Mercy Auxiliary Parade Of Parties To Be Held In Roseburg Sept. 24-27

Mercy Hospital Auxiliary's 1957 parade of parties promises to be the most outstanding to date and elaborate plans are being completed for the four affairs, which will take place next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 24-25-26 and 27. Mrs. John Lonsdale, Jr. is general chairman of the parties and has announced that some changes in the parties have been made this year to allow more business people (including men as well as women) to enjoy the affairs.

The first party will be a coffee to be held Tuesday, Sept. 24, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Davis on Royal Oaks Drive, Ridgewood. The Parisian sidewalk cafe theme will be carried out for the party, which is in charge of Mrs. J. A. Colbrunn, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Hall Seely, Mrs. Donald Swick, Mrs. Dennis Doyle, Mrs. Bruce Carter, Mrs. John William Unruh, Mrs. B. I. Martin, Mrs. Clifford Babbitt, Mrs. Burr Drulliner, Mrs. W. J. Hutch, Mrs. Robert Murphy, Mrs. Robert H. Neve, Mrs. Rex Roberts, Mrs. Dudley Walton and Miss Anna Link. Tickets for the party may be secured from any member of the committee or at the door the morning of the party.

Wednesday, Sept. 25 a garden brunch has been planned to take place between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the beautiful home of Mrs. Arthur Clarke, 759 SE Lane Avenue (corner of Lane and Kane). Mrs. Louis J. Redmond is general chairman of this party and has announced that the location was chosen because of its closeness to the business district, so that those having coffee breaks could also enjoy the affair. The menu for the brunch will include fruit cup, link sausages, waffles and syrup, wine jelly prepared by Mrs. Paul K. Ryan and coffee. Businessmen are especially invited to attend the party. Decorations for the party will be in charge of Mrs. James A. Lanspa, Mrs. V. F. Bakala, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Noble B. Goettel, Mrs. Marguerite Graham, Mrs. Gene E. Johnson, Mrs. Thomas J. Martin, Mrs. Floyd Donald Moore, Mrs. Lee Mortenson, Mrs. J. Sanders, Mrs. Howard A. Thomas and Mrs. Pete Neal. Menu committee members include Mrs. A. A. St. Onge, Mrs. James T.

Carey, Mrs. William H. Cook, Mrs. Harold J. Desbuis, Mrs. Charles J. Dusek, Mrs. Robert L. Easter, Mrs. James B. Kilkenny, Mrs. W. L. Lange and Mrs. H. A. Watzig with Mrs. Donald M. Jepsen and Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid as finance committee members. Tickets for the brunch may be purchased from committee members or at the door.

Thursday — September 26 will be a tomale luncheon to be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse, a location chosen for its easy accessibility to the business district. Decorations for this party will carry out the Spanish and Mexican theme with many interesting articles from Spain and Mexico to be on display. The serving committee will add to the colorfulness of the occasion by wearing appropriate costumes. Spanish background music will be played throughout the luncheon hours. Every detail is being carefully worked out to make this "South of the Border" party a colorful and delightful event. Those having only short time for lunch may attend and be assured of quick service. Mrs. Al Bishop is acting as chairman of the event and is being assisted by Mrs. Harold Jokela, co-chairman. Mrs. Glenn Anderson, Mrs. L. J. Bean, Mrs. Leslie Bauer, Mrs. Edward Bishop, Mrs. John Bogner, Mrs. Carl Crain, Mrs. Sidney Domenico, Mrs. Joe Fest, Mrs. G. L. Finlay, Mrs. William Forrest, Mrs. Paul Flood, Mrs. Ron Frashour, Mrs. R. C. Herbage, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. William Lassiter, Mrs. Ray Martin, Mrs. S. W. Moore, Mrs. Leo Monahan, Mrs. Bert Morrissey, Mrs. Russell Parsons, Miss Bernardine Prince, Mrs. Cal Perley, Mrs. Elvira Recia, Mrs. Duane Roles, Mrs. George Schultze, Mrs. Robert Wandling and Mrs. Agnes Jordan. Tickets may be purchased at the door or obtained from any member of the committee. Both men and women are invited.

Highlighting the final party, which will be a dessert-supper at 8 p.m. followed by a card party at the Elks Club Terrace Ballroom will be the beautiful fashion show presented by the Mabel Lewis Dress Show with Mrs. Harry LeBeau as commentator. The theme of the fashion show will be "The Roaring Twenties." Both men and women are invited to attend. Some of the door prizes to be given will include a GE coffee maker, a set of stainless steel table ware and a permanent. In addition, each table in play will have an individual prize for its winner. Contract bridge, pinocle and canasta will be in play. Those making up tables are asked to bring their own cards. Reservations are to be made by calling Mrs. Paul K. Ryan.

Mrs. Bill Gray is acting as chairman of the card party and will be assisted by Mrs. Leland K. Wimberly, Mrs. Robert Mooers, Mrs. Louis Thurber, Mrs. J. C. Reese, Mrs. Edward Tauscher, Mrs. Lee Lacey, Mrs. E. A. Radian, Mrs. Paul K. Ryan, Mrs. Perry Thiele, Mrs. Ernest Butler, Mrs. James Richmond, Mrs. A. J. ## Recent Wedding Of Much Interest Here

A recent wedding of interest to friends in this area united Miss Rosalie D. Trento, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Trento of Wilbur, and Airman 3C George O. Marks, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Marks of Sutherlin. The couple was married Aug. 14, in the chapel of the Sheppard Air Force Base at Wichita Falls, Texas, with Chaplain Churchhill officiating.

The young people exchanged vows at a lovely candlelight service at seven-thirty in the evening, before an altar decorated with white gladiolus and chrysanthemum. The bride wore a beige suit with pink accessories, and carried a white Bible, topped with an orchid and orange blossom corsage.

Mrs. Eva Arps of Rockford, Ill., grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mae Bowman, a school friend of the bridegroom from Couer d'Alene, Idaho, witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Arps wore a blue gown of interwoven lace and ribbon.

Also present for the event was the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John Marks, and a large number of friends from the airbase. Mrs. Marks wore a blue orlon street dress with white accessories. A wedding dinner was held at the Peadilly Restaurant later in the evening.

Mrs. Marks was graduated from Roseburg High School. She was queen of the Sutherlin Timber Days celebration in 1954 and a princess of the Douglas County Rodeo Court in 1955. Mr. Marks attended college at Couer d'Alene. The couple will reside in Wichita Falls, Texas, for the present.

Saturday following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Marks were honored at a combination party and shower by the men of the student squadron of which Mr. Marks is a member.

LARGE GROUP ENJOYS YONCALLA CHURCH POTLUCK

Over 100 friends and members of the Yoncalla Methodist Church gathered in the social room of the church recently for the regular monthly potluck supper and fellowship. The first quarterly board meeting was held at 4 p.m. with District Supt. Meredith Groves presiding.

Following the potluck supper, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Emery showed moving pictures of the annual Sunday school picnic held at the coast. The Rev. and Mrs. Austin McGee showed colored slides of their journey from Kansas to Oregon, later last spring. Congregational singing was enjoyed during the changing of films.

DANA RHODEN, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Rhoden of Roseburg, left this week with her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Harry A. (Ulah) Winston, for St. Louis, Mo., where she will enroll at the Principia lower school (private school). A former piano pupil of Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Dana will study at the St. Louis Institute of Music. She will receive ballet training from Michael Simms, formerly with the Canadian Royal Ballet. (Picture by Wilson Studio).
