

Oakland Boy Scout Troop 29 Holds Officer Elections

By EDITH DUNN
New officers were elected at a recent meeting of Boy Scout Troop 29 of Oakland.

Elected were Dennis Parker, quartermaster; Richard Templeton, chaplain; Mike Lutz, scribe.

and Edward Todd, bugler. There are now three patrols in the troop. Committee members for the troop are Herbert Parker, Fred Dewbre and Francis Todd. The troop is sponsored by the American Legion.

Recent overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Christie were Mrs. Christie's sisters, Mrs. Nellie Caddingan, and Mrs. Leo Caddingan, and husband of Tacoma, Wash., who were on their way to visit at Los Angeles, Calif.

James Wilson of Los Angeles visited recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wilson, and other relatives here.

Canyonville Methodists Set Evening Services

The Rev. Charles MacDonald of the Mt. Tabor Methodist Church in Portland will preach at the evening services of the Canyonville Methodist Church Oct. 21 through 24.

Services will begin at 8 p.m. and will follow organized visitation by members of the church. The Rev. Ray Pindexter, pastor of the Canyonville and Days Creek churches, just returned from attending the Donald-Wilsonville churches near Oregon City in a similar program, reports Virginia Proctor.

Local People Drawn To State Convention

Mrs. Phoebe McGuire of Winston, third Oregon district manager of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will be toastmistress at a district convention at Eugene Saturday, Oct. 26.

The Umpqua Squares drill team of Winston Grove 31 will exemplify ritualistic ceremonies. Three state officers who will attend are Mrs. Jessie Kathryn Thomas, Roseburg, chaplain; Mrs. Alice Christensen, Roseburg, junior supervisor; and Mrs. Carol Ward, Sutherlin, auditor.

ABSENT FROM SCHOOL

PORTLAND (AP) — Nearly 3,000 students were absent from Portland's high schools Monday in the influenza outbreak.

Supt. J. W. Edwards said the absentees represented 16 per cent of the total pupils in the schools.

Musical Numbers Featured By Canyonville PTA Group

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR
Special instrumental numbers from the school's music department will be featured at the next meeting of the Canyonville PTA to be held Oct. 24 at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

Mrs. Philip Claxton will be in charge of arranging the program, according to Mrs. Frank Pockrus, president.

A large crowd attended the auction Sunday at the A. B. LeBlanc's Hungry U ranch on Garley road in spite of the weather and netted over $200 for the Canyonville Seventh-day Adventist Church building fund. Jake Axt of Days Creek was auctioneer and local ladies sold popcorn to the crowd.

Mrs. Zelma Jewell of Riddle was hostess to the Forest Glen hospital staff at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday. Following the general business meeting, lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. William Whitmore, supervisor of nurses of Forest Glen, had as week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Almos of Sunnydale, Calif.

A birthday dinner Sunday at the Sidney Hemphill home honored Mrs. Susan Crowl, Mrs. Hemphill's mother. Mrs. Beda Lilja was also included.

Visits Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Dale LeBlanc and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Faulkner and families of Eureka were week-end guests at the parental A. B. LeBlanc home on Garley Road.

Mrs. Cal Robinson, the former Doris Wright, returned home Sunday with her daughter, Karen Ann, born last Thursday at Myrtle Creek Hospital and weighing 8 pounds 14 ounces.

Hunting over the weekend at Diamond Lake and Silver Lake were Norman Hanson, Gordon Clark, Gene Cherwink of Riddle, Bob Proctor and Bart Nordling families. Cherwink was the lucky hunter returning with a four-point trophy.

Recent guests at the John Hamilton home were Mrs. Hamilton's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Swift, of Lamont, Wash.

RECEIVES CONTRACT

PORTLAND (AP) — The Albina Engine and Machine Works this week received a two-million dollar contract to build a small tanker for the Standard Oil Co. of California.

Fair Oaks To Sponsor 4-H Club Groups

Fair Oaks Grange will sponsor nine 4-H clubs, six of them already formed, and three pending.

Those formed are under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Weaver, Mrs. John Chandler, Mrs. Edna Campbell, Mrs. Marvin Boyd, Mrs. Goldie McCormack and Mrs. Jackie Bird.

Maggie Francis thanked members for their help with the bloodmobile. Lester Harrison, agriculture reporter, gave a report on grass development in Douglas County and announced that 100,000 sheep could be fed, and the amount doubled, if grass was planted on hill sides and mountainous. HE also stated that a machine was available for seeding and could be rented.

Glen Murdock told of an article in the American Rifleman regarding guns for Americans for defense. Secretary Velma Brauninger reported that Azalea Grange will host Pomona Grange Oct. 26, and visiting granges are asked to bring salad and dessert.

Thanks were received from teachers for the luncheon the grange ladies served in September, and a letter was read relative to saving the grange headquarters in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Tresa Wilson was reported ill. A skit was presented by Dorothy Norton, Lester Harrison and Elwin King during the lecture hour. Reports correspondents Mrs. Britain Slack.
