

Deanna Schroeder Becomes Mrs. Mickey Stritzke

The First Southern Baptist Church in Roseburg was the scene of a wedding Saturday Sept. 14, when Miss Deanna Elizabeth Schroeder, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Schroeder of Roseburg, became the bride of Elmer (Mickey) Stritzke, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stritzke, Winchester. The Rev. J. T. Howard performed the double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. in the presence of 125 friends and relatives of the couple.

Yellow, green, gold and rust were the colors used throughout the wedding. Two large floor baskets holding marigolds, zinnias and vining maple and the two tall floor candelabra holding white candles, together with flowers in each window formed the church decorations.

Miss Joyce Moore, Madras, played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Ann Smith of Corvallis who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Wedding Prayer" and Miss Patsy Wilhoit who sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore a beautiful in a ballerina-length gown of white lace over taffeta, styled with new princess neckline and three quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She wore clear plastic slippers and carried a white topped with white roses and white satin streamers. She wore her maternal grandmother's pearl necklace, an heirloom of the family.

Miss Myrna Gasner, Myrtle Point, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a ballerina-length gown of sun gold taffeta with new bell skirt. Bridesmaids Miss Marcella Luke, Roseburg, in Neptune green, and Miss Joyce Johnston, Salem, in moss green wore dresses identical in style as that worn by the maid of honor. Rhinestone earrings, velvet ribbon headbands and clear plastic slippers completed their costumes. Their cascade bouquets were gold and rust marigolds with pampas grass.

Don Spencer was best man. Dave Parkhurst and Roger Iverson, cousin of the bride, performed ushering duties and lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

Kris Stritzke and Connie Stritzke, nieces of the bridegroom, in identical dresses of rust taffeta with pink gloves and carrying small white baskets filled with rose petals, were flower girls. Jerry Stritzke, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schroeder chose a white dress with blue polka dots and white accessories. Mrs. Stritzke wore an aqua dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore pink begonia corsages. The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Walter V. Schroeder wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and a pink begonia corsage.

Mrs. Plummer Hostess To Club On Wednesday

Mrs. Earl Plummer graciously entertained her bridge club Wednesday at her attractive home on Winchester Street. White dahlias graced the beautifully appointed table. A 1 p.m. dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. Plummer to Mrs. Roy W. Sedell, Mrs. W. C.

THE STRITZKE-SCHROEDER wedding party is pictured above following the marriage Saturday evening of Miss Deanna Schroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Schroeder of this city and Elmer (Mickey) Stritzke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stritzke of Winchester, at the First Southern Baptist Church. The Rev. J. T. Howard performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. Sept. 14, in the presence of 125 guests. (Picture by Koop's Modern Photography).

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE HARRY YUNKER, above, were married at 3 p.m. Sept. 15, at the First Methodist Church in the presence of 125 guests. The Rev. H. James Jenkins performed the double ring ceremony. The bride, Elaine Frances Scudder, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scudder of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Yunker of Corvallis. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

A very lovely wedding carrying out the colors of pink and white took place Sunday, Sept. 15, at the First Methodist Church, when the Rev. H. James Jenkins united in marriage Elaine Frances Scudder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scudder, 832 W. 11th, Roseburg, and Wayne Harry Yunker, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Yunker, 205 N. 22nd, Corvallis. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 125 guests. The Rev. Meredith Groves of Eugene, district superintendent of the Methodist Church, assisted with the wedding service.

The large floor baskets held pink cacti dahlias and flanked three large floor candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles. The aisles were marked by white satin bows and the church windows were centered with lighted candles and white satin bows.

Mrs. F. G. Burr played the wedding music and accompanied Herschel D. Scott of Ashland, soloist, who sang, "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap. Candelighters were Miss Carolyn Burr of Portland and Miss Barbara Ashton of Portland. They wore white robes.

