MRS. N. C. WALLIN NAMED RIVERSIDE CLUB HEAD

Mrs. Clarence Wescott was a gracious hostess Wednesday afternoon when the Riverside Happy Hour Club met at her home. Election of officers was held with the following results: President, Mrs. N. C. Wallin; vice president, Mrs. C. M. Stark; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Buell; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Wescott. The group voted a $10 donation to the United Fund. Mrs. William Bromps distributed the yearbooks.

Games were played and Mrs. Wescott served refreshments to Mrs. Carter, a guest, and to Mrs. Bromps, Mrs. Wallin, Mrs. Stark, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. C. N. Downing, Mrs. Albert Moore, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. Ernest Trussell, Mrs. Dale Guiley, Mrs. R. L. Harmon and granddaughter, Julia; and Mrs. H. B. Kruse.

The next meeting will be Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. Dale Guiley. The roll call topic will be "Family Holiday Traditions."

BELLVIEW CLUB ENJOYS RECENT SOCIAL MEETINGS

Lizzie Gardner and Alma Lovelace were hostesses Wednesday afternoon at a delightful "Back to School" party for members of the Bellview Club. A sack lunch was enjoyed by members who came in appropriate costume.

Attending were Ethel Roseland, Irene Walker, Idella Kincaid, Elsie Green, Olive Walker, Louise Hess, Virginia Kruger and the two hostesses.

At an earlier evening meeting of the club, Idella Kincaid, Ester Morgan and Emma Van Vorst were hostesses, serving delicious dessert refreshments. Cora Collison won the prize for the baby pictures contest. Bessie West, whose home was burned recently, was given a "Fire" shower.

The next meeting of the club will be a noon potluck luncheon Nov. 6 at the social room of the Pine Grove Church.

FORESTERS HOSTS AT GAY PARTY AT CAMAS VALLEY

Members of the Independent Order of Foresters Court Douglas 812 and their invited guests enjoyed an evening of hilarity and dancing at their Halloween social held on a recent Saturday at Camas Valley.

Entertainment was highlighted by the exciting and original costumes created and worn by those attending and by the rollicking music for the dancing provided for by Lou Franco and Happy Valley Cowboys.

Costume prizes were awarded to Randy and Danny King of Myrtle Point; Mary White and Josie Claugton of Camas Valley; and to Dennis White of Roseburg and Milo Claugton of Camas Valley.

In keeping with the "Hobgoblin" theme, hot cider, doughnuts and coffee were served.

The next social evening for members will be the Christmas party Dec. 14 at Riverside School.

OLALLA FOLK CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY MONDAY

Mr. and Mrs. George Olivanti were pleasantly surprised when relatives and friends gathered at their home on Hoover Hill Road in Olalla Monday evening to help them celebrate their 46th wedding anniversary. Their 19th grandchild was born on their anniversary, when their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bates, became the parents of a daughter, Joyce Lynn. They have three great grandchildren.

Guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Olivanti with two lovely gifts.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. George Olivanti, guests of honor, and to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bates.

Mrs. Dwayne Boling, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Doyle, Faye and Daniel Olivanti, Glenda and Karen Boling, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Baker and Sandra and Gary Olivanti.

POTLUCK DINNER ENJOYED TUESDAY IN SUTHERLIN

The Do A Deed Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Gleason in west Sutherlin for a noon potluck dinner. A lovely centerpiece of lavender chrysanthemums was used for the table.

Those enjoying the day with Mrs. Gleason were Erma Buck, Hallo Martin, Jessie Brundage, Marybelle Morrison and son Ronnie, and Baby Seawater, Opal Fogel and the Rev. Ginter. The next meeting will be held Nov. 19 at the home of Jessie Brundage.
