Anti-Communists Win Rule Of San Marino

SAN MARINO & — Anti-Com-munists took over the government of the tiny republic of San Ma-rino for the first time in 12 years Monday.

Monday.

An enthusiastic crowd of 4,000 San Marinese almost mobbed members of the new "white" regime as they arrived in San Marino village from the abandoned steel factory that had been their headquarters during almost two weeks of political dispute.

FREMONT SCION DIES

NEW YORK A — Navy Capt.
John Charles Fremont, 77, veteran of three wars and grandson of Gen. John C. Fremont, 19th century military hero and explorer, died Sunday. He was the son of Rear Adm. John C. Fremont, one time naval attache in Paris and St. Petersburg, Russia.

Service said hunting in the area was excellent.

There are an estimated 4½ million ducks in the Tuletake region, as well as 180,000 geese, the service said.

The weather gave the hunters an assist Sunday, the service said, as rain squalls forced flights of ducks and geese low over the marshy areas.

Nine Fliers Bail Out;
Unmanned Plane Lands

BUTLER, Mo. — Nine fliers from Forbes Air Force Base at Topeka, Kan., bailed out of their C47 transport into the darkness last night and the plane made a pretty good landing by itself.

No one was hurt.
Capt. E. P. Zeidler, co-pilot, said he didn't know what caused the plane's two engines to quit. The air base said it was almost home from a routine four-hour training flight.

What can the insurance company do about this situation?

Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co., Mifwaukee, Wis., believes it has one answer—it is examining every policy 10 years old or older to find those which may be in drastic need of revision. To such a policyholder goes a personal letter, telling him of the situation and inviting him to look over his policy.