Given in marriage by her father, the beautiful bride wore a floor-length gown of starched nylon fashioned with short sleeves and a scooped neckline edged with Venice lace. The bouffant skirt was designed with a brush trim. She wore white starched nylon mitts and her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of net and seed pearls. She wore pearl earrings and her bridal bouquet was a cascade of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Mrs. Davis Aase, Corvallis, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Benjamin Whiteley, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Colleen Baum, both of Portland, were bridesmaids. The matron of honor wore aqua and the bridesmaids wore pink gowns fashioned alike of embroidered taffeta with ballerina-length skirts and matching chiffon sashes and seedpearl-trimmed net hats. They carried cascade

MRS. JIM WATSON IS FETED AT LOVELY SHOWER

A social event of the early fall season was a charming pink and blue shower given at the new Glide Kiwanis Community Building at 7 p.m. Friday in honor of Mrs. Jim Watson. Hostesses were Mrs. Forest Kennaday, Mrs. Sam Ball, Mrs. Jim Marier, Mrs. Dale Bonnell, Mrs. Albert Cellers and Mrs. Kent Wilcox. Bouquets of fall flowers were placed around the room.

After the guest of honor had opened her many gifts, the evening was spent visiting and playing games. Lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses from a table decorated with dahlias and tall pink and white tapers at each end.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mrs. Walter Hansen, Mrs. Fred Asam and daughter, Jeanette, Mrs. Lois Montzer, Mrs. V. E. Long, Mrs. Joyce Rowell, Mrs. Corrine Earp, Mrs. Short Morgan, Mrs. R. G. West, Mrs. William Eswine, Mrs. Doral Jones, Mrs. Bill Hackney, Mrs. Ralph Seiple, Mrs. Ray Ballou, Mrs. Henry Carlson, Mrs. Ellis Watson, Mrs. Floyd Hickman, Mrs. Vern Schrum, Mrs. George Casebeer, Mrs. Marvin Gardner, Mrs. Floyd Gardner, Mrs. Neil Talcott, Mrs. Watson Talcott, Mrs. Jack Schloeman, Mrs. Bob Casebeer, Carmen Drake, Mrs. Vern Cox, Mrs. Dan Able, Mrs. Rae Reid, Evelyn Turner, Mrs. Gene Cox, Mrs. Stanley Harvey and Mrs. Harry Turnbull.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Lincoln Kennaday, Mrs. Clare Erskine, Mrs. Bob Casebeer, Mrs. Dick Smith, Mrs. James E. Miles, Mrs. J. O. Brumbach, Mrs. Carl Helms, Mrs. Claude Talcott, Mrs. Clyde Gardner, Mrs. Charles Stiffler, Mrs. Ada Woods, Mrs. Oscar Stedman, Mrs. Don Wright, Mrs. Buford Polley, Mrs. Robert Blakely, Mrs. Franklin Jones, Mrs. Ralph Lewis, Mrs. Ralph Hickman, Mrs. Ray Engels, Mrs. Cecil Harris, Mrs. Carl Messing and Mrs. James W. Miles.

Shirley Iverson Becomes Mrs. Kenneth D. Baber

Shirley Iverson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Smith of Roseburg and Kenneth D. Baber were united in marriage in an impressive double ring ceremony August 21 in the candlelighted chapel of the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Albany. The Rev. R. H. Weiland officiated. Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Leonard, close friends of the bride and bridegroom, were attendants.

The bride chose a bolero jacketed sheath dress of dusty rose with white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was white feathered carnations and pink rosebuds. Her jewelry, a necklace and matching earrings, was a gift of the bridegroom. The matron of honor wore a beige afternoon dress with brown hat and brown accessories.

