

PICTURED ABOVE are Mrs. Robert O'Neil and her family, Jim, Peggy and Bruce, and pictured below are Mrs. Bert S. Corkrum and her three daughters, left to right: Deborah ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Dale Sall of Myrtle Creek announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Dixie, to Jack Lovell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hill of Myrtle Creek. The wedding has been set for Oct. 1 at 8 p.m. at the Tri City Presbyterian Church. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

ENGAGEMENT TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wegher of Myrtle Creek announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Joan to Robert F. Graber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graber of Myrtle Creek. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Wegher plans to attend Oregon College of Education at Monmouth and major in the field of elementary education. She received a scholarship for teacher education from the Tri City PTA this year. Her fiancé is presently operating the City Meat Market in Myrtle Creek. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

ADAM SCHNEIDER celebrated his 80th birthday at an open house Sept. 15 at the Clem Schneider home in Garden Valley. Pictured above is the guest of honor, seated, and his three sons, Clem Schneider, Roseburg, and Dr. Carl Schneider and Harrie Schneider both of Kirkland, Wash. Below the guest of honor is pictured with his grandchildren including Billy, Marvin, John Carl and Sheila Schneider. (Pictures by Fern Dailey).

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Young Honored At Party Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Young were complimented at a delightful housewarming party at their new home in Eugene Sunday. A lovely gift, a hand-painted picture of Renee, was presented from the group to the Youngs for their new home. The Youngs recently moved from Roseburg to Eugene.

A barbecue steak dinner was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Young and family, and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Walpole, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carter and son, Tommy, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Haberg.

PETERSONS HONORED AT FAREWELL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kruse of Riversdale entertained Sunday afternoon at a delicious chicken dinner as a farewell party for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Peterson, who left this week for Portland to make their home during the college year.

Dinner was served on tables in the yard where places were set for additional guests Mr. and Mrs. John Burkhardt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burkhardt and Kathy, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Pearson and their houseguest, James Chang, of Korea; Mr. and Mrs. Don Kruse and Jeff, Denny and Karen, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Christian and Greg, Mark and Dean.

Adam Schneider celebrated his 80th birthday at an open house Sept. 15 at the Clem Schneider home in Garden Valley. Blue delphinium and pink pom-pom asters graced the rooms. A dried arrangement of peppercorn and driftwood was used on the TV. The serving table, attractive with its festive birthday cloth, was centered with the birthday cake and one large hand-made candle.

Presiding over the guest book were his granddaughters, Sheila Schneider and Carol Schneider, and his youngest grandson, Marvin Schneider. Mrs. Clem Schneider was assisted in serving by Mrs. Carl Schneider of Kirkland, Wash. Guests were greeted by the three Schneider sons, Clem, Harrie and Dr. Carl; the latter two coming from Kirkland, Wash. to be with their father.

Other family members were his eldest grandson, John Schneider, and Billy Schneider sons of Dr. Carl Schneider; Mrs. Harrie Schneider and Sherrie and Sanjee were unable to attend.

Guests were invited to call between 2 and 5 p.m. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harding Knapp, Lillian Hill, Lois Hill and Mike and Vickie; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dailey, Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Aydelott, Mr. and Mrs. Ryeo Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Hurley Wilson.

Mrs. T. H. Pargeter, Milla and Doyle, Mrs. Robert Smith, Charles Hughes, Frank Johnston, Kattie Winniford, Glen Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roland Parker, Fred Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hess and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bostwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill and children, Gary, Donna Lee and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miller and Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. F. Graham Ewens, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hill, Mr. and Mrs. G. Glenn McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matthews, Mrs. Dean Henry and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bashford.

Many birthday wishes were sent by mail. In the morning hours the family enjoyed an outdoor brunch. A family birthday dinner was held in the evening.

Pre-College Party Is Delightful Affair Tuesday

Deborah Corkrum and Jim O'Neil were honored at a charming pre-college party dinner dance Tuesday evening. Covers were placed at a beautifully appointed table for Mrs. Bert Corkrum and daughters, Deborah, Judy and Kathi, and Mrs. Robert O'Neil and daughter, Peggy, and sons, Jim and Bruce.

