The First Baptist Church in Roseburg was the scene of an impressive late summer wedding Sunday, Sept. 15, when Shirley Ann St. Clair, only daughter of W. H. St. Clair of Ashland and Mrs. Nellie Stewart of Sweet Home, and Ernest Jerald Linson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Louderback of this city, recited their marriage vows before 50 friends and relatives.

Dr. Eugene Gerlitz, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony at 3 p.m. beneath an arch of beautiful white and red gladioli, decorated with ferns and ivy and two large wedding bells. Two fan baskets filled with gladioli formed the base of the arch and two large baskets of red and white gladioli flanked the platform. The baskets were tied with silver bows and streamers.

Mrs. Beth Warg played the wedding marches on the church organ and accompanied Ira Linson, who sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the entrance of the bride on the arm of her father, and "Marriage Vows" at the close of the ceremony.

The bride wore a street-length sheath dress, fashioned of white all-over lace over baby blue taffeta with chiffon cowl neckline and back streamers. A white lace hat and shoes completed her attire.

She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses on a white ribbon, a gift of the bridegroom's mother.

Maid of honor was Cheryl Santisen of Sweet Home, a school friend of the bride. She wore a navy blue sheath dress with white accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of pink gladioli. Best man was Billy Starnes, close friend of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother chose an afternoon dress of rayon sheer orchid on white print and white accessories. Mother of the bridegroom wore beige linen with fitted lace jacket and cinnamon brown accessories. Both mothers wore white gladioli corsages.

Ushers were Melvin Linson, brother of the bridegroom, and Jack Johnson.

A reception was held in the lower auditorium of the church where pink and white with silver was the color scheme. Large bouquets of pink and white dahlias with fern and ivy were used on the mantel over the fireplace and on the piano and tables.

The bride's table, beneath two silver bells, was spread with linen and held the beautiful cake decorated with red roses, pale green leaves and white bells edged in red. Tiny doves on the top of the cake held two miniature rings beside the bride and bridegroom figures under a white bell.

Mrs. Melvin Linson, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, served the cake. Mrs. Genevieve Rakes, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the beautiful crystal punch bowl, and Mrs. Lou Collins poured coffee from the silver service.

The table for the guest book was covered with a lace cloth and held a large bouquet of dahlias. Gertrude Linson, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book, and Joyce, another sister, assisted Emma Melton with the gift table.

After a short honeymoon in Eugene, the couple will be at home at 364 1/2 Vista, Ashland.

The bride was graduated from Sweet Home Union High School in 1957. The bridegroom attended elementary school in Dolores, Colo., before moving to Roseburg in 1952. He was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1955 and is employed with the Heinz Construction Co. on the Howard Prairie Dam project at Ashland.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Gladys St. Claire of Coquille and Mrs. Etta West, Sweet Home; Mrs. Velda Matheny, Doris and Dave West and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ammon, all of Coos Bay; Mrs. Eldora Betz, Paul and George Betz, Dan Stewart and Frank Hall, all of Sweet Home; Mrs. Lora West of Lebanon and Lawrence Nyde, Coquille.

Rosa Lou Hubbard Now Mrs. Earl E. Ramsey

The Dillard-Winston Methodist Church was the scene Sunday, Sept. 8, of the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Rosa Lou Hubbard of Winston and Pfc. Earl E. Ramsey, Eugene.

William O. Walker of Dillard officiating. Baskets of gladioli and dahlias and candles in candelabra formed a lovely background for the ceremony. Mrs. Charles McCord played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Ruby Ann Vance who sang "Walk Hand in Hand" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, on the arm of her father, looked charming in a strapless dress of tiered lace over taffeta. She wore a lace bolero and her veil was net and lace, secured by a pearl crown. Her wedding bouquet was of white gladioli with pink edges.

Helen Hubbard, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore yellow and carried a bouquet of pink dahlias. Bridesmaids were Ada Marier, sister of the bride, and Lorraine Jacoby, both wearing blue frocks and carrying yellow dahlias. Candelighters were Donnie Bray, stepbrother of the bridegroom, and Gary Kennedy, a cousin. Flower girl was Pamela Alexander, and Billy Hubbard was ring bearer.

Charles Marier was best man and ushers were Marvin Gardner and R. J. Gardner, cousins of the bride. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hubbard wore dusty rose over taffeta with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with white polka dots with white accessories.

A beautiful three-tiered cake decorated with pink rosebuds and the traditional miniature bridal couple was served with punch at the reception in the church parlors which followed the ceremony. The lace-covered table was ornamented with pink and white gladioli. In charge of refreshments were Mrs. Harold Welson, Mrs. Richard Gardner and Mrs. Everett Fipps.

For traveling, the bride wore navy blue taffeta with white accessories. The newlyweds will make their home at Camp Pendleton, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hubbard of Winston, attended Roseburg High School and has been employed as an invoice clerk at Montgomery Ward's.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Pete Bray and the late Earl Ramsey of Eugene. He attended school at Glide.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Anderson and family, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bray and Donnie, Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Frasier, Corvallis.