The former will study for his Master's Degree at University of Washington this year. The bride was graduated from Oregon State College with the degree in Home Economics in June. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Mr. Yunker was graduated from Oregon State College with a degree in chemistry and is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Yunker; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albert, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Garman, Miss Luan Garman, Mrs. David Aase, James Barnes, Peter Meyer, Mrs. Leonard Weber, Miss Patricia Dubbe and Murray Smith. All of Cor-

HONORED ON HER 94th birthday Wednesday was Mrs. Louise Voigt, above, who was complimented at a charming party given by her daughter, Mrs. William Vogt, when members of the Mid-Week Bible Class and friends were invited to her home on Wharton Avenue to celebrate the occasion. Mrs. Voigt, who is in fairly good health, enjoys flower gardening and visiting with her many friends. She was born Sept. 17, 1863, in Germany and was married to Julius Voigt Oct. 17, 1885, and in 1891 moved with him to the United States and settled in Jamestown, N. D. Mr. Voigt died in 1927 and she moved to Roseburg to make her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Vogt, 666 Wharton Ave. She has the one daughter, one granddaughter; three great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren all living in Roseburg. She has one sister in North Dakota and a niece and great-nephew in Germany. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Langdon of 5308 S.W. 53rd Ave., Portland, announce the engagement of their daughter Joiley, to Richard Virgil Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stock of Roseburg. Miss Langdon was graduated from Lincoln High School in Portland and then attended Multnomah Bible College. At present she is employed as an IBM operator in the offices of The Alpenrose Dairy in Portland. Richard attended Roseburg High and is now an instructor in small firearms with the U. S. Air Force and is stationed at Lake Charles AFB in Louisiana. The wedding will take place at the First Evangelical Church of Portland during the Christmas holidays.

A charming affair of Wednesday was the birthday party given by Mrs. William Vogt for members of the Mid-Week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and friends in compliment to her mother, Mrs. Louise Voigt, on her 94th anniversary.

Mrs. W. M. Schneider furnished the beautiful bouquets of colorful fall flowers, which she tastefully arranged about the large living room. Mrs. Schneider also made the corsage for the guest of honor and for the hostess as well as for Mrs. W. A. Sylvester, wife of Pastor Sylvester.

The serving table was covered with a lovely white birthday cake flanked by tall pink candles and pink roses. Mrs. Vogt was assisted by Mrs. Charles McCullum, Mrs. Schneider and Mrs. Sylvester in serving the refreshments.

After the singing of the birthday song, Mrs. Gary Kummer, chairman of the class, gave a short talk and presented a birthday gift from the class to Mrs. Voigt. A lovely card bearing the signatures of the guests accompanied the gift. Mrs. Voigt is one of the three charter members who organized the Mid-Week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church 25 years ago.

During the afternoon Pastor Sylvester led the group in a very interesting Bible discussion Revelation Chapter 2, and called special attention to verse 10, which is Mrs. Voigt's favorite passage and confirmation verse and reads, "Be thou faithful until death and I will give thee the crown of life." The group sang Mrs. Voigt's favorite hymn "Jesus Lead Thou On" which was sung at her wedding 72 years ago.

During the pleasant social hour pictures were taken. The three oldest members of the class and charter members include Mrs. Voigt, Mrs. Mattie Richardson and Mrs. V. Andraief. Others present besides the hostess, Mrs. Vogt, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorby and children, Richard, Steve, Greg and Gay and David and Shelley of Eugene; Mrs. J. Leonard and Mrs. G. Willis.

FRANCISCAN WARE Open Stock SALE!

20% off

TWO WEEKS ONLY

Every shape, every pattern, every single piece of Famous Franciscan Ware in our stocks will be selling at a budget-balancing 20% off for two weeks. Build a new set or fill-in your present pattern. It's the greatest sale ever!

Fill In Those Needed Pieces OF FRANCISCAN WARE Favorite Patterns

- | | |
|-------------|-----------|
| DESERT ROSE | AUTUMN |
| APPLE | DUET |
| OASIS | STARBURST |
| | IVY |

Sale Starts Mon.--Ends Oct. 5

Corner Oak and Jackson Dial Orchard 3-6528