White Sox Done In As Yanks Sweep Series; Slaughter Hits Home Run For 2-1 Victory

The go-go Chicago White Sox are gone.

They put the heat on New York's slumping Yankees and the champs got hot, sweeping a three-game series and regaining a 6½-game American League lead with a 2-1 victory Thursday. Enos Slaughter's 11th-inning home run and five innings of one - hit shutout relief by Whitey Ford did it.

Just 72 hours earlier, the Sox surprisingly were still in the race. They had won six in a row and had their best, righthanders Jim Wilson and Dick Donovan, and southpaw Billy Pierce, rested and ready. The Yankees, their pitching pooped by injuries, had lost five of seven.

Chisox Go On Road

Now the Sox are six games back on the lost side and with 28 games remaining have only eight more left at home. The Yankees have 27 to go, all but nine at home.

The Yankees' magic number now is 22 — any combination of New York victories and Chicago defeats totaling 22 gives the Yankees their third consecutive pennant, eighth in nine years.

The Yankee mop up job was one of three games scheduled in the majors yesterday, all in the AL. Boston swept Detroit in three with a 6-1 finale and Cleveland regained fifth from Baltimore by beating the Orioles 13-4.

Braves Meet Redlegs

In the NL, where first place Milwaukee also has a magic number of 22, the Braves resume play at Cincinnati tonight, with a seven - game lead. Second place Brooklyn is home to New York's Giants. Third place St. Louis is at Chicago.

The big home run, a Yankee trade-mark, and clutch relief pitching swept the White Sox out of contention.

Hank Bauer rapped his 16th home run in the third for the first Yankee hit and then Slaughter's payoff punch beat Donovan, a 15-game winner who went all the way to lose his fourth after winning seven straight.

Mickey Mantle was 2-for-5, both doubles, for the Yankees and kept his bat mark at .373. The leader, Boston's Ted Williams, was 0-for-1, losing a point for a .379 average with four walks after a first-inning ground out.

Asian Flu Said To Be Just Smouldering Along

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Asian influenza is "just smouldering along" in California, the state's advisory committee for influenza reported Thursday.

The committee of top public health officers said three more deaths had occurred in the state—a 23-year-old man in Los Angeles, a teenaged boy in Saratoga and a teenage girl in Oakland—bringing the state's total to nine.

The committee does not recommend hospitalization for this illness, since there is more chance of picking up other communicable diseases in hospitals than at home.

Report Claims Red Spy Wed To Atomic Engineer

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Federal authorities refused to talk Wednesday about a report that a woman spy for the Soviet Union is married to an important engineer at this country's Los Alamos, N. M., atomic installation.

But there were some indications that the story, told by former U. S. counterspy Boris Morros, may be an old one — almost certainly investigated and probably cleared up without publicity in the past.

Morros, recently disclosed to have spied for this country over a 12-year period while supposedly working with the Russians, mentioned the woman last Sunday on CBS' "Face the Nation."

He said he knew of several important persons serving, as a questioner put it, as "agents witting or unwitting of the Soviet spy ring in this country."

"There are two sisters," Morros added. "One sister is married to an important and prominent engineer in Los Alamos."

Spokesmen for the Justice Department, the FBI and the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) all declined comment on Morros' statement, although none appeared surprised by it.

An aide to the House Committee on Un-American Activities said the Los Alamos matter "may well be" mentioned in Morros' Aug. 19 testimony before a closed session of that body.

The aide noted, however, that the transcript of the hearing has not been made public. Asked if the Los Alamos case appeared to be an old one, the committee sources disclaimed any personal knowledge, but said:

"I would suspect that it is."

There is no record of a Los Alamos engineer's wife having been publicly identified with Soviet espionage.

HAYDEN LAKE, Idaho (AP) — A field of 32, including four-time champion Fred Siegel of Spokane, started match play Friday in the Inland Empire Golf Tournament, a four-day grind which ends Labor Day.

Siegel, shooting for his fifth title, shot a low 67 on his qualifying round Thursday but he had to share medalist honors with Ben Erley of Coeur d'Alene and Skip Nagler of Spokane.

Nagler had a chance to take it all with a 20-foot putt on the final hole but he missed and wound up in a tie with the others.

An eight-run outburst in the eighth inning gave Vancouver a 13-5 Pacific Coast League baseball victory over Portland at the Beavers' home field Thursday night.

The Mounties tied a Coast League record in the surge, knocking out three consecutive home runs.

Dick Fiedler, who replaced starter Bob Alexander, was charged with the loss. Darrell Martin, who replaced Fiedler gave up the three homers before he was replaced after seven pitches.

Portland produced a homer too —Luis Marquez' 18th of the season, with two on base in the seventh inning.

Beavers Led Once

The Beavers took a brief lead in the first inning when Solly Drake walked, moved up on one of Wise's three hits, took third on a sacrifice by Marquez and scored on a wild pitch.

Portland got another run in the fifth on singles by Milt Martin and pitcher Alexander and a sacrifice fly by Marquez.

Meanwhile observers pointed out that for a relief pitcher to win 20 games is almost unheard of. But fans could get their ears opened soon if San Francisco's bull-pen ace, Leo Kiely wraps up just one more victory.

Kiely notched victory No. 19 Thursday night as the league-leading Seals beat San Diego 7-5.

Hollywood gained a game on fourth-place San Diego, beating Sacramento 7-2, to move four games ahead of the Padres.

Bilko Misses Homer

Los Angeles beat Seattle 13-5 but the Angels' Steve Bilko did not hit a home run, although he did drive in two runs with a single.

Kiely took over for Seal starter Bill Prout with the bases loaded in the sixth inning and San Francisco leading 4-1. San Diego scored four runs in that inning but in the seventh the Seals scored three. Kiely held the Padres scoreless the rest of the way, allowing only three hits.
