Camas Valley Farm Bureau To Elect Officers Tonight

By MRS. W. L. BANKS
Camas Valley Farm Bureau will hold its regular meeting tonight at the Veterans Hall on Burma Road. The meeting will be preceded by a potluck supper at 7:30, and those attending are asked to bring their own table service. There will be an election of officers to serve for the coming year.

Hunter Successful
Mr. and Mrs. William Busch have returned to their home following a week's hunting trip at Live Oak. Mr. Busch returned with a three point buck.
Kay Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler left recently for Oregon State College in Corvallis. She will be enrolling for her sophomore year.
Charlotte Barcus recently won a pearl medal at a speech contest held in Tenmile sponsored by the WCTU.

Local Students At Lewis, Clark Accorded Honors

Donna Ellison Brady, Nancy Cate and Douglas Donaca, all of Roseburg and now attending Lewis and Clark College in Portland, were recently honored with 100 other students for their unusual intellectual curiosity and scholarly ability in academic work. Each candidate for the honors was nominated by two college departments.
Miss Cate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cate, 3199 NE Follett St. and Donaca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Donaca, were named to the sophomore - junior honor society for work they did during their sophomore year.
Mrs. Brady, senior English major and former member of the sophomore - junior society, was promoted to the new senior honor society. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellison.

Azalea Church Plans For Community Night

The Myrtlewood Chapter of the Seventh-day Adventist Federated Dorcas Welfare Assn. will convene at 2:30 p.m., Oct. 15, in the Adventist Church in Coquille, according to Mrs. Gilbert Wood, leader of the local Dorcas group.
Representatives from 16 Southern Oregon churches, including Roseburg, are expected to be present to discuss ways and means of making the Dorcas welfare program even more effective than it is at present. Elders C. J. Ritchie and George Liscombe will be present to represent the Oregon Conference and the Pacific Union Conference, and to lead into the discussions of work to be done and of the broader aspects of the welfare program.
Maybelle Vandermark will be the special guest speaker at the evening session, Mrs. Wood announced. The evening meeting, scheduled to open at 7, will be preceded by a banquet for all. Several Roseburg people plan to attend this special Federated Dorcas session, one of two such sessions held each year. Mrs. Wood reports that the local Dorcas group has been busy preparing clothing and canned foods for local use and also clothing for shipment to overseas welfare use.

700 REGISTER
EUGENE — Nearly 700 are registered for the Oregon High School Press Conference to be held here Friday and Saturday. The conference is sponsored by the Oregon Scholastic Press, the Oregon Assn. of Journalism Advisors and the University of Oregon School of Journalism.

Neuberger Recommends McCall For 'Right' Post
PORTLAND — Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) Thursday said he has recommended Republican Tom Lawson McCall, Portland, for executive director of the President's Civil Rights Commission. The senator's recommendation was sent in a letter to Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell.
Neuberger said that while he disagreed with McCall on numerous issues "the economic matters on which I disagree with Mr. McCall are not at stake in this situation."
St. Paul, Minn., was originally named Pig's Eye.
