BETROTHAL TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hubbell of Hayhurst Valley, Yoncalla, announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrna Darlene, to Charles LeRoy Vian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vian of Yoncalla. No date has been set for the wedding.

MRS. WRIGHT HOSTESS TO SILVER LOCKS CLUB

The Silver Locks Club of Yoncalla was graciously entertained at a picnic dinner Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Hazel Wright, south of town. A picnic dinner was enjoyed under the large trees. A birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Sheets was cut by Mrs. Ross and served by Mrs. J. N. Sparks, whose birthdays they were celebrating. The next party will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward Kelo, Sept. 17, weather permitting. If the weather is unsettled the party will be held at the Yoncalla Church of Christ.

Those enjoying the day were Mrs. J. N. Sparks, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Earl Brant, Mrs. Charlie Kirkelie, Mrs. Eric Stenseth, Mrs. Ada Thompson, Mrs. Mamie Lake, Mrs. Walter Thorp, Mrs. Tom Wallace, Mrs. Edward Kelo, Mrs. Julian Thiel, Mrs. Mary Shields, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mrs. Ira Vian, Mrs. Tillie Whitman, Mrs. Della Wise, Mrs. Grant Applegate, Mrs. Fred Lee and Mrs. Dan Wright.

Frances Claire Lienes Now Mrs. Lawrence Held

Miss Frances Claire Lienes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lienes of Winston, and Lawrence Anthony Held, son of Mrs. Clara Held and the late Joseph Held of Eugene, were married at a Nuptial Mass celebrated by the Rev. Edmund Hyland Saturday, Aug. 10, at 10:30 a.m., at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Pastel gladioli in baskets and on the altar formed a lovely background for the double ring ceremony.

The bride, on the arm of her father, looked lovely in her floor-length gown of white brocade, made by herself and styled with a flared skirt with six pleats in back cascading downward from a bow. The bodice had a V neck with tulle inset and long sleeves coming to points at the wrists. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls, rhinestones and sequins.

Eleanor Lienes, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore pale blue, fashioned with a V neckline and short sleeves. Bridesmaids Mrs. Robert Lienes of Eugene, sister-in-law of the bride, and Marcella Luke wore gowns of identical design in deep rose and deep blue.

Flower girl Rita Lienes, another sister, wore light pink, styled the same as those worn by the other attendants.

John Sealise of Eugene was best man and ushers were the bridegroom's brother, Robert Lienes, and Harry Hermes, both of Eugene.

A garden reception for family members and friends was held in Winston following the ceremony. Mrs. Harold Griffiths of Castro Valley, Calif., aunt of the bride, served the beautiful tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Gene Cadwalder of Springfield, aunt of the bride, served the coffee and Mrs. Robert Keno poured the punch.

Following a wedding trip to Crater Lake, Clear Lake and scenic points in Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Held are now at home to friends at 2039 Jackson St., Eugene.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and has been employed by Douglas County State Bank. The bridegroom attended Springfield High School and spent four years in the navy. He is presently employed as a forest ranger by the Bureau of Land Management.

THE HELD-LIENING WEDDING PARTY is pictured above following the marriage Aug. 10 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Roseburg, of Frances Claire Lienes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lienes of Roseburg, when she became the bride of Lawrence Anthony Held, son of Mrs. Clara Held and the late Joseph Held of Eugene. MR. AND MRS. MARLOW FULLBRIGHT, above, pose for their wedding picture following their recent marriage. The bride, Lola Highley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Highley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Fullbright, all of Yoncalla. (Picture by Clark's Studio of Cottage Grove.)

Large baskets of pink and white gladioli on either side of the altar, and white snapdragons and pink sweet peas formed a beautiful setting recently for the wedding of Miss Lola Highley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Highley and Marlow Fullbright, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Fullbright, all of Yoncalla. Two large candelabras holding tall white tapers and twined with greenery and sweet peas completed the decorations. The ceremony took place in the Yoncalla Methodist Church, with the Rev. Austin McGhee, pastor of the church, performing the double ring ceremony in the presence of 100 relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a tip-toe length wedding gown, made with white net and Chantilly lace overskirt over white tulle. The bodice was made of the Chantilly lace and was styled with a high neckline, Peter Pan collar and long tight fitted sleeves and was buttoned down the back with four dozen tiny white satin buttons. Her fingertip length veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations centered with a lavender orchid and a shower of feathered carnations and white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Homer Waters of Yoncalla, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a lavender net gown over matching tulle, floor-length, and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. Mrs. Dale Payne, sister of the bride, and Miss Anita Fullbright, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Payne's gown was green net over green tulle, and Miss Fullbright's gown was pink net over pink tulle. Both carried nosegays of pink and white carnations. Little Janelle Payne, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a green net dress over green tulle. All of the attendants' dresses were fashioned identically and were made by the bride, Clayton Payne, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Candelights were Miss Jane Warner and Miss Ann Lasswell. Marvin Highley, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were George Johnson and Rudy Powell.

Mrs. Felix Latham played wedding music as guests were assembling. She also played the traditional wedding marches at the organ and accompanied Wayne Flynn, who sang "Wedding Prayer" and "O Promise Me". Mrs. Betty Newton, sister of the bridegroom, from California, was in charge of the guest book at the reception following the ceremony in the fireplace room of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kirkelie had charge of decorating the reception room. The mantel was banked with pink and white carnations and held a miniature bridal party. The serving table was covered with bouquet of pink and white carnations and tall lighted pink tapers. Mrs. Fern Means, aunt of the bride, served the beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with two large wedding bells, with tiny bells surrounding the base of the cake. The cake was baked and decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kirkelie. Mrs. Doris Means, aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. George Johnson, Miss Anne Lasswell and Miss Jane Warner had charge of the gift table.

Mr. and Mrs. Fullbright left immediately following the reception for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe. The bride chose a white linen suit with pink accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They will make their home in Yoncalla on their return.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Means, grandparents of the bride, from Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harlowe Kitchen and Joy Kitchen of Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Bab Seiber of Milwaukee; Mrs. Rose Ross of Calville, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter, Michael Carter, Kathy O'Malley and Jack Carter, all of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Ken E.