Deborah left with her mother Saturday for Walla Walla, Wash., where she will enroll at Whitman College as a freshman. She will major in elementary education.

Jim, who has worked as a radio announcer and disc-jockey for the last seven months at KYES, left for Pullman, Wash., where he will enroll as a freshman in the School of Radio and TV at Washington State College. En route he will be taken on a tour of the radio stations and TV stations in Portland.

ELKTON TEACHERS GIVEN RECEPTION SUNDAY NIGHT

A teachers reception held at the Elkton Methodist Church Sunday evening was attended by 80.

Those on the program were: Mrs. Vern Clemo, who sang a solo; Diana Henderer and David Hubbard, who played an accordion duet and sang, and a guest pianist of the Methodist Church. Refreshments were served by the Methodist ladies.

Gene Fisher, chairman of the school board, introduced the members of the school board, Leo Crisman, Supl. and principal of the high school, introduced high school teachers and their wives and Gene Anderson, principal of the grade school, introduced grade school teachers and their wives.

A DINNER PARTY honoring Jim O'Neil and Deborah Corkrum, who left this week for college, was given last Tuesday evening. Jim has enrolled at Washington State College at Pullman, Wash., and Deborah has enrolled at Whitman College at Walla Walla, Wash. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab)

A MEMBERSHIP DRIVE TEA has been planned by members of the Douglas Community Hospital, Auxiliary to be held Oct. 2 at the home of Mrs. Roy K. Byrd on Del Rio Road. Part of the committee is pictured above and from left to right are Mrs. Ted Bernard, Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. Bill Schultz, chairman, Mrs. Roy K. Byrd and Mrs. Arthur

Wilson. Also working with the committee but not pictured are Mrs. Harry Sanislo, Mrs. Roy E. Hanford, Mrs. Louis F. Michalek, Mrs. William Holst and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp. All women of the community interested in learning of the activities of the hospital auxiliary are most cordially invited to attend the tea. (Picture by Dick Gilman).

GUARDIAN COUNCIL HOST TO COUNTY GROUPS SUNDAY

Guardian Council of Bethel 8, entertained six betheles of the Douglas County Guardians Club Sunday afternoon at the Masonic Temple in Roseburg.

Grand Guardian Mrs. Evelyn McGill of Beaverton was the honored guest and conducted a school of instruction after the lovely buffet luncheon. Grand guardians and line officers from Myrtle Creek, Canyonville, Oakland, Hesketh, Winston and Dillard were represented at the meeting. Officers of Bethel 8 were used as models in the school of instructions.

Clifford Kent, associated grand guardian of Bethel 19, announced that the next meeting will be held at Winston-Dillard some time in November when election of new officers will be held.

MRS. L. W. COTTRILL HOSTESS TO RIVERSDALE MNO CLUB

Mrs. L. W. Cottrell entertained the Riversdale MNO Club Wednesday evening at her home. Members answered roll call with "A Memorable Event of School Days."

Mrs. Neil Christian was elected to fill the club's vice-presidential vacancy. The door prize was awarded to Mrs. H. W. Conn.

At a late hour Mrs. Cottrell served refreshments to Mrs. Conn, Mrs. Christian, Mrs. Jack Denton, Mrs. Ed Cardiff, Mrs. L. D. Bloom, Mrs. B. S. Stryker, Mrs. Kenneth Hebard, Mrs. Dick Brown, Mrs. Argus Fisher, Mrs. J. M. Burkhardt and Mrs. Darwin Lee.

Select-at-Home Carpet Service..

Call or visit your Sears Catalog Sales Office. Our representative will come to your house with samples of Harmony House floor coverings. He will measure your floor for wall-to-wall carpeting or room-size rugs. Estimates gladly given. No obligation or charge for this service!

Bob Gunderson, OR 2-2351 — Bill Simpson, OR 3-3865 or SEARS CATALOG SALES OFFICE. ORchard 3-6673