Taxi Driver Convicted Of Taking Cut From Girl

PORTLAND — A circuit court jury convicted a taxicab driver Wednesday of taking a cut of earnings of call girl Stella Green.

Judge Eugene K. Oppenheimer delayed the sentencing of the man, Lawrence Leo, 34, Portland. The maximum possible is 15 years in prison.

Miss Green, who said she formerly was a prostitute, testified against Leo after refusing to testify against two other persons also accused of sometimes taking a cut of her earnings. Both were acquitted.

They were among eight persons indicted after Miss Green appeared before a grand jury earlier.

Of the five trials to come, that of John Penny, a hotel bellboy, is scheduled next.

Miss Green's refusal to testify in the two earlier cases brought her sentences of eight months in jail for contempt of court. After that, she decided to testify in the Leo trial.

Robert Beardsley Chairmans Section For CDUF Drive

Robert M. Beardsley will head up one of the sections in the coming fund drive for the Central Douglas United Fund.

The drive starts next Wednesday. The goal is $64,444.

Five division leaders have been selected in Beardsley's section. They are: Howard Petersen, finance; Clyde Fullerton, foods; Pres Lee, fuels; Robert Curtis, furniture and home furnishings; and Charles Dondero, motels, hotels and restaurants.

Acting as the section secretary is Bill Scarth, Douglas Fir District executive of the Boy Scouts.

Beardsley is secretary of the Douglas County Title Co. He has lived here 4 1/2 years. He is a Rotarian, Boy Scout volunteer and an Air Force reservist, holding a captain's rank.

He and his wife have two sons and two daughters. They belong to the Presbyterian Church.

Interstate Bridge Bond Issue To Be Talked At Meeting

OLYMPIA — Plans for an additional bond issue for the interstate bridge project between Portland and Vancouver will be discussed by the State Toll Bridge Authority at a special meeting Thursday, TBA Secretary D. B. Hedges said Tuesday.

He said the TBA also will be asked to designate a broker of record so insurance can be placed on the new Maple Street toll bridge in Spokane.

Hedges said the TBA will be asked to consider employment of fiscal experts to aid in preparing for the sale of a $5,200,000 issue of revenue bonds for the interstate bridge across the Columbia.

The TBA sold the first block of $9,300,000 bonds to help finance the project in 1956.

The total issue of $14,500,000 was authorized to help finance the building of a second bridge across the river parallel and adjacent to the existing structure and to rebuild the present span.

The bonds will be retired by a toll of 20 cents a car on both bridges. The structures are a joint project of the states of Washington and Oregon.

The entire project is scheduled for completion Jan. 1, 1960. Tolls are to be collected on the two bridges when they are opened to traffic.

Army Train Guard Kills Korean Caught Tampering

SEOUL — A U.S. Army train guard shot and killed a 15-year-old Korean boy near Taegu today. The guard was identified as Specialist 3-C, Raymond L. Bailey, Brownsburg, Ind.

The Army said Bailey found several youths tampering with the door of a sidetracked boxcar at Kumehon. He ordered them in Korean to halt but they fled.

Bailey told military investigators he fired a shot in the air, then one at the ground in the direction of the fleeing boys. Song Joon Won was wounded and died an hour and a half later.

The newspaper Chosun Ilbo immediately branded the incident a "barbarous action" and said several hundred Koreans had demonstrated, demanding the guard be turned over.

Mute Flute Decried By Order Of Court

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Robert L. Dietrich will have to keep his flute mute at home from now on.

Dietrich, a flutist for the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, was piped into city court Wednesday by neighbors who complained that Dietrich practiced three to five hours a day — playing the scale "up and down — never a tune."

Judge James B. McKenna invited Dietrich to blow in his own defense and listened carefully as Dietrich fingered a scale or two.

"That," said the judge, "could drive a person insane."

He found Dietrich guilty of "disturbing the peace, quiet and comfort" of neighbors, suspended a $250 fine and placed him on probation for one year.

Evergreen Grangers Receive Fair Check

Evergreen Grange is $90 richer today.

At the last meeting, secretary Jessie Thomas reported she had received a check for that amount from the Douglas County Fair Board for a third — place ribbon won by the grange's fair booth.

This is the third year the grange has placed among the top three. In the previous two years, it has won second places.

During the meeting, Albert and Nettie Swanson presented demits from the South Umpqua Grange. They have moved back to Roseburg and will again be associated with Evergreen.

In other business, home economics chairman Gertrude Hess announced a forthcoming series of breakfasts for grange members and their friends to be held at the grange hall.

For the entertainment portion of the meeting, the men of the grange, under the direction of Charles Slabaugh and Bernice van Atta, presented a "fashion show." Isabella McDowell acted as narrator. In addition, Mary Lou and Susan Engdahl, Sylvia Caley and Terry Russell played an accordion quartet.
