will be a full team.

Church Of God Reaches Finals Of YMCA Loop

Church of God moved into the finals of the YMCA Church League softball tournament with a 12-4 win over Nazarene in a game played on the Riverside School diamond Tuesday night.

For the winners, it was a pair of three-run innings and three two-run innings that did all the damage, as winning pitcher Wayne Hutchins, even though allowing 10 hits, proved to be tough in the clinches and shut out Nazarene in every inning but the fourth.

Church of God collected 13 hits off losing pitcher Steiner, but only one of those was for extra bases, that one was a double in the second inning by Salisbury. This was the only extra hit of the game for either side among the 23 hits allowed.

Four straight singles in the fourth inning for the Nazarenes gave them their four runs, but Church of God had already pushed across eight runs and were never in serious trouble.

For the losing Nazarene team, both Wilks and Oberg collected three hits in three trips to the plate to lead their team at bat, while Hutchins, with 3-4, and Miller, with 3-5, led Church of God in batting.

The win for Church of God puts it in the finals of the tourney against North Roseburg Thursday night at Finley Field, starting at 6 p.m.

The heavy drills ended Tuesday night for the East and West teams that will meet Saturday in Pendleton in the annual Shrine Class B All-Star football game.

At Pendleton, head coach Tom Van Etten said his West team will spend the rest of the week polishing offensive and defensive formations, with no more contact drills.

East coach Franz Haun at La Grande said his 24-man squad will work on a running attack, with a minimum of blocking and tackling.

Haun said he has two complete backfield units that have been working on a split-T attack.

Van Etten Tuesday named his probable starting backfield, listing quarterback LeRoy Joyner of Monroe, halfbacks Gary Berg of Lowell and Duane Kilness of Corbett and fullback Dan Likens of Monroe.

Proceeds from the game go to the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children in Portland.

Eddie Basinski, for years the joy of Portland baseball fans, slammed a single to left Tuesday night that drove in the winning run for Seattle. It was a 2-1 loss for Portland.

Portland — now a solid 36 games behind in the Pacific Coast League baseball standings — scored its run in the first. Solly Drake bunted for a single, then went to third when Casey Wise's grounder went through second for an error. Luis Marquez singled Drake home.

In the second Seattle tied it. Hal Bevan doubled and scored on Ed Winceniak's bobble of a grounder.

Then came Basinski's single in the fifth which scored Marion Fricano who had singled and stolen second.

Sacramento sent a San Francisco pitcher to the cleaners Tuesday night but still couldn't win its game with the Pacific Coast League leaders. You don't win ball games for trips to the dry cleaners.

Bob Chakales pitched a brilliant 5-0, three-hit victory over the Solons but needed two pairs of pants to do it. Sacramento Manager Tommy Heath protested Chakales was rubbing a foreign substance off his pants onto the ball and umpires made the pitcher put on a clean pair in the fifth inning.

Second-place Vancouver fell five games off the pace by losing a doubleheader 8-5 and 6-1 to Los Angeles. Third - place Hollywood went two games ahead of San Diego, beating the Padres 9-6, and Seattle edged last-place Portland 2-1.

A meeting will be held at the bowling alleys Friday night at 7 p.m. especially for members and teams of the City League and the Major Classic. Both leagues need more teams to fill their rosters and anybody interested in bowling on either Monday or Friday nights is invited to attend.

It was the first time in the two years the boxing magazine has been releasing monthly ratings that one fighter has been awarded the honor for two successive months.

The 22-year-old champion captured the July award for his 10th round TKO of Hurricane Jackson on July 29. He received the August prize for his sixth round destruction of Olympic Champion Pete Rademacher at Seattle, Aug. 22.
