LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1957

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

TODAY MARKS THE FIRST day of fall and for today's feature page, five Roseburg residents were selected and were asked what fall meant to them.

FALL means football season to Dave Bradley and yell leader queen Susie Short, pictured above left. They are both seniors this year. Susie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Short of this city. The Roseburg Indians can well be proud of their new football uniforms this year. Dave is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bradley of Roseburg.

AND TO JERRY O'BRIEN, center right, fall means LEAVES AND STILL MORE LEAVES to be raked and raked. Jerry is the elder son of Mrs. Eugene O'Brien and the late Mr. O'Brien. He is a senior at Roseburg High School. The busy fall months represent many hours of canning to Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, lower left picture, who is well-known among her friends for her delectable canned fruits, vegetables, jellies and jams. One of the new recipes used by her this year was for fruit cocktail which includes cantaloupe balls and is shown on the tray at the right.

FALL to Miss Elizabeth Randall, top right, means the beginning of the busy school year and the many demands upon her at Roseburg Senior High School, where she so successfully fills the office of Dean of Girls. No matter how much is demanded, Miss Randall remained unruffled and always cooperative and charming. She has been a favorite with the feature page photographer and society editor since they first met her.

IF ANYONE KNOWS better than Glenn Taylor, lower right, where good fishing is found, we haven't found him, for he has fished the Rogue, Coquille, Coos, Umpqua, Siuslaw, Alsea and Siletz rivers, Coos Bay, Winchester Bay, Newport, Depoe Bay and Bellingham Bay and Loon, Diamond, Tachkenitch and Tenmile lakes and all with splendid success. Before retiring, Glenn was fire chief in Roseburg for many years. Right now—you guessed it—it's the fine fall fishing he is interested in.
